

Debaters Enter Second Tourney

Penn State women debaters will enter their second tournament series at Mt. Mercy College tomorrow after triple-tying for first place in the Shippensburg tournament two weeks ago.

Debates for the tournament, sponsored by the Pittsburg Forum, composed of Pittsburgh University and Mt. Mercy College, will be presented in the orthodox style, with two constructive and two rebuttal speakers in each set, stated Prof. Clayton Schug, women's debate coach.

Separate sets for "experienced" and "less-experienced" debaters have been arranged by the forum, with each set doing four debates.

Experienced speakers being sent are Joan Huber, affirmative; Betty Ann Macinnis and Gertrude Rosen, negative. Less-experienced debaters speaking tomorrow are Alice Hott and Carmita Cameron, affirmative; Nancy Norton and Rosemary Halpin, negative.

Debate teams from Pittsburgh University, Mt. Mercy College, Seton Hill, and Kent have also entered the competition.

The intercollegiate debate question, "Resolved: United States should cooperate in establishing and maintaining an international police force upon the defeat of the Axis powers," will be discussed again, according to Schug.

SPA Buys $1000 Bond

Sigma Phi Alpha recently purchased a $1000 war savings bond, Harry Peby, president, has announced.

Buying of the war bond had been considered since last semester, but full consent of members and trustees had not been given until the beginning of the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Money was taken from the Sigma Phi Alpha trust fund. The bond is of the "F" series.

Mack Sends Print To London Exhibition

Dr. Warren E. Mack, head of the department of horticulture at the College, has been invited by the Central Institute of Art and Design in London to enter a woodprint in an exhibition of contemporary American arts.

The showing, which will be assembled and sponsored by Artists for Victory, Inc., will include 100 paintings, 50 prints, and 50 works of sculpture. Dr. Mack will enter "Willows on the Water," wood carving of a scene near Boalsburg.

Following a preview in New York City from March 7 to 18; the exhibition will be taken to London and other principal cities in the British Isles but will be returned to this country for additional showings. As a reciprocal gesture, England will send a similar exhibition to this country.

Five Fight for Title Of Air Corps Sweetheart

(Continued from page one) chestras. Harmon himself played sax with Johnny "Scat" Davis, Benny Pollack, Buddy Fisher and the late Hal Kemp and had his own band which played throughout the southwest. Another sax player, A/S Danny Saraceni, has seen service with Hal McIntyre, Tommy Reynolds, Alex Bartha and Joey Kerns.

A/S Keith Williams, first chair trumpet player, played in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio orchestras for Jeannette McDonald-Nelson Eddy pictures and recorded with the All-American Youth Dance Band. A/S J. S. Rice, had his own dance band while a student at Iowa State University and played engagements throughout the middle west before joining the Army.

Three vocal solos, sung by Ruth Hill, Marilouise Hefty, and Louise Neff, accompanied by Ann Caruthers, will highlight the Louise Homer Club meeting in the Fireside Room, Westminster Hall, 8 p.m. February 15.

V-12 Unit to Continue Specialized Training

(Continued from Page One) ing. The urgent need for technically trained young officers continues, and the colleges and universities participating in the V-12 program are doing a splendid job of producing such officers. While changing wartime conditions may, from time to time, necessitate revision in the quotas for the program in order to conform with the needs of the service, the Navy does not contemplate discontinuance of the program.

Seismograph Records Two Earthquakes

When the seismograph at the College weather station showed unusual activity, Dr. Hans Neuberger told a reporter:

"Probably an earthquake." The reporter quipped: "Or an invasion of earthquake proportions."

They were both right. Newspapers next day reported the earthquake which destroyed the Turkish town of Gerede, and the invasion of the Marshall islands by American Marines and Army troops.

Quota Defers 139

(Continued from page one) he is an undergraduate student majoring in one of the above fields and that if he continues his progress he will graduate 24 months from the date of certification. The National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel of the War Manpower Commission must certify that the certification of the college is correct. The deferment, if granted, will be within the national quota for such students.

Pre-medical students will be deferred on the same terms except that it must be certified they have been accepted at a medical school.
