

Sorority Shorts

Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi Omega announces election of the following officers: Polly Huber, president; Ruth Kauffman, vice president; Estelle Brown, treasurer; Gloria Whyel, secretary; Betty Wolfram, corresponding secretary.

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Alpha Epsilon Phi recently entertained members of Sigma Delta Tau at a party given in the home of Mrs. Charles Schlow, who is the AEPH adviser.

Chi Omega

Installation of new Chi Omega officers will be held June 1. Those elected are: president, Joan Workman; vice-president, Marguerite Susanin; secretary, Ann Henry; and treasurer, Laura Jean Davis.

Delta Gamma

Alpha Chi chapter of Delta Gamma won the $25 war bond award as the outstanding chapter of its province at the Delta Gamma province conference held at Gettysburg State Teachers' College Saturday and Sunday.

The chapter sent the following representatives to the conference: Ailene Babbitt, Marjorie Cherry, Peggy Lou Johnston, and Betty Stripple.

Kappa Alpha Theta

Kappa Alpha Theta will entertain members of the college faculty at a tea, Sunday, May 28th, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Theta House.

Maple Room Plans Buffet

Pretzel soup and shoo-fly pie will tempt the jaded appetites of Penn Staters who dine at the Maple Room June 1. A Pennsylvania Dutch Buffet, including many favorite dishes, is the order of the evening.

The Home Economics department warns that when a Pennsylvania Dutch farmer eats, he eats enough for two. They add that the buffet will follow this tradition.

CLASSIFIED SECTION

LOST—Sheaffer pen and pencil on tennis court. Initials C.R.S. Reward. Return to Student Union.

LOST—Brown leather wallet containing matric card. Finder please leave at Student Union or call 324 Ath.

WILL THE PERSON who borrowed the slide rule from Room 212 M Eng kindly return it to Student Union.

ISN'T THERE A gremlin around campus that can find a dorm key numbered 313? If found, sed gremlin, please return to LINK, Grange dormitory.

FOUND—A great big beautiful cow. Gives more milk than Inka Hazel. Answers to name of "Majesty." See CLAUDIA.

LOST—Black zipper wallet containing matric card. Also a black mottled Sheaffer pen. Please leave at Student Union or call Mary 4022. 1t-pd

LOST—Left-handed golf club. Number 7 iron. McDonald Smith. On golf course. Call 2903. Reward offered. 1t-pd

LOST—A pair of pink shell-rimmed glasses in brown case. Finder call 4425, ask for Norma.

Student wanted to type reports. Call Hal 4180.

Found: Psi Omega fraternity pin found in town. Inquire at Office of Dean of Women.

Dr. John Lord Speaks In Chapel Sunday

"America's Mission to Mankind" will be discussed by Dr. John Wesley Lord in chapel Sunday morning. Dr. Lord is from the First Methodist Church, Westfield, New Jersey.

As a continuation of the Mendelssohn series from "Hymn of Praise," Jack Yeager will be the soloist with the choir. He will offer "Sing Ye Praise," followed by the anthem, "All Ye That Cried Unto the Lord."

Dr. Lord was graduated from Dickinson College in 1927, and is president of the Dickinson College Club of New York. He is an alumnus of Montclair State Normal School class of 1922, was teacher and principal in New Jersey schools from 1922 to 1924, and received his bachelor of divinity degree from Drew Seminary in 1930.

The speaker received his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and later did graduate work in education at Rutgers.

Home Economics Dept. Offers Refresher Courses

Vitamin retention and food spoilage will be the special features of the refresher course for homemakers, held at the College from June 6 to 8. Dr. Laura W. Drummond, director of Home Economics, announced today.

The course is being offered to help leaders in community canning centers, teachers, and homemakers with practical problems of canning, dehydrating, freezing, and storing. Dr. Drummond explained.

This refresher course carries no credit and no fees other than fifty cents for registration, it was further explained. Anyone interested in the problems of food preservation in the home will be welcome.

Soviet Agriculturist Inspects College Farms

B. S. Seltzer and V. A. Bezdeneynikh, representatives of the Government Purchasing Commission of the Soviet Union at Washington, D. C., visited the college last week and made a tour of Centre County farms. They were obtaining information regarding farming practices in Pennsylvania for use in their home country.

Mr. Seltzer is a journalist and served as interpreter. His companion, Mr. Bezdeneynikh, is a dairy technologist and was particularly interested in dairy manufacturing methods.

Forensic Council Selects Candidates for Office

At a recent meeting of Forensic Council, nominations were made for the officers of the next two semesters, according to Louis L. Ullman, president.

It was also agreed that a gold and silver gavel lettered with a "D" would be presented to those who distinguish themselves in local debate contests.

Don't Take the Chance of Breaking Your Records—Get A CARRYING CASE

The case can be used as an open rack at home and will protect your records while traveling.

10 and 12 inch sizes

MUSIC ROOM

Glennland Building

Faith Groups To Hold Party

All members of College student church groups are invited to attend the party in the Armory from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. this evening sponsored by the Student Inter-Faith Council.

Games, music, and singing will be featured. As part of the entertainment, each church group will present a short skit or stunt. Refreshments will be ten cents.

