

Golf Team Faces Cornell Hoping To Reverse Score

Bud Long, Low Scorer Last Week, May Surprise

In an attempt to turn the tables on a Cornell golf team that handed them a 7-2 defeat on the Ithaca links last weekend, Coach Pop Rutherford's Lion golfers believe that the change to the home grounds will be good for the morale.

The veteran coach will probably start the same team that faced the Big Red last week.

Bill Smith, who was beaten on the seventeenth hole by Kenny of Cornell when the two teams met at Ithaca, will probably face the same opposition in the number one slot. He will share the starting foursome with Ray Peterson who defeated Heider in his match 3 and 2 for one of the two points mustered by the Nittany forces.

Bob Rosenfeld, winner over Galsgiver by a 3 and 2 score, will play third man and will team up with Red Phillips as the Lions try to reverse the score over the invaders.

Bud Long shot the lowest score for Penn State last week yet lost a close tussle to Yoder of the Big Red, and is expected to improve the showing tomorrow.

Chuck Winter will probably tee off in the sixth slot for the Lions unless last minute changes substitute Jack Martin.

After a 9-0 loss to Navy at Annapolis, the Nittany golfers put up a stiff fight against the Middies on the home links but lost their second test of the season 6-3. After the EIGL play-offs at Princeton, the turfmen dropped the contest to Cornell last week.

The teams are requested to hand in results of their games to Student Union. Any team which hasn't paid its entrance fee is asked to leave it at Student Union, or notify league chairman Marty Sadock at Beta Sigma Rho.

Betson of Lansdowne Gives District 1 PIAA Net Sweep

Dick Betson of Lansdowne high school won the PIAA tennis championship last Saturday, defeating Jack Calkins of Bradford 7-5, 6-2.

His victory gave District 1 a clean sweep of the tennis events with Jack Vogt of Upper Darby and Clair Smith of Coatesville winning the doubles crown as they defeated Bill Grey and Mike Bechdal of State College.

The height of spring fever is when you're too lazy to ask your son to mow the lawn.

Go East, Young Man . . .

Dibeler To Lead Lions Against Colgate Runners

Johnny Dibeler, Penn State middle distance runner, who copped the 440-yard run at the 4th annual meet of the AAU Collegiate Track and Field Club on Memorial Day, will be Penn State's main hope against Colgate. Dibeler's time at Philadelphia was 50.3 seconds.

Another Lion hope for tomorrow's meet will be Bobby Jones, who marked a time of 2:00.6 in the half-mile event. Also entered in the same run will be Paul Smith.

Walt Stenger Beats Ed Meyer's Rival For Eighth Straight

Extending their winning strings over the Bucknell matches, Walt Stenger and Ed Meyer of the Nittany net squad have now won eight and five straight respectively.

Stenger's eight in a row includes wins in his last two meets of last year after being defeated at Navy for his only loss of the season.

The score was 6-4, 7-5 in a close match as he downed Frank Haas of Bucknell Saturday.

Incidentally, Haas and Meyer were on the Junior Davis Cup team and played against each other often in the tournament circuit around Philadelphia while Haas was attending William Penn of Harrisburg and Meyer was at Frankford in the Quaker City.

Meyer, Atlantic Coast singles champ last year, lost to Haas in what he says was the toughest match of his career in the quarter-finals of the Middle Atlantic States championship play last year by the tally of 7-5, 18-16.

The Bucknell star, son of the state supervisor of education of Pennsylvania, played fourth spot on the Junior Davis Cup team while Meyer earned number six singles ranking.

Stenger has defeated opponents from Swarthmore, Colgate, Cornell, Muhlenberg, Pitt and Bucknell with matches remaining with Cornell again, Penn and Colgate before he says good-bye to Penn State tennis for a Navy Midshipman School.

Glenn Killinger, former Penn State all-American and now head coach of football at North Carolina Pre-Flight, has been promoted to lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve.

Richard McCown and Stuart Black will compete in the 100. The same twosome will team up with John Chuckran to represent Penn State in the 220. Chuckran will also fill the quarter-mile post with Dibeler. Smith has also been named to the lineup as mile man.

