Follies

VOL. 40 No. 22

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 5, 1944—STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Red Cross Drive Ends With $1910 In Contributions

Atherton Hall Leads Dorms with $278.79

Total contributions netted by the Red Cross War Fund Drive have amounted to $1910.84, Mary V. Brown, chairman, announced last night.

Representing the combined contribution of civilian students and student groups this sum was collected since the beginning of the drive in March.

Leading the women's dormitories was Atherton Hall with a total of $278.79. The Tri Dorms followed second netting a sum of $192.96, as compared to the total campus dormitory donation o $759.40.

Numerical superiority of the women on campus, at present, was striking when the donations were totaled, showing a sum of $959.25 collected from individual women students, while the individual contributions of men students totaled $158.68.

Of the group donations, WSGA was outstanding, having contributed $200 towards the drive. A $100 donation was made by WRA, and the Home Economics Club, Pi Gamma Mu, and Phi Beta Kappa made substantial contribu-

The Red Cross Dances given during March and April also contributed in no small way to the drive, as the figures showed. The ISC Red Cross Dance netted $163, Pan-Hellenic, $107.17; and Alpha Lambda Delta $55.06, out of the total group donation of

BMOCs Sign Campus Owls

Campus Owls will provide the music at the BMOC formal dance at the Nittany Lion Inn May 20, Horace B. Smith, acting chairman of the affair, announced today.

Invitations were sent to campus leaders earlier this week. Those receiving bids are students who stand out in extra-curricular ac-

The formal will be on the same order as the dance held last semester, according to Smith. To obtain entrance passes, persons who have received bids must present them to Student Union before 5 p.m. May 10.

Special committees for the dance have not been named. The dance committee plans to complete all plans for the formal within the next few days.

The dance committee includes Joseph G. Cannon, Frederick Dietz, Shirley A. Fink, Stephen A. Herbert, John J. Matternas, Jean K. Miller, Dean W. Moyer, Charles Reeder, Raymond H. Robb, Horace B. Smith, Paulette Stevenson, and Gloria Wehyl.

Women Faculty Members Affend Conference

Miss Julia Brill, associate professor of English composition; Miss Mary Jane Wyland, professor of education; and Dr. Pear Weston, assistant to the Dean of Women are in Washington this in Mannheim has been hampered weekend for a meeting of the In- only slightly. This is because all stitute of Women's Professional is to study "War and Post-War Whitcomb. Employment and its Demands for The former German newsman to Whitcomb. Churches are still Educational Adjustments."

ที่สำนักสินเหมือนให้เกิดให้ เหมือน และเกิด และเกิดให้ และเกิดให้ เกิดให้ เกิดให้ เกิดให้ เกิดให้ เกิดให้ เกิดใ

Portfolio Extends Short Story Contest Deadline To May 20

Deadline for submitting entries in the short story contest sponsored by Portfolio and Theta Sigma Phi, women's national Jucker Names Heads, journalism honorary, has been extended to May 20. All entries must be brought to Student Union on or before that date.

All students, except Portfolio staff members and members of Theta Sigma Phi are eligible to compete for the cash prizes of $10 and $5 by writing a short story of no more than 2500 words. The winning stories will be printed in the June issue of Portfolio.

The committee of judges will consist of a member of Theta Sigma Phi, a Portfolio staff member, and the magazin's literary adviser, Prof. Lynn Christy, of the English composition department.

Effective Guidance Necessary in Veteran Adjustment, Says Trabue

Effective guidance was represented today by Dr. Marion R. Trabue, dean of the School of Education at the College, as the first step in a successful program of veteran readjustment to civilian

Dr. Trabue advocates vocational and educational opportunities for returning servicemen at government expense. He pointed out that two thirds of the veterans who took training at government expense after the last war chose fields of study unsuited to their needs and abilities.

Dr. Trabue, who organized and directed the Occupational Research Program, now a division of the Bureau of Manpower Utilization, War Manpower Commission, said World War II's veterans will need "experienced and well-trained counselors to steer them into appropriate and uncrowded fields-advisors who will analyze their aptitudes objectively.'

