

WRA Holds Skating Party For Students, Servicemen

In line with its newly planned recreational activities program, WRA will hold its annual skating party for coeds, servicemen, and civilians at the Coliseum rink from 2 to 5 p.m. tomorrow, announced Elizabeth McKinley, WRA president and chairman in charge of the party.

Tickets will be sold by WRA executive council members Mary Ann Jennings, Alice Hooper, Barbara Smith, Mary Grace Longenecker, Julia Gilbert, and Miss McKinley. The charge will be 25 cents per ticket, plus tax. Tickets may also be obtained at the door. Music for the skating accompaniment will be provided by the Coliseum records. Cokes and candy may be bought at the rink.

Posters advertising the skating party were made by Betty Shenk, June Daniels, and Mary Kay Hess, it was announced.

WRA's weekly Playnite will be held in White Hall from 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow. Janet Fleming and Barbara Smith are to be in charge of activities for this week.

The executive council of WRA has chosen Jane Schlosser to fill the position of freshman representative, it was disclosed. Miss Schlosser was selected on the basis of activities, personality, and interest in sports.

Miss Schlosser's duties as freshman representative to WRA council include taking charge of equipment for intramural and interclass sports activities, attending board meetings, and officially representing the freshman class, according to the WRA handbook, just released.

Dr. McCorkel Speaks At Chapel Service

Dr. Roy McCorkel, American Friends Service Committee, Philadelphia, will speak at the Sunday morning chapel service. Dr. McCorkel's subject is "Learning To Do Justly." Bizet's "Agnus Dei" will be presented by Ruth Hill.

After getting his B.D. from Yale Divinity School, Dr. McCorkel traveled extensively throughout Europe and the Far East. At the present time he is national secretary of the "Interseminary Movement"; editor, "Interseminarian" and the "Voices from the Younger Churches."

Dr. McCorkel is also chairman of the peace section of the Swarthmore Service Committee and president of the Swarthmore Co-operative Association. Through his work in the Interseminary Movement, he comes in contact with college students.

Seven Colleges Meet at CA Conference, Discuss 'Religion Off the Shelf'

(Continued from page one)
Westminster Foundation at 8:45 o'clock tonight.

Students who will participate in the discussion are Betty Ann Condron, PSCA cabinet member; Raymond Day, Juniata College student who is president of the Pennsylvania State Christian Youth Council; Sarah Fae Metzger, Mansfield State Teachers College president of the YWCA; and Nancy Ireland, Bucknell University Christian Association cabinet member.

Various informal discussions will also be held on Saturday. They will be presided over by Miss Ione Sikes, of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education; Dr. George Menke, regional secretary of the SCM; the Rev. Edwerth E. Korte, student pastor of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church; and Mrs. Virginia D. Thompson, associate secretary of the PSCA.

The conference will end Sunday at noon. Dr. Menke has direction of proceedings in the morning when the conference will be evaluated by the delegates at 9:30 a.m. in 304 Old Main. A closing worship and chapel will bring the conference to a close.

General planning committee for the conference includes Claire Weaver, Lois McCool, Elizabeth Funkhouser, Mr. James T. Smith, and Mrs. Virginia D. Thompson.

Chairmen of different groups are as follows: Patricia Enright, registration; Dorothy Hoke, Friday worship; Mary Lou Hansen, Friday recreation; Alice Drumm, Saturday morning worship; Mary M. Dunlap, afternoon sing; Robert Worthington, Saturday dinner; Florence Porter, Saturday

Republicans Award Bond

Mrs. Clyde Corbin, chairman of the Young Republican National Federation, announced an essay contest, with an all-expense trip to the Republican national convention or a $100 War Bond as first prize, through the March issue of The Republican, the national party magazine.

The subject of the contest, which is open to all who will cast their first vote for President in 1944, is "A First Voter Looks at the Republican Party." Essays must be limited to 1,500 words and must reach the offices of the Young Republican National Federation, 1337 Connecticut avenue, Washington, D. C., on or before May 1.

The winner himself may choose whether he will take the $100 War Bond or an all-expense trip to Chicago with a ticket of admission to all sessions of the convention, starting June 26. The winning essay will be printed in the June issue of The Republican.

There will be a second prize of a $50 War Bond, and a third prize of a $25 War Bond.

Entries will be judged on the basis of (1) value of appraisal; (2) soundness and forcefulness of reasoning; (3) interest. Judges will be Mrs. Clyde Corbin, national chairman of the Young Republican National Federation, one governor, one senator, one representative, and two members of the Republican National Committee, and the editors of The Republican. The opinion of the judges will be final.

evening worship; Barbara Struck, Saturday recreation; Dorothy Funkhouser, closing worship; and Louise Ebert, rooming arrangements.

29 Win Choir Places

Following recent tryouts, 29 new members have been selected for the Chapel Choir, Mrs. Willa Taylor, director, announced.

New sopranos are Martha Dennis, Carolyn Detz, Jeanne Eisenberg, Frances Hartung, Joan Huber, Annabelle Leininger, Mary Lewis, Harriet Mayes, Dorothy Robinson, and Gloria Wharry. Altos are Elouise Black, Janet Fehnel, Rita Flagg, Helen Graham, Isabel Myers, E. Speare, Janet Taylor, and E. Vinson.

Tenors are Raymond Farwell, Frank Franco, Maurice Lehman, K. Sorvick, Guy Straub, and Roland Walter. Basses are Frank Fair, M. Rosenberger, John Rudy, Richard Schlegel, and Francis Warner.

Donald K. Sorber was advanced to the position of first assistant basketball manager, Charles Alcorn, present manager, has announced.

"SLOPPY SLEET"
is sure
Bad Company

Winter weather brings harsh treatment to sensitive lips. But with a tube of Roger & Gallet original Lip Pomade in your pocket, you can laugh at "Sloppy Sleet".

Just smooth on Lip Pomade's invisible, soothing film and defy the climate. There's no safer, surer protection against painful chapping and cracking.

Stop at any drug store and ask for the handy pocket tube.

ROGER & GALLET
500 FIFTH AVE., NEW YORK 18, N.Y.

Penn State Thespians

present

Time To Dance Weekend

★ SHOW ★

7:30—March 25

Featuring

JIMMY BURDEN

and

THESPIAN ORCHESTRA

★ DANCE ★

Music By

ART WENDELL

and his

HOTEL ALTAMONT ORCHESTRA

Schwab Auditorium

● ADELE YABLON

● BETTY WISER

● PETE JOHNSON

● THESPIAN CHORUS

ADMISSION: Servicemen . . . 50c

Civilians 75c

Tax Included

Servicemen . . $1.10

Civilians . . . $1.65

Tax Included

9 - 12

Rec Hall

