First WRA cabin party of the semester will leave from White Hall at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, according to Elizabeth McKinley, WRA president. Plans for the hike, which will be an All-College affair, were discussed at WRA meeting Wednesday. WRA particularly invites first semester freshmen to attend the hike, since it will be their first opportunity to visit the WRA cabin.

The opening WRA playnight, held last Saturday, was very successful, Miss McKinley added. Approximately 60 to 65 girls attended, and many freshmen discovered the advantage of White Hall facilities. This week's playnight will be held at White Hall tomorrow night, and is under the direction of Penny Embury, president of the WRA Golf Club. Miss McKinley will represent WRA Executive Board, and Miss Marie Haidt will be the staff member present.

Intramurals have turned from hockey to basketball when the first practice began last Wednesday. Practices for intramural basketball will be held every Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday until November 30, announced Betty Pike, WRA Intramural chairman. In order to be eligible for intramurals, girls must have a medical permit, and attendance at two practices is a requirement for playing in a game. The first game is planned for November 30, and interclass games may be played later in the semester. All freshmen are

Cwens, WSGA Sponsor Coed 'Dungaree Drag'

Cwens, sophomore women's activities honorary, and WSGA will sponsor an "all-gal stag party" for freshman coeds and transfers in the Armory from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday. The mixer has been dubbed the "Dungaree Drag." As the name indicates, coeds will wear dungarees or old slacks, plaid shirts, and pigtails, according to Anne Louise Decker, Cwens president.

Pat Hallberg's singing and Adele Yablon's dancing will highlight the program. Each freshman and transfer unit will stage an informal skit, and an unusual prize will be awarded to the winning unit, Miss Decker added. Refreshments will be served.

again invited to participate in intramurals, Miss Pike added.

Betty Shenk and June Daniels were appointed as new members of WRA Publicity Board.

Officers of WRA clubs for this semester were announced, and the clubs will meet at the following times: Badminton Club, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Catherine Parish, president. Bridge Club, 7:15 p.m. Thursday; Lois Miller, president. Dance Club, 7:15 p.m. Thursday; M. Mahuran, president; Fencing Club, 8 p.m. Thursday; V. Martin, president; Outing Club, 7:30 p.m. Thursday; V. Sturbauer, president. Rifle Club, 7:30, 8:30 p.m. every evening through Friday. Swimming Club, 7:15 p.m. Thursday; Gloria Woodward, president.

Freshman Coed Debate Aspirants Meet Monday

First semester freshman women interested in debating are to meet in 103 Home Economics building at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Second semester freshmen, sophomore, and upperclass women can report to the same room at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, announced Dr. Clayton H. Schug, women's debate coach.

During the absence of Grace L. Goodlin, manager of the squad Elizabeth Ann McGinnis has been handling the affairs of the group. Gertrude G. Rosen has temporarily taken Miss Goodlin's place as president of Forensic Council, while the latter completes her six weeks of practice teaching.

Frosh Coeds' Dating Ban Ends Monday Morning; Ernst Enforces Customs

Freshman women's no-dating period ends Monday morning, Judicial announced tonight. Frosh coeds will be allowed to date on campus during the week and Sunday until 5:30 and until 10 o'clock Friday and 1 o'clock Saturday nights. However, Ruth Ernst, Judicial chairman, warns all frosh women to wear their customs.

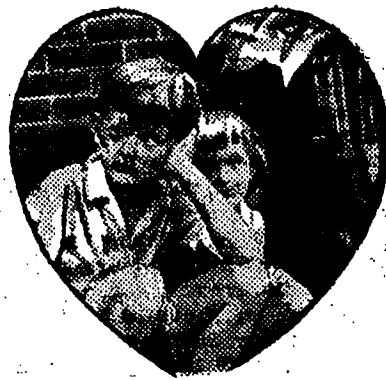

Transportation companies urge all coeds not to take unnecessary weekend trips. Those who go on trips will have to be back by the specified closing hours, and violators of this rule will be punished more severely than in the past, warns Judicial.

Panhel Council Entertains Freshman Women at Tea

Panhellenic Council will entertain freshman women at a tea in the east lounges of Atherton Hall from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, November 27, according to Martha James, president of the council.

Four representatives from each sorority will be present to discuss sorority activities and get acquainted with the freshman women. All first semester girls are urged to attend.
