

Students Donate Only $200 To Fund

(Continued from page one) tributing to all these groups, and to arrange a coordinated program for collection and distribution of money and supplies among member agencies.

Benefits of the campaign are felt on three fronts, at home, at scenes of military engagements, and among allied and subjugated nations. Chief concerns are the provision of cultural and recreational facilities for men and women in the armed services, and the sending of food, clothing, medical supplies, and rehabilitation equipment to those areas which have felt the impact of war. Work on the home front includes the sponsoring of health and recreational measures for children, the aged, disabled, and indigent.

Member agencies of the National War Fund are United Service Organizations, United Seamen's Service, War Prisoners' Aid, Russian War Relief, United China Relief Society, Greek War Relief Association, Polish War Relief, Friends of Luxembourg, French Relief Fund, United Yugoslav Relief Fund, Belgian War Relief Society, United Czechoslovak Relief, Queen Wilhelmina Fund, Norwegian Relief, Refugee Relief Trustees, and the United State Committee for the Care of European Children.

Placement Service Holds Conferences with Alumni in Vital Industries

George Leetch, head of the College Placement Service, has just returned from an extended trip to industrial centers throughout Pennsylvania, where he met with groups of Penn State alumni who are connected with important Pennsylvania industries. E. K. Hibshman, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, who accompanied Mr. Leetch on his trip, announced yesterday.

The purpose of Leetch's trip was to make contacts with former Penn Staters now in industry, in order to expedite the development of the Penn State Placement Service. The organization is expected to aid greatly in the placement of returning soldiers as well as alumni, students, and graduating seniors in industry at the close of the war. Lewistown, Harrisburg, York, Lancaster, Reading, Ridgeway, Warren, and Erie were among the cities where Leetch held meetings with leaders of industry to further the working of his placement service.

Experts say a circle cannot be squared. Some street-car wheels come pretty close.

Penn State Grads Speak At Chicago Ag Meet

Four graduates of the School of Agriculture at the College will appear on the program of the 36th annual meeting of the American Society of Animal Production in Chicago November 30 and December 1.

John P. Willman, an animal husbandry graduate, now at Cornell University, will report on phenothiazine for the control of stomach and nodular worms in sheep.

M. H. Berry, a dairy husbandry graduate, now on the staff of the University of Maryland, will speak on the effect of colostrum on the vitamin A and carotene content of blood plasma of newborn calves.

A. O. Shaw, who won an advanced degree in dairy husbandry here, will report on the riboflavin content of beef and pork muscles as found in research done at the North Carolina agricultural experiment station, where he is now located.

Another dairy husbandry graduate of the College, E. J. Perry of Rutgers University, will make two reports on dairy cattle breeding.

A.A.U.P. Chapter To Elect Officers

The local chapter of the American Association of University Professors will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 110, Home Economics building, to elect a new president, vice-president, and secretary and to discuss several matters of importance to members.

The program of business for the meeting includes the reports of the nominating committee and of the vice-president, J. Burn Helme, and treasurer, G. J. Free. Prof. B. V. Moore of the College's department of education and psychology will report for the executive committee on the three-semester system. A discussion for and against the present system will take place.

R. D. Anthony, professor of pomology, will lead the discussion on the question of faculty health. Also on the program are brief remarks by the chairman of the committees on faculty welfare, instructional problems, emeritus professor, research, and A.A.U.P. Bulletin. At the same time a delegate to the national meeting to be held some time in December is to be elected. It is uncertain at present that there will be a national meeting, said Dr. P. F. English, secretary of the local chapter, because of the difficulty of transportation.

The part of the meeting which is expected to draw a large attendance is the discussion of reassessment and the 1945 borough and county tax bill.

Spanish Students Have Chance To Win $100

Of special interest to students of Spanish who have been fascinated by the story of the Latin-American Republics' struggle for freedom is an essay contest announced by the Campana de la Libertad of Montevideo.

This essay, which must be written in Spanish, is on the subject, "Jose Gervasio Artigas, the Father of Uruguayan Independence," and is entitled "Actualidad de las Ideas de Artigas."

The Campana de la Libertad of Montevideo is an organization of Uruguayan citizens who are devoted to the ideas of solidarity with the United States in the present war, fraternity among the Americas, and the defense of democratic ideals. After the payment of general expenses, membership dues are donated to the United States and Uruguayan Red Cross.

The contest is for United States college students who are studying Spanish and Latin-American history and Spanish as a foreign language. Essays, which are not to exceed 1,000 words, must be submitted to the Pan-American League, 845 Ingraham Building, Miami 32, Fla., before April 30, 1944.

The jury in Uruguay will be composed of a delegate from the university, a cultural relations officer of the United States Embassy in Montevideo, and a representative of the Campana de la Libertad. The successful contestant will receive an award of $100 and a diploma.

Further details and a list of suggested books on the subject may be secured from the Pan-American League.