This counselling service, Dr. Trabue added, should not b∈ rea period of years.

V-12 Follies Heads 'June Weekend' Players Select Cast For 'Claudia'

Begins Play Rehearsals

With casting completed and technical crew heads selected, rehearsals for "Claudia," next Players production, began this week.

The play will be presented June 9 and 10 under the direction of Lawrence E. Tucker, instructor in dramatics, who announced the following cast:

The title role will be taken by Jean Francis, a Player alumnus, who took important parts in many productions before her graduation. Since then she has also appeared in "Moor Born" and "The Little

David Naughton, Claudia's husband, will be played by Prof. Tucker, and Janet Dayton will take the part of Mrs. Brown, Claudia's mother. Miss Dayton has had major roles in many plays, beginning with "The Little Foxes" and most recently in "Janie."

Two newcomers to Players, Joan Huber and Michael Rosenberger, will take the parts of Bertha and Fritz. Mim Zartman, star of many Thespian shows, will also make her debut as a Player in the role of Julia Naughton.

The part of the opera star, Madame Daruschka, will be taken by Anna Radle, veteran comedienne. Miss Radle has appeared in many productions, including "Love Rides the Rails," "The Moon Is Down," and "George Washington Slept Here."

Joseph Mayers, who plays the role of Jerry, the British author, appeared recently as Mr. Colburn in "Janie.'

The following technical staff managers have been named by Prof. Tucker: stage and construction manager, George Rowe; paint, Mary G. Davis, with Norma Lee Hoover as assistant; costume, Florence Zankel; advertising, Patricia McClure; properties, Allene Babbitt and Ruth Anders; electristricted to the immediate post- cians, Earl Riker and George Ferwar period but should extend over guson; and design, Polly Huber and Nan Charles.

Jivers Take Limelight At Dutch Treat

Highlighting the IWA-IMA Dutch Treat dance in the Armory Saturday night will be a jitterbug contest, John Heffron and Helen Miller, co-chairmen, announced. The chairmen will act as judges and contestants are requested to sign up at the door.

"Under the artistic touch of the decoration committee the Armory will be transformed into a bit of old Holland," Jack Murray, president of IMA, said. Hosts and hostesses, dressed in the true Dutch spirit will be available as dancing partners for the male and female stags.

Refreshments will be served under the supervision of Peter Palmer, chairman of the committee. Stephen Marshall is publicity chairman, and Betty Lockmeyer. Rosemary Kaiser, and Betty Kein are in charge of tickets. June Rosen and Katherine Arbogast will serve at the coke bar.

Tickets are 35 cents and a door prize will be given to the lucky holders.

WSGA Issues New Dating Regulation

Dating privileges until 10 p.m. Wednesday nights in dormitory lounges were granted second sefester freshman women at the WSGA meeting Wednesday. The privilege is open only to those coeds taking their weekly 10 o'clock permission that night.

Revised regulations and customs for freshman women were also approved by the WSGA Senate and will take effect next se-

Dates of the combined WSGA and WRA elections were announced, beginning with a nomnations mass meeting May 23 Primaries are scheduled for May 26 and final elections for V-12 orchestra, will feature the mass meeting will be held will be

A revised method of keeping of evaluating activities by points, to be available to honoraries.

Attention, Seniors

should check their activities

lists at Student Union next week, requests Fred Dietz, editor. These lists may be checked

from 9 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, and

Seniors should make the list of their activities correct to date, check the spelling of their names, and be sure that their latest correct home address is

Any student whose picture

and list of activities has already been included in an issue of the yearbook, and who has received a card to have his photograph taken for LaVie, should notify

Student Union of this error at

Thursday.

on the card.

Eighth semester seniors

All-Out Allied Military Drive Necessary For Nazi Deteat tive in the art of camouflage that May 29. The room in which the selection of a June Queen at dance

By VICTOR DANILOV

Only an all-out Allied military push on the German mainland factories. The Germans have even will bring about the collapse of Hitler's Fortress Europe, believes Philip Whitcomb, Baltimore Sun foreign correspondent, who spoke at the College Monday.

