Linksmen Face Tough Rivals At Princeton

Penn State's twice-defeated golfers will tee off against the best the East has to offer at Princeton tomorrow morning, when seven colleges on the seaboard swing their driving irons for the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf League crown.

Defending champs from the 1943 medal play tourney is strong, undefeated Navy. The midshipmen scuttled Coach Bob Rutherford's Nittany Lions at Annapolis two weeks ago, 9-0, and then whipped the Penn Staters, 6-3, on the College greens last week.

Bright hope for points on the Penn State sextet is Marine Pvt. Ramon Peterson, winner last Saturday against his Annapolis opponent, and number one man on the Nittany varsity. Little Bob Rosenfeld, also a victory against the Midshipmen, is expected to make a strong bid for a title in the 36-hole championship play.

Extra Man Goes

Joe Shein, Charles Winter, Ed Phillips, Bill Smith, and Jack Martin will be the remaining Lion hopefuls. Only four of these men will compete for points in the championship playoffs, but Rutherford is carrying an extra man with the squad, as is customary for intercollegiate title tourneys.

Army's West Point cadets are expected to give the Middies their strongest opposition in the meet, but entries from Dartmouth, Yale, Princeton, and Cornell, in addition to several Penn State possibilities, may upset pre-championship dope.

Cornell, whipped by Army 9-0, is given but a slim chance to cop the crown.

3 Clubs Tied As IMA Softball Starts

Three teams, Mattil's, Nittany Co-op and Beaver House, are tied for first place in the IMA Softball League. The games are played on the college golf course every Monday and Friday evenings at 6:30.

The standing of the nine teams and the new schedule of games has just been announced:

	W	L
Mattil's	2	0
Nittany Co-op	2	0
Beaver House	2	0
Penn Haven	1	0
Allen Co-op	0	1
Fletcher's	0	1
Lutheran's	0	1
Pioneer House	0	2
Penn State Club	0	2

Tonight these teams will try to better their standings in the league: Mattil's vs Penn State Club, Fletcher's vs Allen Co-op, Lutheran's vs Beaver House, Pioneer House vs Penn Haven.

On Monday, the teams playing will be Mattil's vs Pioneer House, Lutheran's vs Penn Haven, Fletcher's vs Penn State Club, Nittany Co-op vs Beaver House.

Babe Didrikson Enters Chicago Golf Nationals

CHICAGO, May 18—(AP)—Mildred "Babe" Didrikson, former Olympic champion turned golfer, has accepted an invitation to the second annual victory national golf championships June 28-July 2. Chicago District Golf Association officials said today.

She will compete in the pro-ladies 36-hole event, which will be played the first two days of the meet.

Other stars who already have indicated their intentions to participate in the meet include Olin Dutra, Henry Picard, Tommy Armour, Jimmy Hines, Johnny Dawson, Ellsworth Vines and Gene Sarazen.

Nittany Lions Aim For 2nd Win Over Pitt On Diamond

Walter Better Than 'Whitey' In Kurowski League Claims Ray

Within the family circle "Whitey" Kurowski of the St. Louis Cardinals rank second to his brother, Walter, as a hitter, according to Ray Kurowski, second sacker for the Nittany Lions this season until ruled out by ineligibility.

Walter, who at 26 is two years older than his major league kin and five years older than the Penn State marine trainee, formerly competed in football, basketball and baseball at Muhlenberg. He's now a chief specialist in the Navy, stationed at Bainbridge, Md.

Netmen To Play In Smoky City

Face Carnegie Tech, Pitt In Weekend Contests

With good playing weather: a big help, Coach Ray Dickinson finds his tennis team in prime shape for their matches with Carnegie Tech and the Pitt Panthers on the Smoky City courts this weekend.

Hindered in the early part of the season by the Mount Nittany elements, the squad has come along rapidly with steady practice and should boast a better average at season's end than the early season results would indicate.

The Nittany Lions dropped contests to Swarthmore and Cornell in away meets, but won from Colgate and Muhlenberg in home encounters.

Today's line-up will show one change from last Saturday's starting combine. Bob Tuttle, consigned to the infirmary with an advanced cold, will be in playing condition and ready to take on the third singles role.

Walt Stenger plays first singles; Ed Meyer will tackle the second singles position.

No. 1 Man Unbeaten

Stenger, according to the Lion mentor, owes his unbeaten record in dual meets this season to big improvements in his overhead game. This year, his all-around play has been vastly better, Dickinson said.

The unofficial Nittany net captain has captured his first four starts this year and has a good chance of going through the season without a loss, according to Dickinson.

Ed Perry will be Coach Dickinson's nomination for the third singles slot and will team up with Tuttle in the second doubles combination for the Lions.

Bob Rossheim will face the Skibos in fifth place and Herb Beckhard will hold down sixth singles.

