

Frosh Women To Entertain Big Sisters At Tea Sunday

First semester freshman women will entertain their big sisters at a tea in Woman's Building and McAllister Hall from 3 until 5 p.m. Sunday, Mary M. Dunlap, chairman for the tea, announced. All freshmen and their big sisters are urged to attend.

Each freshman dormitory is assigned either to Woman's Building or to McAllister Hall. Coeds from the following dormitories will take their big sisters to the tea at McAllister Hall: Beman's, Watts Hall, Cody Manor, Davey House, Fairmount Hall, Pines, Rickard's, Stern's, Mrs. Van Tries', cooperatives, local girls and commuters, McAllister Hall.

Coeds from the following dormitories will take their big sisters to the tea at Woman's Building: Anchorage, Frazier Hall, Locust Lane, McCormick's, Mattil's, Musser's, Miss Van Tries', Wiley's, Irvin Hall, Jordan Hall, and Woman's Building.

Committee for the big and little sister tea includes Mary M. Dunlap, chairman; Brigitte Uhlig, assistant chairman; Madeline Applequist, Margaret Buck, Lavonna Dewald, Carol Dieckman, Joyce Eshleman, Frances Grier, Barbara Hampe, Jeanne Knox, Carolyn Lerch, Nancy Sherriff, Barbara Struck, Dorothy Taylor, and Janet Taylor.

Women In Sports

WRA's swimming club elected officers at its weekly meeting, and the following were chosen: president, Marilyn Globisch; vice-president, Martha Goszonyi; secretary-treasurer, Louise Lamade; and publicity chairman, Eleanor Strode.

Instruction in aquacade swimming is given every Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. by Ruth Black, and telegraphic meets will be held on March 10 and March 13. Participation in the meets is open to all girls who are full-time undergraduate students, who have a medical permit, and meet the scholastic requirements.

The fencing club elected the following officers at its business meeting on January 13: president, Nancy Schrum; vice-president, Jeanne Thompson; and secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Shuster.

The club, still open to beginners, is offering a series of fencing lessons by Lieutenant Foltz, U. S. Army, at 7:15 p.m. every Thursday.

Lecturers Offer Conference Hours

Following up its series of vocational guidance lectures, the department of home economics will provide for conference hours in 110 Home Economics, 1:20 p.m. Tuesday, during which students may question lecturers.

Available for consultation will be Prof. Franklin Banner, journalism department head; Miss Agnes Brumbaugh, state leader in Home Economics Extension Service; Miss Vivian Crow, assistant professor of home economics education; Dr. Laura Drummond, director of home economics; Miss Sybil Emerson, instructor in home economics and related arts; Mrs. Marion S. McDowell, associate professor of home economics and nursery school director; and Mrs. Mary Trout, chairman of institutional administration.

The conference hours will be open to all students, regardless of year and curriculum.

Sigma Delta Tau Pledges

Pledges of Sigma Delta Tau received their pins at the sorority's pledge meeting Sunday night. Informal get-togethers, movie dates, and small hiking parties are being conducted each Saturday afternoon for the pledges. The first active pledge meeting will be held Monday night.

Woman Debaters Sent To Tourney

Four members of the women's debate squad will be sent to the annual Shippensburg State Teachers' tournament Saturday, to participate in the cross-examination debate, announced Dr. Clayton Schug, debate coach. They are: Joan Huber and Ruth Clyde, affirmative; Betty Maginnis and Gertrude Rosen, negative. Both teams will have three debates.

Johns Hopkins, Ursinus, Kutztown State Teachers, Shippensburg, Susquehanna, and probably Dickinson and American University will be represented at the tournament.

Continuing their debate series with State College high school debaters, the women's squad participated in several more rounds last Wednesday and Thursday.

Carolyn Lurch, Jean Barrinot, and Alice Hott, affirmative speakers, and Jane Park, Elaine Smith, and Dorothy Grutski, negative speakers, took part in the Wednesday debates. Betty Coplan and Dr. Schug chaired the debates.

Debaters for the Thursday rounds were: Edna Dent, Jullia Pastewka, and Lois Slowie in the affirmatives' first debate; June Heckman, Bernice Greenes, and Harriet Kerschmer, negatives in the first, and Irene Smulzenski and Carmita Cameron affirmatives in the second. Chairmen for these Thursday debates were Rosiland Givotovsky and Dr. Schug.

Brill Releases Facts About Service Women

Of interest to coeds contemplating enlistment in various branches of the service are the following announcements released by Miss Julia G. Brill, associate professor of English:

Marine recruiting officer Lieutenant Ferrell will interview women students concerning the United States Marine Corps. Appointments for interviews should be made in 304 Old Main.

Latest information on the United States Cadet Nurses Corps and information on all the other branches of the women's services can be obtained from Miss Brill in 240 Sparks.

WAC and WAVE recruiting officers are expected on campus within the next two weeks.

Coeds who have signed up for Codette classes and have not filled out drop forms must see Miss Brill or their scheduling officer immediately, or they will receive a -2, Miss Brill added.
