

Track Team Ends Season With Win Over Cornell, 65-61

Lang's Javelin Throw Decides Big Red Meet

Penn State's track and field forces ended their 1944 outdoor season by defeating the Cornell Big Red, 65-61, at Schoellkopf Field, Ithaca, N. Y., last Saturday.

The meet wasn't decided until the last event when Floyd Lang threw the javelin 193 feet, 7 1/2 inches to win both the event and the meet for the Nittany Lions. Dino Taccalozzi's toss gave him third place and enabled Coach George Harvey to end the season with a victory.

The score of the meet was the same as the one when Cornell beat Penn State, 65-61, at New Beaver Field earlier in the year.

The results of each event follow:

100-yard dash—1. Dick McCowan, Penn State; 2. Al Auer, Penn State; 3. Francis Shaw, Cornell. Time—10.2 secs.

220-yard dash—1. Dick McCowan, Penn State; 2. Al Auer, Penn State; 3. Francis Shaw, Cornell. Time—22.7 secs.

V-12 Leagues Enter Final Week of Softball Play

On-Campus and Off-Campus V-12 Softball Leagues go into their final week of play at the golf course on Monday. The winners of each league will meet on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday to decide the College championship.

Barracks 13 with seven wins and two losses and Barracks 36 with six victories and three defeats are fighting for the lead in the On-Campus League. Barracks 20 and 29 head the Off-Campus League with six triumphs and two losses. Two of the above mentioned teams will probably meet for the V-12 title.

Whitey Kurovski pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Barracks 13 in its win over a strong Barracks 37 team this week.

SOCGER COACH Bill Jeffrey, who has compiled an amazing record at Penn State divides his time between the soccer field and the machine shop, where he is teaching Hamilton-Propeller students like the one pictured above to do a man's job in industry. Penn State teams under Jeffrey have lost only eight games out of 120 played over a 16-year period. This week he announced candidates for the 1944 squad.

Grid Squad Scrimmages Penn State In Review

First scrimmages of the 1944 football season have already been held by Coach Bob Higgins. Although the opening game is more than a month away, the Lion Mentor is determined to have his squad has been out for light the Muhlenberg contest.

Penn State coaches believe the scrimmages are the earliest ever staged at this school. Practice officially didn't get underway until this week, but most of the squad had been out for light workouts since the end of July.

First casualty of the season is Allen Richards, one of Higgins' top performers, who will be out for about three weeks with an injured shoulder.

Cindermen End Season

Track Coach George Harvey this week described his season as "a successful one" after the Nittany Lions reversed the drubbing Cornell gave them a few weeks ago.

Ed Bush, Frank Rinear, Johnny Dibeler, and Dick McCowan were picked out as the outstanding members of the 1944 team by Coach Harvey. However, said the cinder coach, the freshmen developed well and were very instrumental in Penn State's victories.

The indoor season will begin in a couple of months. Many of the boys on the present squad will return at that time, believes Harvey. Graduation, the draft, and assignment to new stations may take a number of men from the team.

V-12 Plays New Sport

Navy-marine trainees at the College are playing a new and so far nameless sport—a combination of basketball and boxing.

The players don 16-ounce gloves and try to punch any opponent who attempts to dribble or shoot for the basket. At times the game looks more like a football contest than either a basketball game or boxing match.

Two teams composed of sailors and marines offered a preview of the sport at the "V-12 Athletic Night."

Frank Rinear, varsity track star, is a former Haverford School and Princeton standout... Ray Kurovski, brother of the St. Louis Cardinal third baseman, is making his debut this year as a football player for Coach Bob Higgins... H. Newsam Benz, center on Penn State's 1920-23 era gridiron teams, has been named line coach at Muhlenberg. He will assist Alvin "Doggie" Julian... Steve Greene had to better Charley Lebow's record of 4.2 seconds to win the national rope-climb championship last winter. Lebow starred for Penn State a few years ago... Ed Sebastianelli, ex-baseball player, is now stationed in New Guinea.