Phil Jones will run the two mile event, while the hurdles will be handled by Frank Rainear and Allen Copp. Rainear will compete for Penn State in the broad jump.

Field events will be tackled by Bud Long, Dave Pinkus, Edward Bush and Dick Edwards.

It was announced that Barney Ewell, former Penn State sprint star will compete in the National AAU championships at Randall's Island on June 18.

Ewell will be running in what is expected to be the fastest fields in the 56-year history of the AAU 100-yard dash event. Among Barney's competitors will be Harold Davis, who has beaten him several times in past years; Claude Young, new sprint star of the University of Illinois; Charles Parker, the schoolboy wonder from Texas; and Eulace Peacock, who has long been a threat in national dash competition.

Ewell left college over a year ago to enter the Army. He has recently been stationed at Camp Lee in Virginia. Gerry Karver, up-and-coming miler for the Lions a year ago is now in a meteorology unit in the Army.

Joe Colone, who was rated with the first ten college punters as a freshman at Penn State in 1942, is now wearing Uncle Sam's khaki in the Hawaiian Islands.

Dick Harlow, now a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve, coached the Penn State football team of which Bob Higgins was captain in 1917. Higgins is now Lion head coach.

Nittany Nine Starts Last Week Of Action

Coach Joe Bedenk's Nittany Lion nine starts its last week of action here Saturday afternoon, when it meets Muhlenberg in the first of a three-game home stand for the season's finale. Next weekend the Red Raiders of Colgate sweep into town to wind the Penn State schedule up with a pair of tilts.

Crippled by the loss of Pvt. Johnny Schlesiger, snappy, second baseman from Yutan, Nebraska, the Nittany nine will attempt to bounce back from a pair of losses over the past week.

Schlesiger is still in the College Hospital, where he is recovering from an injury sustained last week when a Muhlenberg runner spiked him while sliding second base.

Lehigh's team, defeated on Nittany pastures earlier in the season, repaid their Lion debt on Friday, when Engineer batters sulged Joe Golembeske from the box, and took a 2-0 win from the Lions. Mike Wardrop continued his win streak the following afternoon, as he whipped Muhlenberg 2-0.

In the Lion's 62nd anniversary game Tuesday, Bucknell dumped a win over the luckless Lions. Apparently believing in superstitions, the Bisons pounded 7 runs across the platter, while gathering 7 hits. At the same time, the Bedenk team was committing 7 flaws.

This week Penn State will send its star hurler Mike Wardrop on to the mound to meet the Muhlenberg team for the second time in seven days.

With Schlesiger in the hospital, Bedenk will move sub John Hall to shortstop to round out his infield. Al Richards will again flank first base territory, and outfielder-infielder Dale Bower will see action on the keystone sack. Gerry Carle, star third baseman, will be on the hot corner.

In the outfield, Urion, Foster, and Bruhn will get starting nods for the Muhlenberg tilt. Veteran Ed Holler, still awaiting call to active duty from the Navy, will be behind the plate on the receiving end of the Wardrop battery.

With only a pair of games remaining after the Muhlenberg session on Saturday, Bedenk is planning for a full summer sched-

Beavers Meet Mattils In Independent Loop Mushball Hurler's Duel

Beaver House, leading the league through Monday's games with five straight wins, meets Mattils today in what may well decide the season ruler.

The game will feature the two leading pitchers in the league, league, Bill Renton, Beaver House, with a record of five wins and no losses, and Wally O'Toole, Mattils, with five wins and only one setback. Johnny Bernardi, Mattils, leading batter in the league with a robust .620, will show the way to the hitters.

Other games today are: Penn State Club vs. Pioneer House, Allen Co-op vs. Lutherans, Nittany Co-op vs. Fletcher's, and Penn Haven bye.

Bedenk had been planning to use Big Johnny Cwik behind the plate this summer, but the husky Johnstown semi-pro star picked up new Naval assignment this week, and will leave the campus in several weeks.
