

Foreign Students Guests At PSCA Sponsored Picnic

Beginning the week's activities with the International Picnic at Fairmount Park, 5 to 9 p. m. today, PSCA has planned an All-college cabin party, "Frosh Frolic" morning watch services, magic show, and Freshman Forum and Council meetings for the remainder of the week.

All foreign students of the College will be guests at the picnic arranged to promote international friendship and to exchange ideas. Anyone planning to attend should sign up in 304 Old Main by noon today and pay his 30 cents.

A variety of games representing different countries will be featured.

Dr. Arthur J. Pfohl, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Indiana, Pa., will lead a group discussion on current student problems at the All-College cabin party at Ralph Watts' Lodge, Tussey Mountain, August 26 and 27. Square dancing with Chauncey Lang as caller, games, hiking, and a marshmallow roast at Inspiration Point will highlight the weekend.

Students wishing to participate must sign up in 304 Old Main by August 25. There is room for 40 students to stay over night and for 20 more to participate in Saturday evening activities returning the same night by car. Fees will be 50 cents for those remaining overnight and 35 cents for other hikers.

Alan Bentz and Jeanne Farley are co-chairmen in charge of arrangements. James T. Smith and Miss Betty Farrow, PSCA secretaries, will chaperone the group.

Freshman Council and Forum will stage a "Frosh Frolic" as a climaxing event of the semester in the Armory, 7 p. m., August 25.

Entertainment, dancing, and refreshments will be featured. Tickets may be secured from Forum and Council members or in 304 Old Main.

Committees are as follows: Entertainment—Betsy Ross, Richard Blake, and JoAnne Broberg; refreshments—Andy McCreight, John Cook, and Margaret Cook; tickets—Paul Mellott, Robert Smith, and Grace McMillan; publicity—Anne Dunaway, JoAnne Beaver, and Rex Searson.

A series of four morning watch services presenting the theme "Our Suffering World" will be held in the Hugh Beaver Room, Old Main, 7:25 to 7:50 a. m. every Tuesday morning beginning this week, according to Gloria Simpson, chairman.

"Chinese people" will be the topic of this week's service with Ruth Auchenbach, Esther Miller and Peter Horn in charge. "Japanese in America and Japan" will be discussed August 30, Elsie Frantz, Bobbie Stocker, Allen Bentz in charge; "Germans and Hebrews" will be featured September 6, Ann Berkheimer, Lois McCool, Helmuth Kemer arranging it; and "Underprivileged and oppressed migrants, negroes, mountain folks in United States" will be the topic for September 13 with Dorothy Colyer, Rex Searson and Fay Young in charge.

Slight-of-hand and other arts of the conjurer will be exhibited by Stuart A. Mahuran, associate professor of Journalism at the College, at the regular Freshman Council meeting, 304 Old Main, 7:30 p. m., Monday. Refreshments will be served following the demonstration. All first and second semester freshman men are invited, according to Frank Fryburg, president.

Mrs. H. Arthur Nelson, Red Cross Field worker who has just returned from overseas duty, will relate her experience in Egypt to the Freshmen Women's Forum in 304 Old Main, 7:45 p. m., Tuesday. Mrs. Nelson was graduated from the College in 1942 and is a native of State College.

IWA Date Bureau Extends Schedule

IWA Dating Bureau has extended its office hours for the convenience of students and servicemen whose heavy schedules prevented them from making appointments at the old times.

The new hours are: Mondays—3 to 5 p. m., 6:30 to 7 p. m.; Tuesdays—1 to 3 p. m., 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.; Wednesdays—1 to 2 p. m., 4 to 5 p. m., 8 to 9 p. m.; Thursdays—1 to 2 p. m., 4 to 5 p. m., and 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Norma Stanhoit and Harriet Strauber are in charge of the bureau. IWA members who have volunteered to help include; Birdie Deimel, Marie Macario, Rita Penner, Eleanor J. Phillips, Jean Pretter, and Rose Schulman.

Students and servicemen applying for dates at the bureau, 401 Old Main fill out cards with their physical description, extracurricular activities, and other outside interests. A fee of 10 cents is charged for each application and applicants usually receive immediate service.

Fraternities Must Obtain Approval of Dean Ray

Any fraternity that applied under the new IFC Code for dating privileges and has not as yet been visited by Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, and Edith J. Melville, assistant to the dean, should notify the Office of the Dean of Women at once.

Calendar

(Continued from page five)

Wednesday

Student Morning Watch Service, Hugh Beaver Room, 7:25 a. m.

PSCA Commission II, 304 Old Main, 10 a. m.

WRA Executive Board meeting, WRA room, White Hall, 6:30 p. m.

Archery Club, Archery Court, White Hall, 6:30 p. m.

Band practice, 117 Carnegie Hall, 7 p. m.

Surgical Dressings class, 112 Home Economics Building, 7 p. m.

Russian Club meeting, Hugh Beaver Room, 7:30 p. m.

Thursday

PSCA Executive Committee meeting, 304 Old Main, 11 a. m.

WSGA House of Representatives meeting, Dean of Women's Office, 4:30 p. m.

Current News Summary by Prof. George E. Simpson, South West Atherton Lounge, 6:30—7 p. m.

PSCA Commission III, 304 Old Main, 6:30 p. m.

PSCA Commission V, 304 Old Main, 8 p. m.

