

Freshmen Elect Woehling First Semester President

(Continued from page one) sponsored by All-College Cabinet." Smith Writes Explanation Matternas, Key party freshman campaign manager, was relieved of making a statement when explained the case in an open letter appearing in this issue on page four. Commenting on the apparent mix-up, Harold Bucher, chairman of All-College Cabinet said, "As soon as Cabinet is formed, any party may not claim credit for plans or actions of the entire group. This dance can be backed to the limit by both parties—we hope it will be—but entire responsibility for the instigation and carrying through of the idea lies with the student governing body and not with either political clique." Both parties received penalties at a meeting Wednesday after the polls had been closed. The Key Party was docked four votes for campaigning in the Sandwich Shop, while the Lions were penalized for submitting the list with candidates' names after the specified time.

Next Collegian Issue

The next issue of the Collegian will be published Friday, January 7. Persons now trying out for the staff will meet in the Carnegie Hall news room at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, January 4, while reporters will meet at 8:15 the same evening.

Atherton Hall ceds will hold a Christmas party for the members of the A.S.T.P. in the lounges from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

PSCA, Cwens, WSGA, Award Scholarships To Outstanding Coeds

Scholarships of fifty dollars have been awarded to Alice Fox, Editor of Collegian, by the Penn State Alumnae Club of Philadelphia; to Marie Scialabba, sophomore, by Cwens; and to Lois McCool, sophomore, by WSGA, Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, announced today.

As the Philadelphia Alumnae Club annually grants a scholarship to a woman student of that area for outstanding achievements and usefulness to the College, Miss Fox was selected for the current year.

The Cwens' scholarship was given to Miss Scialabba, who has shown herself active and useful to her class, that society reported.

Because she ranked first in scholarship among the girls in the freshman classes entering in June, 1942, and in October, 1942, Miss McCool was chosen by WSGA to receive their yearly award, it was stated.

Zeta Tau Alpha recently repledged Kay Stanhope and Lynne Rummel.

SU Poll Will Decide Froth's Revival

No longer will the delightfully spiced back issues of Froth be on sale. No longer will Froth enliven, pep-up, and cheer-up Penn Staters. No longer will Froth be among the top-notch college humor magazines.

Whether Froth is to rise from this grave will be decided by a poll to sound out public opinion. Froth will resume publication only if enough servicemen and students sign petitions at Student Union.

"Turn up shirt collars before washing them . . ."

This fella has the right idea—it's just his technique that's a little sour. Shirt collars will last much longer if they are turned up before being sent to the laundry, for then the crease around the top doesn't get such heavy rubbing and consequently lasts longer before fraying.

Another fine point to remember—when you need new shirts, whether military or civilian, buy Arrow. They live up to their fine reputation for lasting wear and perfect fit. Don't forget the Sanforized label, which guarantees fabric shrinkage less than 1%.