Committees are: general chairman, Helen Dossenbach; master of ceremonies, Robert Worthington; refreshments, Ilajeon Feldmiller; games, Robert Hartman and Bernard Washo; singing, Mary Margaret Dunlap, leader, and Martha Dennis, pianist; decorations, Marjorie Hemes; publicity, Louis Brethauer.

Dance Group Reports Election of Officers

Officers of the Modern Dance Club elected Tuesday evening are Katherine Mendum, president; Fay Young, vice president; and Harriet Finklestein, secretary-treasurer.

The group will present an exhibition of techniques and modern dance routines in White Hall at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 6. On the program is a Polka by Shostakovich with Miss Mendum a soloist, a group number by "Pavanne," and a cowboy dance.

SPA Goes into Lead In IF Softball Circuit

(Continued from page two) cause of rain. They will be played sometime in the near future. Six games are carded for next week.

Next week's schedule: Tuesday—Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Phi Alpha and Beta Sigma Rho vs. Triangle. Wednesday—Sigma Chi vs. Phi Kappa Sigma and Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Phi Sigma Delta. Thursday—Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Phi Sigma Kappa and Delta Sigma Phi vs. Sigma Phi Alpha.

Chairman Sadock said that the type of trophy which will be awarded to the league champion will be decided upon at the next IFC meeting. He also stated that all teams should turn in their $2 entry fee before the meeting.

Tribunal Ultimatums

Compulsory mass meeting for all freshmen will be held in 121 Sparks 7 p.m. Tuesday, Tribunal Chairman Howard Milliken announced today. The promised bluebook on the College is scheduled for this time and an important announcement will be made about customs. Milliken added. Dating is legal for the Slide Rule Ball, Tribunal has decreed.

Unpredictable

as

Penn State Weather

CLAUDIA

Presented by

Penn State Players

June 9th and 10th

Coeds To Draw For Room Numbers; Seniors Receive First Choice

Drawing of numbers for coeds who will be changing their rooms for the summer or fall semesters will be held in Atherton Hall lounges Tuesday. These numbers will determine the order in which choice of rooms is made, present first semester seniors choosing first, then present second semester juniors, etc.

Present first semester seniors wishing to make any room changes should come to the southeast lounge of Atherton at 7 p.m. in order to draw numbers for the order in which they may choose rooms.

Present second semester juniors should come to Atherton's northeast lounge at 7 p.m. Present first semester juniors, northeast lounge at 7:15 p.m.

Present second semester sophomores, southeast lounge at 7:15 p.m.; present first semester sophomores, southeast lounge at 7:30 p.m.

Present second semester freshmen, northeast lounge at 7:30 p.m.; present first semester freshmen, northeast lounge at 7:45 p.m.

Room choosing will be held in 105 White Hall beginning 6:30 p.m. Wednesday for present seniors, juniors and sophomores, and 6:30 p.m. Thursday for first and second semester freshmen.

Available rooms will be posted and coeds will choose in order of their numbers. Women will choose rooms for summer and/or fall semesters. Roommates will choose on the lowest of the two numbers drawn.

Women in Atherton and Grange dormitories who do not draw numbers automatically retain their present rooms. All women now in McAllister, Watts, Irvin, Jordan, and Women's Building must come to numbers drawing and room choosing as they do not automatically retain their present rooms.

The ten dollar room deposit must be paid at the bursar's office before the end of the semester by coeds reserving rooms for the fall semester, but not returning this summer. Women returning for the summer semester will not have to pay a room deposit.

Bulletin boards in all women's dormitories carry notices of the increase in board and room rates.

for the summer and fall semesters.

If any coed has changed her mind about the semester she is returning since the recent survey made by dormitory hostesses, she is to notify Miss Jeanne Richards or Miss Edith Melville, assistants to the dean of women, immediately.

Forum Plans Picnic For Freshmen Women

Freshmen women will picnic at Fairmount Park, 5:30 p.m., Memorial Day as guests of the Freshman women's forum. Games, baseball, and campfire singing will provide entertainment for this last social event of the semester.

Committees are: Food, Gloria Simpson; program, Sally Holstrom; Betty Jane Hain; invitations, Catta Garrett; fire, Barbara Hampe.

There will be a ten cent charge. All those interested are urged to sign up in 304 Old Main by tomorrow.

The last meeting of the German club for this semester will be in the form of a weiner roast, to be held in Hort Woods, 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 7. Members may invite their friends.

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

NEW YORK
Three-Year Day Course
Four-Year Evening Course
CO-EDUCATIONAL
Member Assn. of American Law Schools

Under Accelerated Plan, Day Course may be completed in two years; Evening Course in two years and eight months.

DAY and EVENING CLASSES FIRST YEAR CLASSES BEGIN
On June 12th and Sept. 25th, 1944, and February 5th, 1945.
For further information address Registrar, Fordham University

School of Law
302 Broadway,
New York 7, N. Y.

Yes! They're Washable

... and ... practical as they are pretty and cool ...

Perfect for 'round the clock wear—gay gingham

Striped new classics, well tailored coat dresses

Paterson Hosiery Shop

136 E. College Ave.

State College