Sweetheart Dance Features WRA's Campus Pin-Up Man

In line with the manless times and in contrast to the Army camp pin-up campaign, the all-woman WRA council has voted as the feature of its annual Sweetheart Dance, a Pin-up Man, according to Elizabeth McKinley, WRA president.

The semi-formal ball will be held at White Hall from 9 to 12 p.m. April 22, with the Campus Owls providing the music.

Tickets will be sold for $1.10 by members of the Executive Board of WRA. With each purchase, the student is entitled to submit the picture of her date, a local pin-up man. The photos will be on display in the Athletic Store, and the King of the Dance will be chosen from these on the alleged basis of intelligence, personality, good looks, and other indefinable characteristics which may occur to the Executive Council members.

WRA has voted to contribute from its treasury to the Red Cross drive, the sum of $100, Miss Mc-Kinley announced.

Leaders in tomorrow night's Play Nite activities will be Madeline Mahuran, dance club president, Alice Hooper, Sophomore representative to WRA council, and Mrs. Hermance Reese, staff

Panhel Council Plans Formal as Big Weekend Highlite

Penn State women are once more casting glances in the direction of all available men, this time with the hidden purpose of getting dates for the annual Panhellenic formal dance, to be held at the Nittany Lion Inn from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight April 15.

Needing no pretenses to establish the idea that the Panhellenic Ball will be a big feature of a bigger weekend, the Panhellenic Council plans to spend its funds to hire a big name band of immeasurable fame and prestige on the campus—the Campus Owls, owned and operated by Bud Wills.

The dance committee, composed of Mary Matry, chairman, Betsy Merkle, Mary Lou Dunmire, and Janet Tower, has not yet decided upon the feature contribution of the dance.

WSGA Investigates Breakfast Line

WSGA Senate is investigating the cause of the long breakfast line in Atherton Hall dining commons, according to WSGA President Patricia Deiner. Since complaints have been received from many coeds who have been unable to reach their eight o'clock classes on time, it is suggested by Miss Diener and Dr. Pearl O. Weston, assistant to the dean of women, that coeds arrange it so that they do not all go to breakfast at the same time.

It is promised that something will be done to alleviate this condition. "The investigation is underway now," stated Dr. Weston.