In the other doubles matches, Stenger and Meyer play first doubles and Rossheim and Beckhard will take on the third doubles pair.

Beckhard is the only civilian on the starting line-up for the netmen. Stenger, Tuttle and Rossheim are sailors, Meyer and Perry Marines.

Nittany Co-op will hold open house at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow. The public is invited according to Bernice McFate, president.

Penn State's roaring Lion will be nipping in the Pitt Panther lair tomorrow afternoon, after clawing the Smoky City team, 18-6 in their Mount Nittany den last week.

It will be the opening of a week's hostilities for the Penn State team. Joe Bedenk will use his star hurler, Mike Wardrop for the occasion. Then, within seven days, three more Lion hurlers will go into action against Bucknell on home grounds, and Lehigh and Muhlenberg on foreign fields.

Last week's game against the Panthers had everything, including Al Richards pilfering of home plate in the fourth stanza. Wee Willie Proctor was tagged for nine hits, but fanned eight of his opponents to square the books.

At the plate, the Lion batters will be hitting through a porous Pitt infield, and seven Panther errors put the game on the receipt side of the win-lose ledger.

With the aid of a pair of bingles by Richards, Carle, and Bruhn, and a single swat by everyone but Urion, and Sylvester, the Lion hurler coasted along, taking painless batterings in the fourth, seventh and eighth innings.

No New Deal

Bedenk will not shuffle his line-up for tomorrow's session with the wobbly Panther, so Ed Holler will again be behind the plate, and Al Richards, Dale Bowler, Gerry Carle, and Johnny Schleisger will handle infield chores.

In the gardens, Johnny Sylvester, Earl Bruhn, and Bob Urion will get starting assignments.

Wednesday afternoon the Lions come back to their homeland pastures to tangle with the Bucknell nine. Joe Golembeske will probably get the nod for mound duty against the Lewisburg batters.

Phi Sigma Deltas Beat Phi Sigma Kaps In Fraternity Softball

The fraternity mushball league, formed a couple of weeks ago, is gaining momentum.

Phi Sigma Delta licked Phi Sigma Kappa 7-5 on the golf course diamond the other night.

The schedule follows:
May 23—Delta Sigma Phi vs Phi Kappa Sigma; Beta Sigma Rho vs Phi Sigma Delta
May 24—Phi Sigma Kappa vs Sigma Phi Alpha; Alpha Chi Sigma vs Triangle; Delta Sigma Phi vs Phi Sigma Delta
May 25—Phi Sigma Kappa vs Sigma Chi

Results of the contests should be immediately reported to Student Union.

Miler Is Weatherman

Gerry Karver, promising Penn State miler in the prewar era, now is serving the Army Air Forces as a meteorologist.

Westminster Discussion

Westminster Fellowship will feature a panel discussion in the Fireside Room, 6:20 Sunday evening. Servicemen will lead the discussion, with Pvt. A. M. Linn, USMCR, in charge.

Thursday morning in the Fireside room the ninth regular early morning breakfast was held.

Members of the Women's Army Corps on duty with the Army Air Forces get flying pay—50 per cent over their base pay—if their jobs require them to fly regularly.

Penn State will be among the 30 colleges represented in the 69th running of the Annual AAAA outdoor track championships at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, tomorrow.

Track coach George Harvey reveals that the trial results of Wednesday might necessitate a change in the mile relay line-up which won the class B mile relay championship at the Philadelphia Penn Relays recently.

Bobby Jones, regular relay berthman, recently injured himself while training, and this mishap threw an obstacle into the champion relay combination.

But Coach Harvey isn't taking his tracksters to the Quaker city with dim hopes. Veteran John Dibeler, Marine Pvt. Dick McCown and John Chuckran will be strong candidates for the Lion mile relay team. The latter's recent trial performances have convinced the Lion track mentor that Chuckran might prove a weighty asset to the cinder squad. Bud Long's injury, a strained muscle, will possibly keep him out of competition.

Apprentice Seaman Frank Rainear, former Princeton runner will compete in the broad jump and hurdles for the Nittany Lions, while Marine Pvt. Bush has the most likely chance of performing in the shot-put and discus. Pinus will also be in the Penn State line-up as discus man.

Floyd Lang has been nominated by Coach Harvey as the Nittany representative for the javelin, while Smith will carry Penn State's hopes in the half mile run.

30 Colleges Entered
Thirty colleges have made 408 individual entries in the sixteen event program. Army and Navy will place the largest teams into competition, with 49 and 45 men respectively.

Other colleges will have the following number of men entered: Boston College, 3; Brooklyn College, 1; Colgate, 10; City College of New York, 11; Columbia, 24; Cornell, 19; Dartmouth, 31; Harvard, 3; Holy Cross, 6; Lehigh, 6; M.