Julius Epstein, noted Hollywood writer-producer, was a member of the boxing team while an undergraduate at the College... Cooper French, athletic director at Germantown Academy, Philadelphia, has been made admissions officer at the academy... Capt. Charlie Prosser, former Penn State athlete, is now at Pine Camp, N. Y... Dick Betson, Lansdowne youth who won the state tennis title on the College varsity courts a few months ago, recently captured the Atlantic Coast Junior tennis championship... Lt. Eddie Maslow, one-time football and baseball luminary, is now a prisoner of the Germans... Leigh Woehling, six-foot-five V-12 trainee from Norristown, was the Pennsylvania Interscholastic back stroke swimming champ in 1943.

Johnny Shroyer, one-time understudy of Aldo Cenci and former teammate of Notre Dame's Johnny Lujack, has turned up as a prisoner of war. The 1942 freshman fullback was reported missing in action at Anzio last February... Mike Wardrop has been commissioned an ensign in the Naval Reserve and will report to Princeton August 25 for indoctrination... Lt. Sever J. Torelli, former Lion gridder, has been named line coach of the football team representing the Second Air Force, Colorado Springs, Colo., this fall.

60 Civilians, Trainees Trying Out For Soccer

Approximately 60 civilians and navy-marine trainees are trying out for the varsity soccer team, Coach Bill Jeffrey announced today.

The only returning regular on the squad is Jim Atherton, senior student who has been on the team since his freshman year. Others with game experience are Bud Long, Lou Gross, Joel Crouch, and Charley Appleman.

The remainder of the squad is composed of men who have had little or no soccer experience at Penn State.

The first contest on the seven-game schedule is with Bucknell at home on October 7. The rest of the schedule follows:

Oct. 14, Colgate; home; Oct. 21, Navy, home; Oct. 28, Muhlenberg, home; Nov. 4, Army, home; Nov. 11, Cornell, away; and Nov. 18, Temple, away.

Coach Jeffrey said that Bud Long and Earl Graibner are competing for the goalie position. The veteran mentor believes it is too early to select players for individual positions.

Lou Gross and Charlie Applebaum, who got into three games last fall, are the top men for the right fullback slot. Russ Rushton and Ted DeVeas head the candidates for left fullback.

Jess Hartman and Clair Jewell are trying to fill Jim Atherton's center halfback position. The latter has been shifted to inside left forward.

Two men are also fighting it out for right half. They are Bob Parker and Harry Powers. Most promising left halves are Stet Stetler and Joe Krawiec, who performed as goalie in one encounter last fall.

For outside right forward, Dick Ridings, Charlie Hood, and Dick Nicholas stand out. Hood and Nicholas were on the squad in 1943.

A Venezuelan and an Austrian refugee are trying to out do each other for the inside right position. Herb Mendt, a junior from outh America, and Felix Roth, an Austrian refugee who came to Penn State from Boston, are the candidates.

The center forward territory is giving Coach Jeffrey his most trouble. At the present time he is unable to find anyone capable of covering the position.

Practice is held throughout the week at the golf course practice field. Anyone interested in trying out for the team is welcome, according to Coach Jeffrey.

All-Stars Tie; Play Tonight

After a late rally by the East had tied the Western team, 3-3, the Independent All-Star Softball contest was called by darkness. The managers decided that a replay would be held at the golf course at 6:30 o'clock today.

The West jumped to a one run lead in the first inning. After Jim Atherton singled, Roland Grimsley hit a long drive to centerfield which brought in Atherton with the first score of the contest.

Two more runs were added in the second frame. Artie Bohard and Paul Wunz came in on MacNillin's smash to right field. From then on O'Toole held the West in check. For the last six innings the all-stars went hitless.

The East got two markers in the eighth. Vic Danilov walked, Weidelwitz pounded out a hit, and John Bernardi drove in Danilov. Weidelwitz then came across on Eugene Davis' second hit of the game.

In a wild ninth inning rally, the East deadlocked the contest. Bill Reynolds recorded the tying run. Danilov advanced Reynolds to second with a single, and he scored when the shortstop fumbled Weidelwitz's grounder.