WRA Club Activities Board, WRA Room, White Hall, 5:15 p. m.

Choir practice, 117 Carnegie Hall, 7 p. m.

Elections--

(Continued from page one)

Star, honorably discharged from the Marine Corps, former track captain at Barnesboro High School. Secretary-treasurer, Elwood Petchal—Four years varsity halfback and quarterback at Wilson High School, Easton, captain of football team, varsity basketball, intramural track, four-letter man.

Chairmen of the three cliques are Jim Hugo, Key; Bill Wintersteen, Lion; and Robert Barefoot Nittany. All-College Elections Committee chairman is Paul Galvanek.

Galvanek has announced a meeting for the Elections Committee in Old Main second floor lounge at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Clique chairmen and all candidates will meet with the Committee at 8 p. m. There will be a meeting of Lion clique freshmen in 405 Old Main at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Women In Sports

Cosmopolitans trounced Women's 12-8, in the upset of the intramural softball tournament Tuesday evening.

Collecting 14 hits from losing pitcher Anita Geiger, the Cosmopolitans came back in the running for the championship when they won the semi-final tilt. Mary Lawther's home run was the only long hit of the game while Mary Gundel collected three hits for three tries, one of them a sizzling triple along the third base line.

Pinch hitter Bobbie Roberts, Women's Building, put her team back into the ball game in the last inning when she doubled after two outs and sent three teammates across the plate.

Laura Craig umpired the game and Betsy Ross was scorekeeper.

The lineup follows:

Cosmopolitans—Sandy Berger, Lucille Cox, Mary Gundel, Ann Hay, Mary Lawther, Lois McClellan, Betsy McGee, Nancy Neilan, Harriet Richards, and Janet Shaffer.

Women's Building—Jo Broberg, Anita Geiger, Ria Hanzlik, Phyllis James, Sally Knapp, Barbara Pfahler, Bobbie Roberts, Sally Sholley, Verna Stridinger, and Betty Troemner.

Army-Navy Game

Twenty-four coeds have been selected from the teams participating in the intramural tournament on the basis of playing ability to play in the annual Army-Navy playoffs, beginning on Holmes Field, 6:30 p. m., Tuesday.

A five-game series has been arranged with games scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday nights. Mary E. Gundel, intramural manager, Laura Craig, Jeanette Garfano, and Anita Geiger, team captains, and Mildred Lucey, faculty advisor, selected the players.

Teams are: Navy—Janet Shaffer, Mary Gundel, Laura Craig, Ria Hanzlik, Trina Boccoch, Lucille Cox, Gloria Simpson, Sandy Berger, Jeannette Garofano, Ann Baker, Jo Broberg, and Carol Andre.

Army—Marybeth Trescher, Anita Geiger, Mary Lawther, Harriet Richards, Doye Pachelbel, Kay Setter, Phyllis James, Jeanne Covert, Sally Knapp, Nancy Neilan, Betsy Ross, and Marjorie Dunmyer.

Ath East Tops Archers
Taking top honors in the intramural archery tournament with a total of 3,417 points was Atherton East while Women's Building held second place with 2,554 points. Alpha Epsilon Phi rated third position, 2,363 points.

Penny Hamann, Ath East, was high scorer for the three rounds with 1,108 points accredited her and Betsy Ross, Women's Building, copped second place with 1,040.

Arching the last round were: Atherton East—Peg Alderson, Mary E. Gundel, Penny Hamann, and Ruth Riddle; Women's Building—Joan Canby, Barbara Pfahler, Bobbie Roberts, and Betsy Ross; AEPH—Eila Fiering, Laurette Schwartz, Phyllis Schweitzer, and Ina Shilin.

Intramural Tennis

Mac Hall freshman coeds topped Women's Building, 2-0, in the first intramural tennis matches Wednesday night. Two players represent each group in the intramurals, each meeting an opponent. In the event that a tie results, a doubles set is played to determine the winner, according to Doris Huck, assistant intramural chairman.

Scores were: Judy Lapkin, Mac, defeated Jackie Simkin, 6-4 and 6-2.

Trina Boccoch, Mac, triumphed over Selma Sable, 6-1 and 6-0. White Hall Highlights.

Fourth intramural sport to be organized this semester is golf. Tournament schedules will be announced next week by Doris Huck in charge and all teams must be signed up with Miss Huck by Monday.

WHY WALK?

TAKE A TAXI AT ANY TIME

CLEMSON TAXI SERVICE

112 S. Allen St. 3421

300 Tickets Available For V-12 'Ship's Ball'

Tickets for the Navy-Marine "Ship's Ball" to be held in Recreation Hall on September 2 are now on sale at Student Union.

Three hundred tickets are available to civilian couples until August 26, after which no tickets may be sold. Admission is one dollar per couple.

THE HEAT HAVE YOU DOWN!

Try A Soft Drink At

GRAHAM A. C.

Also

- Smoking Supplies
- Candy
- Magazines
- Popcorn

A Common Expression in Town and on Campus

"You Can Get It at Metzgers"

SPORT SHIRTS and SWEATERS

Bathing Trunks - Outdoor Shorts

Bill Folds - Luggage - Picture Frames

Card Tables - Playing Cards

OFFICIAL AGENT FOR BOY SCOUTS

TENNIS RACKETS RESTRUNG

ALL MAKES of BIKES REPAIRED

SHOP AT METZGERS