

Cabinet Approves Revised College Elections Code

Code Stipulates Voters Must Have Identification

Approval of the revised All-College Elections Code for the Spring Semester was given by Cabinet at its meeting Wednesday night after the new code was submitted by Margaret L. Good, Elections Committee chairman.

The new provisions include:

Article I—Time of Voting
Voting will be conducted from 9 A.M. March 14 until 5 P.M. March 15. The polls will be open continuously from 9 A.M. until 5 P.M. on these two dates.

Article II—Place of Voting
Elections will be held in the first floor lounge of Old Main.

Article III—Eligibility for Office
Every candidate shall be required to have a "1" average for his entire college career. The registrar's list shall be official in determining the candidate's average.

Any student is eligible to run for president or treasurer of the semester in which his college credits place him. The registrar's office shall be official in determining a student's semester rank (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8).

Article IV—Clique Organization
A clique must file a complete membership list with the Elections Committee. This list must designate the official clique chairman and other clique officers together with the names and semester of every clique member. This list must be turned into Student Union by 4 P.M. Friday, March 10. Additional names of clique members may be filed only with the permission of the Elections Committee Chairman.

Article V—Method of Nomination
Any regular student meeting the above requirements of scholarship and semester rank will be eligible for nomination of president or treasurer of his respective semester.

To be nominated a candidate must receive a plurality vote, i.e. more votes for that particular office than any other candidate. The election will be carried on within the cliques. Clique members will participate in this preliminary election. The clique chairman will submit the names of all clique members tabulated.

Millikin Sets Customs; Warns Erring Frosh Against Dating, Smoking

"Starting Saturday all freshman men will be held liable if they are caught without their customs," Howard Millikin, Tribunal chairman, announced.

Freshmen must wear customs every day except Sunday unless it is otherwise announced by Tribunal, Millikin emphasized.

Handbook laws will be enforced "musts" for all frosh trouble-makers. Dinks, black bow ties, white socks, and name cards complete the well dressed frosh's wearing apparel, while matches and frosh bibbles form the accessory equipment.

Millikin reminds the newcomers that they must learn College songs in the handbook as well as the names and locations of all buildings on campus. A brief history of the Lion Shrine, most recent addition to the by-laws of entering classes, is just another of the important items a frosh is expected to reel off if approached by a conscientious upperclassman.

Millikin warned that men are not permitted to date or to smoke while on campus. Violators' names should be handed in to Student Union by upperclassmen, including second semester freshmen.

PSCA will hold a freshman mass meeting in 304 Old Main, 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Virginia Loses Chance To Take Eastern Title

By REM ROBINSON
Sports Writer

Eastern intercollegiate boxing bows out of the garbled 1944 sporting scene in Rec Hall tomorrow afternoon, when an array of nearly 30 boxers from five institutions square off in the 21st annual EIBA fistic jamboree. Only remnants of the nation's oldest and most colorful boxing tourney will be seen, for wartime draft and armed forces transfers have scalped every entry but West Point, and has even forced the once-strong, 1943 Syracuse champs to send but three men into the tourney.

With only 24 hours remaining before weighing-in time, Virginia's hopes of winning the team title were shattered, for Navy transfers cleaned all but two men from their once-defeated team, and a mad scramble is being made for the other titles by full-team entrants from Army, Coast Guard, and Penn State, in addition to the pair of boxers from Virginia, and the trio from Syracuse.

LION HOPEFUL LOST

Host of the meet, Leo Houck, has received perhaps the strongest blow, for Navy transfers last week swept undefeated Billy Cochran to a new station, after the V-12 mitt ace had whipped and drew with the best the East had to offer at 135 pounds. With Cochran gone, however, Virginia was confident that their co-captain, Jimmy Miragliotta had clinched the crown, for it was the Penn State hopeful in his weight class that had fought him on even terms in the Virginia struggle earlier in the season.

Pegged by many as Penn State's best bet for a 1944 title is a tough Irish Marine named Pvt. Mike Sweeney, the 175-pounder, who is undefeated in the Eastern.

Learner, Becker To Head Collegian

Collegian staff appointments announced at the Collegian banquet the end of last semester, named Lee H. Learner as editor-in-chief and Rosalind Becker as business manager, for this semester. Serene F. Rosenberg and Herbert Hassen were appointed to the positions of managing editor and advertising manager, respectively.

Emil Kubek was elected to the position of editorial assistant, joining Helen V. Hatton, Arthur P. Miller and Rembrandt C. Robinson, who have been serving in that capacity since last semester.

Junior advertising board now consists of Betty Federman, Bernice Fineburg, Elaine Miller, and Kitty Vogel; and editorial reporters are Nancy Carastro, Bernie Cutler, Betsy Merkle and Peggy Weaver.

LaVie Candidates

New candidates for the LaVie staff will meet in 305 Old Main at 7:30 Wednesday, according to Fred Deitz, editor.

Players Tee Off With 'Janie' And Her 30 Lonely Soldiers

For their first presentation this semester, on April 14 and 15, Players will produce "Janie," a comedy of adolescence by Josephine Bertham and Herchel Williams that recently closed on Broadway after a successful two-year run, Prof. A. C. Cloetingh, director of the show, announced today.

The play centers about a high school girl who thinks it is her patriotic duty to entertain soldiers from a nearby Army camp. Three soldiers are invited, thirty or forty show up. The casting for these parts has not been completed. All members of the armed forces at Penn State are invited to try out.

The title role of Janie will be played by Palma Wakefield. Janet Dayton, president of Players, will portray her mother, Mrs. Coleburn. Grace Clayton, an assistant on the dramatic faculty, will play the part of Thelma Laurence, a southern belle.