"The only thing that will aid the United States in getting the desired peace is irresistible military force and nothing else," declared Whitcomb.

American and British aerial attacks on Nazi-controlled areas have not been as successful as originally anticipated, according to the Baltimore correspondent.

"Take the city of Mannheim for instance. Ninety per cent of the iceable condition within a few buildings in the city are unusable; hours," Whitcomb said. one-third of one per cent of the population has been killed; and nearly all of the city's 285,000 sections at the present time. They population has been evacuated be- are: cause of Allied air raids.

the big assembly buildings are underground where nothing on The purpose of the conference earth can hit them," explained said that the Nazis are so effec-

they have tricked Allied airmen into bombing empty, net-roofed announced later. gone to the trouble of having record of coed activities was smoke come out of the chimneys. adopted, suspending the practice

"The raids have cost the Germans a lot of trouble and ex- but keeping a file of all activities pense, but it has also intensified the people's war energy," pointed out Whitcomb, who just returned to the United States on the Gripsholm after spending 13 months of internment in Germany.

"I remember an important railroad junction in Germany which was bombed 88 times. After each raid the Germans would repair the junction and have it in serv-

Whitcomb stated that Germany is divided into three physical

1. Ninety percent of the coun-"However, total war production try which has not been bombed. 2. Cities which have been hit by Allied raids. 3. Places where people have evacuated bombed areas. The first section looks about the same as in peace time, according

(Continued on page seven)

Activities Debut Nears

Navy-Marine Campus

The Navy-Marine debut in campus activities is nearing, with the V-12 Follies, Third Navy-Marine Formal and full-dress parade on New Beaver Field, going into their final stages of preparation.

The sailors and marines, taking time off from strict academic discipline, will initiate the first "June Weekend" of its kind at Penn State and probably the first in this section of the country. Attendance will be limited by invitation.

Executive committee for the weekend, announced this week, includes A/S Rus Parker, general chairman; A/S Thomas Hughes, formal chairman, and A/S Mannie Herman and Pvt. John Foley at the helm of the follies.

A/S Arthur Miller will head publicity for the weekend with Pvt. Jerry Sapienza, sales and house manager, and A/S Fred Feld, business manager.

Dancing in the follies, under the professional guidance of A/S Robert Houser, will feature a mock ballet, Apache war dance, and fast tap number-all by the G. I. allmale dancing beauties. Houser and A/S Tony Hail will come in for a solo selection in the tap number.

Under the Hellzapoppin' type of continuity with Foley as ace master of ceremonies, music will be in charge of A/S Meyer Raskin, costumes under Pvt. James Myers, and the stage crew in charge of Pvt. Tony Strother on the lights, A/S Howard Graham, make-up, and A/S Carl Dimmerling, scenery

More than 100 men have reported for work on the production, offering their services in the skits, dances and music as well as back-

The Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Frank Gullo, who has volunteered his services for the weekend, will be patterned after the smooth and mellow Fred Waring type of musical harmony. "Marine Hymn," "Anchors Awelgh," "This Is My Country," "Set Down Servant," and "Navy Blue and Gold" are a few of the offerings.

The Third Navy-Marine Formal. with music supplied again by the

Tribunal Slates Frosh Bluebook

Weary from questioning, Tribunal cast a ray of hope to inquiring frosh by announcing that namecards and black bow ties may be packed away in mothballs Monday.

Bent on making this class the best-informed in College history, Tribunal hit upon the brainstorm of quizzing the cherubs at their next mass meeting. Time and quests that all applications for announced next week, according to Chairman Howard Millikin. Questions will be taken from Student Handbook material and campus publications.

If the test results are favorable customs will be removed, Millikin promised.

In line with this school spirit campaign, all male frosh must report to the track manager at New Beaver Field 2 p.m. Saturday, Tribunal decreed. Frosh are reminded to remain seated until the stands are vacant after the meet.