"Bible March," "Stars and Stripes Forever," and popular pieces such as "Macnamara's Band," "Marching Along Together," and "The Rangers' Song."
This is the first time in the history of the College that women students have had the opportunity to go on an interscholastic Blue Band trip, according to Prof. Fishburn.

Portfolio Boasts Sellout

The November issue of Portfolio, campus literary magazine, was completely sold out, according to Rosalind Schnitzer, editor-in-chief. She announced that the editorial staff would be completed before the next issue, first week in January, but candidates for the staff may still hand in their material at Student Union or contact her at 217 Atherton Hall.

Surgical Dressings Attendance Rises

An increase of 27 was noted this week when 81 girls attended Surgical Dressings class as compared with 54 girls November 10. Mrs. Donald W. Davis, chairman, announced. A total of 1260 dressings were made Wednesday, she added, in contrast with 787 last week.

Mrs. Davis declared that all girls who complete 15 hours of service will receive Red Cross white organdy caps to wear with white uniforms.

Among the total number attending, 59 were sorority members. They are as follows:

Alpha Omicron Pi	16

last semester," the Cabinet chairman announced that the All-College Elections Committee will continue for another session with its personnel unchanged. In the group are Miss Good, chairman, Alice Fox, George Graham, Charles Hall, Robert Kaiser, Edmund Koval, Elizabeth McKinley, Joan Miller, Reeder, Eleanor Stoner, Michael Wardrop, and Miriam Zartman.

Bucher urged that students desiring Cabinet to undertake sponsorship of certain events or types of activities attend sessions of the governing body to make suggestions, so that the group will be better able to formulate a program which meets the requirements of the campus population.

Members are Ruth Hanstein, Kathryn Garner, Betty Jane Drouse, Margaret Coe, Alice Herr, Eleanor Stoner, Garnett Levan, Anna Nicholson, Barara Anderson, Mary Lane, Miss Avery, Miss Olsen, and D. Drummond.

Alternates are Louise Lamade, Mary Forrest, Claire Hamilton, Peggy Failing, Gladys Starr, Lois Mae Miller, Helen DeMartini, Edna Keen, Dorothy Dickison, and Beverly Log...

'Foot-Ball' Nets $350

"Foot-Ball" dance, sponsored by the Independent Student Committee, was a financial and social success, according to James Redmond, ISC treasurer. The dance was attended by 291 servicemen and their dates and 230 other couples. Receipts from the dance are estimated at $350, Redmond added. The "Foot-Ball" was an experiment, and since it was such a success, ISC plans to hold another dance later in the semester.

Debaters Make Varsity

Six men qualified for spots on the varsity debate team this week in a series of tryouts, according to Lou Ullman, manager of the men's group.

Included on the first squad are Paul Budzak, Ottis L. Castleberry, Theodore D. Horner, Allen Kahn, Sanford Rofsky, and Alex Reisdorf.

State Expects New Women Trainees

chosen will be permitted to remain on the campus, unless they are local residents of State College. Hamilton Standard, on the other hand, permits State College selectees to remain on the campus.

The Hamilton Standard recruitment differs only in that its appointees are designated as scholarship winners. Both companies pay room, board, tuition, and a cash stipend to their students. The Hamilton program is the only one of its kind in the country. Curtiss-Wright operates at several other institutions.

For detailed information on the programs, interested young women are referred to the personnel representatives of the two companies. Miss Elinor Tilford represents the Curtiss-Wright program. The Hamilton representative is Miss Ruth Chamberlain.

Air Corps Exam Date Set

An Army Air Corps mental examination will be given in 401 Old Main at 9 a.m. today. There is a drive on for 17-year-olds and Robert E. Galbraith, Faculty Adviser on War Service, is again in charge.

ISC Plans Dances

Independent Student Committee, which was organized by Ray Zaroda last semester, is planning to hold dances after the basketball games this coming season. Dances will also be held in the Armory in cooperation with IWA. The "Nittany Nocturne" dance of last semester and the recent "Foot-Ball" were successful through the work of ISC.
