ards came home after tagging up on Wardrop's long fly to center field. Previous to that Richards hit a single over second, Schlesinger put a roller between second and third for another single, and Holler sacrificed to put men on second and third.
 Coach Bedenk's lads got two more markers in the seventh. Schlesinger beat out an infield hit for a single. Holler attempted another sacrifice bunt, but was safe on a wild throw to first. Schlesinger came all the way home on the wild peg. Wardrop was then thrown out at first on a slow infield roller. When the Muhlenberg first baseman tried to get Holler coming in third, the ball got away from the third baseman and the Lion catcher came across with another run.

 Muhlenberg's only threat came in the fifth when Henry Baietti started off the inning with a long double into center field. However, the next three batters McGraw, Ogden, and Ogrizek, went down in order.
 New Cwens will be initiated at the annual English banquet at the State College Hotel Sunday at 5 p.m., Ann Louise Decker, president, announced yesterday.

There's a character who's got a heart like his name. To him a Nip in the trees is a notch in his gun.

Me, I've got the hottest pin-up collection in the Pacific but does it get me anywhere with Trig? No!

Even when I try to mooch one of his Chesterfields I have to find him a whole nest of Nips to pick off.

But then... the Colonel says we make a swell Combination...
