

Hospital Administration To Study Modern Public Relations Methods

The first Institute on Hospital Public Relations, meeting at the College today and tomorrow, will be opened with a greeting by Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, president of the College, 9:30 a.m. today. To educate the hospital administration in the latest methods and techniques of sound public relations is the purpose of the institute, sponsored by the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania in cooperation with the College Extension Service.

Louis H. Bell, director of public information at the College, and Harold Laswell, director of war communications in the Library of Congress are also scheduled to speak at the morning meeting. Hugh H. Wagnon, chief of the Associated Press for Pennsylvania, will speak at 3 p.m., and H. B. Read, vice-president of the Public Opinion Corporation, Princeton, N. J., will address the dinner meeting.

Included on tomorrow morning's program will be Carl I.

Enrollment Drops To All-Time Low

Civilian enrollment at the College has dwindled to the lowest figure in 34 years. Records show 1510 students registered for the summer semester.

With only 1417 students, 1909-1910 marked the lowest enrollment in the College's history. The peak was reached when 7000 persons registered. During World War I 3000 was the average enrollment.

Of the present College population one-third are 17-year-olds. Women students number 766 to 744 men students. Of these, 138 are freshman men and 126 freshman women.

School of Agriculture registered 136 persons, School of Chemistry and Physics 233, School of Education 288, School of Engineering 227, School of Liberal Arts 127, Lower Division 269, School of Mineral Industries 42, School of Physical Education 44, Graduate School 140. There are 41 transfer students.

V-12 training program contributes 565 and ASTP 295. Seven hundred summer session students are also registered.

Letters To Editor-

Other freshman classes have been compelled to wear dinks and white socks, and much more, for almost the entire semester.

The great number of violations before Tribunal justifies the latter's decree of continued observance of customs.

Lloyd Barkeley, head of Tribunal, promises the good news will come. But until then, keep instilling that spirit.

Women In Sports

Trampling the Women's Building Nine, 12-6, Cosmopolitans forged from behind in final play-offs to win the Intramural Softball championship Thursday night.

The upperclassmen got off to a good start, collecting eight runs in the second inning, and a total of 18 hits from losing pitcher Anita Geiger.

Betsy McGee led the Cosmopolitans' attack with a home run while Ria Hanzlik bagged a round-tripper for the frosh.

The lineup follows:
Cosmopolitans: Sandy Berger, Lucille Cox, Mary Gundel, Ann Hay, Mary Lawther, Lois McClelland, Betsy McGee, Nancy Neilan, Harriet Richards, and Janet Shaffer.

Women's Building: Jo Broberg, Anita Geiger, Ria Hanzlik, Phyllis James, Sally Knapp, Barbara Pfahler, Bobbie Roberts, Sally Sholley, Verna Stridinger, and Betty Troemner.

Marge Auster and Lucey Hohenberger umpired the game, and Jeanette Garfano was scorekeeper.

Army Triumphs
Army "Kaki-wackies" eked out a 14-13 win over the Navy "Wolves" on Holmes Field Tuesday evening in the first of a series of five games.

Taking over pitching duties in the third canto, "Irish" Craig could not hold the 9-5 lead for Navy. Led by Doye Pachelbel, who hit two doubles, a single, and a good slow bunt, Army tallied nine markers in the fourth.

Ann Baker made a spectacular catch in left field for the "Wolves" and assisted in a first base out by a long throw to the infield. Pachelbel's backhanded tag resulted in the last out of the third inning.

The lineup follows:
Army: Kay Setter, captain, Marybeth Trescher, Anita Geiger, Mary Lawther, Harriet Richards, Doye Pachelbel, Phyllis James, Jeanne Covert, Sally Knapp, Nancy Neilan, Betsy Ross, and Marjorie Dunmyer.

Navy: Laura Craig, captain, Janet Shaffer, Mary Gundel, Ria Hanzlik, Trina Bococho, Lucille Cox, Gloria Simpson, Sandy Berger, Jeanette Garofano, Ann Baker, Jo Broberg, and Carol Andre.

Marge Auster and Lucey Hohenberger were umpires for the game.