New Amendments Pass Cabinet

Several amendments to the All-College Constitution were voted on and approved by Cabinet at its last meeting of last semester. The amendments, which were proposed by a Constitution committee appointed by Cabinet, under the chairmanship of Peggy Lou Johnson, are as follows:

Article I Section 2: The All-College Cabinet shall consist of the eight semester presidents, the WSGA president, the Interclass Finance Chairman and the Chairman of Student Tribunal.

Article I Section 2: The All-College Cabinet shall consist of the eight semester presidents, the WSGA president, the Interclass Finance Chairman and the Chairman of Student Tribunal.

Section 3: The Deans of Men and Women, the Alumni Association secretary, a representative of each specialized service group on the campus but not regularly enrolled undergraduates of the College, and the Presidents of Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council and Independent Student Council, shall be members ex-officio of the Cabinet.

Section 5: The terms of office of each member of the Cabinet shall commence with the first.

Red Cross Solicitors Plan Personal Contacts

Red Cross solicitors will contact each Penn State student personally sometime during this month, according to Miss Mary V. Brown, head of the College campaign.

Although no definite goal has been set, it is hoped that the $2850 contributed last year will be surpassed, Miss Brown stated. All contributions will be gladly accepted no matter what the size, she pointed out.

Cwens and Mortar Board coeds will help by keeping a booth open in Old Main lobby. Boxes have also been placed in the dormitories.

Sigma Xi Taps 16 Members

In recognition of their work in scientific research, 15 men and one woman have been elected to Sigma Xi, national scientific research society, J. S. Doolittle, secretary of the College chapter, announced today.

Those elected to full membership include Dr. Arthur A. Burr, former graduate assistant in physics and now employed by the Armstrong Cork Co.; Dr. John R. Clifton, former assistant in agricultural and biological chemistry, now with Armor Research Foundation; Dr. Darrell D. Deane, former graduate student in bacteriology, now in military service; Walter J. Harland, former graduate assistant in chemistry, now with Rohm and Haus Co.; and Dr. Daniel F. Herman, former graduate assistant in chemistry, now with Panel Chemical Corp.

Dr. Donald V. Josephson, instructor in dairy manufacture; Earl R. Klinge, assistant professor of mechanical engineering; Everett R. McLaughlin, instructor in engineering research; Dr. Wilbur H. Pearson, instructor in chemistry; Dr. Howard L. Ritter, former graduate assistant in chemistry, now with Socony-Vacuum Co.; Dr. Malcolm S. Sagenkahn, former research assistant in chemistry, now with Shell Development Co.; Lloyd G. Unger, graduate assistant in chemistry; and Alexander G. Yorgiadis, former research assistant at the engineering experimental station, now with Scientific Equipment Corp.

Those promoted from associate to full membership include Dr. Myers F. Gribbens, former graduate assistant in agricultural biological chemistry, now with DuPont Co.; Dr. Roslyn L. Schuman, former graduate assistant in bacteriology, now with Kellogg Co.; and Dr. Mitchell G. Vavich, research assistant in agricultural biological chemistry.

DuPont Awards Chem Fellowships

Announcement that the College is one of 22 receiving postgraduate fellowships for research in the field of chemistry was made recently by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, donor of the awards.

Appointments to these fellowships, which amount to $750 each, are for the academic year 1944-45, and will be made by the heads of the chemistry departments of the colleges to which grants have been given. Women are admitted to candidacy on the same basis as men.

DuPont fellowships, which have been maintained since 1918, differ from many industrial fellowships in that the selection of the beneficiary and the subject of research is left to the discretion of the university. Holders of these fellowships are not restricted in any way in their selection of a permanent position when the fellowship expires.

Because of the shortage of instructors in many colleges, holders of du Pont fellowships are permitted this year to devote a portion of their time to teaching to help relieve this situation.

Lion, Key Parties Name Semester Candidates

Lion and Key politicians round out another intensive campaign for the two campus parties when student voters cast ballots in the Sandwich Shop, Old Main, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Urging all students to vote, Margaret L. Good, All College Elections Committee chairman, stated that students must present some means of identification at the polls before being permitted to cast ballots. Any student who registered late or who for other reasons has not filled out an official registration card, must withhold his vote until his name and semester rank have been checked in the registrar's office by a member of the Election's Committee. The student if found eligible to vote will then fill out his registration card at the polls, and have it signed by a member of the elections committee.

As in the past a student may vote a split ticket. The elections committee will meet with candidates in 309 Old Main, 8 p.m. Monday to answer any questions, clarify the election's code, or hear any complaints of code violations. The committee will meet again with candidates after the closing of the polls and before the counting of votes in 305 Old Main, Wednesday, when further complaints will be heard.

Cliques are reminded of the

Air Corps Exam Open To Youths

Captain Herbert R. Smith, Air Corps, of the Aviation Cadet Examining Board, Harrisburg, is in State College today for the purpose of conducting mental examinations for boys 17 years of age or older who are desirous of becoming aviation cadets in the Army Air Corps when they enter the military service.

The examination will be held in 401 Old Main, 9 a.m. today. Robert E. Galbraith, FAWS, urges all interested to take the examination even though they are taking the V-12.

There are no particular educational requirements necessary, and any boy who is interested in becoming an aviation cadet and who has reached his seventeenth birthday is eligible to take the mental test at the above time.

Boys who have reached the age of 17, but have not yet attained their eighteenth birthday, may apply for enlistment in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. If qualified mentally and physically, they will be enlisted in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve, but will remain in school until the end of the school semester following their eighteenth birthday.

At that time they will be called into active service and sent to a classification center, where they will take further tests to determine the training for bombardiers, navigators, and pilots.

If they qualify, they will be sent to college for five months, during which time they will take courses especially designed to fit them for aviation cadet training, and to insure their successful completion of
