

Coeds To Select Pin-Up Man At WRA Sweetheart Dance

Posters decorated with spring flowers in mild pastels are the newest item in the heralding of WRA's Sweetheart Dance, to be held in White Hall from 9 p.m. to midnight tomorrow under the chairmanship of Julia Gilbert.

The question, "Who is to be the Penn State coeds' choice for Pin-Up Man?" will be settled once and for all at the intermission, when the lucky boy will receive his title and his award.

Tickets, at $1.20 per couple, are being sold by Nan Charles, Alice Hooper, Elizabeth McKinley, Betsy Merkle, Betty Pike, Jane Schlosser, and Barbara Smith, according to Miss Gilbert.

The Campus Owls will provide the music for the affair, which is to be semi-formal.

Committees functioning for the dance include invitations, Alice Hooper and Betty Pike; publicity, Julia Gilbert and Elizabeth McKinley; decorations, Julia Gilbert, Martha Horn, Clara Vreeland, and Louise Zimmerer.

Proceeds of the dance are to be put toward a newly originated Student Union building fund.

Mrs. Carroll Lectures

Mrs. Leon Carroll will give a lecture at 4:15 p.m. April 28 in 110 Home Economics under the sponsorship of Omicron Nu. Her topic will be "Are You Training for Front Line Duty in Home Economics?" All home economics students are urged to attend.

Dr. Halford E. Luccock Speaks at Chapel Sunday

Dr. Halford E. Luccock, Yale Divinity School, will speak in Chapel Sunday on a topic entitled "A Gospel for an Age of Power." The choir will present special music.

Dr. Luccock received degrees from Northwestern University, B.D.; Union Theological Seminary, N.A.; Columbia, D.D.; Syracuse University, Litt.D.; Allegheny College, B.D.; Wesleyan University, D.D.; University of Vermont, and was ordained to the ministry in 1910.

New Coed Group Enters Benedict House Monday

Eight women who will move into the Benedict home management house Monday were entertained this week by coeds who have been living in the house during the past eight weeks.

The new women are Gloria Bowersox, Mary Lou DeGardeyn, Betty Heacock, Beverly Logg, Letty Morgenthal, Shelley Smith, Beth Soy, and Phyllis Strittmatter.

Girls who are moving out of the house tomorrow will be honored at a farewell dinner. They are Louise Hartley, Ann Muller, Barbara Painter, Caroline Peyton, Patty Strittmatter, Lee Thompson, Sally Thompson, and Ruth Zubler.

Panhel Prepares For Bridge Party

Red Cross Drive Gets Boost Through Council

Having emerged from Saturday's Pan-Hellenic Formal activity with Red Cross donations totalling $107.17, the Council has completed arrangements for a large-scale Benefit Bridge, to be held in the Northwest and Southwest lounges of Atherton Hall from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight.

Plans have been carried out under the direction of Ione Trovaioli and Betsy Merkle, Council members in charge of the function.

Five local merchants have provided prizes for the Benefit: Blair Gift Shop, Charles', Danks and Company, McLanahan's, and Schlow's Quality Shop.

Pan-Hellenic Council is paying all expenses of the Benefit Bridge as its direct donation as an organization, to Red Cross drive, Miss Trovaioli stated. Although proceeds of the Formal were given to the Drive, the affair was financed by assessments made on each sorority.

Women In Sports

Chi Omega defeated Watts Hall by the score of 52-20 in the volleyball series, while Atherton East upheld the dormitory ranks by winning over Alpha Omicron Pi, 49-23.

Those playing for Watts were N. Black, R. Black, Carson, Craig, Lawther, McNeas, Newell, Steinmetz, Stevenson, and Voris. Chi Omega victors included Aiken, Hurlburt, Jordan, McGhee, Slowie, Susania, Walker, and Wilson.

Atherton East players were Boelson, Chestnut, Gundel, Henning, Keefer, Kjar, McGee, Milton, and Puhlik. Alpha Omicron Pi was represented by Anderson, Evans, Hofman, Hooper, James, Lamade, LeWorthy, Schlosser, and Struck.

Prof Talks on Vitamins

Dr. R. Adams Dutcher, professor of agricultural and biological chemistry, will speak on "Vitamins and Nutrition" at the Southeastern Section of the American Chemical Society meeting at Lancaster, 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Recent trends in vitamin research work conducted at the College in the department of agricultural and biological chemistry will be described by Dr. Dutcher.

GSO Seeks Girls For Short Course

Three Weeks Training Warrants Membership

A new training course for girls interested in becoming GSO hostesses will start Monday, May 10, according to an announcement made this week by Kit Frasso, president of the Girls' Service Organization.

Girls wishing to take the course should file an application at the Service Center in town. Each application will be considered by two senior hostesses and Bernie Mack, member of the executive committee of the GSO. Those accepted will be notified as soon as possible.

The training course is given over a period of three weeks. Each Monday night, for that length of time, a meeting is held at which senior hostesses and military authorities on campus speak to the trainees on the various duties of a GSO hostess.

At the end of the training period, each girl receives a membership card, which entitles her to serve as a hostess in any USO canteen in the country.

Hop on the New Bandwagon! Statesmen 14

★ They Have What You Want

SIGN FOR YOUR NEXT DANCE

Booking Agent
Edward Zemprelli

Phone
2300

Have a "Coke" = So glad you're back again

... or welcoming a home-coming sailor

Fighting men look forward to that home-world where friendliness and hospitality are summed up in the familiar phrase Have a "Coke". Be sure and get Coca-Cola for your icebox at home. From Atlanta to the Seven Seas, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes, — has become a global symbol of good will and of good living.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY of ALTOONA

It's Not Too Late to Ask Him to the WRA Spring Sweetheart Dance

● SPECIAL FEATURE ●

Girls, When You Buy Your Ticket, Don't Forget To Submit A Picture of Your Date. He May Be Chosen PIN-UP MAN

Saturday, April 22

Semi-Formal

$1.20 per Couple

9:00-12:00

White Hall

Campus Owls

