V-12 Notes

By A/S FRED VOGEL
 The V-12's Athletic Night proved successful both for the sports events and for the dance following. The V-12 Orchestra, led by Pvt. Gene Keller, was in top form. Pvt. Jack Foley, who directed the V-12 Follies, was Master of Ceremonies and supplied a few laughs. Keller and Foley sang, "I'm Steppin' Out on You," which was one of the featured numbers in the "Follies." Sally Duffy, voted "V-12 Queen" last semester, presented the three war bonds which were given as door prizes.

Seen at the dance: A/S Leigh Woehling, erstwhile phi kappa sigma, and Mollie Wolfinger, Bucknell coed; A/S Jack Bernard and Chris Deal; A/S Stu Block and Penay Hammon; A/S Bell Bourne and Jean Moyer; Pvt. John Peters and Audrey Creegar; A/S Karl Yedlicka and Doris Klein; A/S Paul Berg and Kay Kutty; Pvt. Bill Christmas with Lee Yeagley; A/S Jack Hansel and Bubbles Zinns; Pvt. Whitey Kurowski and Peggy Presel.

A/S Harry Dunham is the local agent for a few nationally famous cover girls. The girl on the new Look magazine is smiling over that apple she's munching. Harry says it's over him. Another one of Dunham's loves is the pretty girl on the new Redbook magazine. Dunham's office hours are 1500 to 1600 on Sundays.

A/S Bill Abromitis pinned Patty Robinson, a town girl. "Hollywood Joe" Riegel and "Beautiful" Broscius still fighting over the title of the "prettiest V-12."

John Muhs and Karl Yedlicka kept the crowd laughing at the athletic night with their special boxing bout. Nice going, fellows.

The Delta Gammis entertained Bks. 41 and 22 on Sunday, August 6.
