

Who's Who Lists 38 Faculty Names Prof. Alderfer, Chandlee Appear for First Time

Names of thirty-one active members of the College staff and seven retired members appeared in the 1944-45 edition of Who's Who in America.

Those whose names will appear are: Harold F. Alderfer, professor of political science; Chesleigh A. Bohne, head of department of earth sciences; W. G. Chambers, retired; Grover C. Chandlee, head of the department of chemistry; Wheeler P. Davey, professor of physics; R. Adams Dutcher, professor of agricultural and biological chemistry; William S. Dye Jr., retired; Harold A. Everett, professor of mechanical engineering.

Merrell R. Fenske, professor of chemical engineering; Stevenson W. Fletcher, dean of School of Agriculture; Earnest Forbes, professor of animal nutrition; G. D. Gardner, retired; Alfred W. Gauger, head of the department of fuel technology; James E. Gillespie, professor of history; George R. Green, head of the department of nature education; W. R. Ham, retired; Harry P. Hammond, dean of the School of Engineering.

Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, president of the College; William S. Hoffman, College Registrar; Frank D. Kern, dean of the Graduate School; T. I. Mairs, retired; Pauline B. Mack, professor of textile chemistry; Asa E. Martin, head of the history department; Carl E. Marquardt, College Examiner; Bruce V. Moore, head of the department of psychology and education; David F. McFarland, head of the department of meteorology.

Willard P. Lewis, College librarian; Mason Long, professor of English Literature; Charles C. Peters, professor of education; R. L. Sackett, retired; Edward Steidle, dean of the School of Mineral Industries; Charles W. Stoddart, dean of the School of Liberal Arts; Marion R. Trabue, dean of the School of Education; R. L. Watts, retired; Jonathan W. White, professor of soil technology; and Frank W. Whitmore, dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics.

Dr. Alderfer and Dr. Chandlee appear for the first time in this edition.

Interfraternity Council Sponsors 'Gridiron Ball'

Interfraternity Council will sponsor a semi-formal dance at Recreation Hall in conjunction with the opening football game September 30.

John Matternas, chairman of the dance, stated today that the affair will be called "Gridiron Ball." Muhlenberg faces Penn State at New Beaver Field in the afternoon.

The dance will be open to all fraternity men and their guests. Tickets will be sold at Student Union the day of the semi-formal. No tickets will be sold at the gate. Admission to the dance is $2.40 per couple.

Arrangements are now under way to bring an outside band to the campus for the dance. Matternas said that the orchestra will come from New York, Wilkes-Barre, or Pittsburgh.

Assisting Matternas with plans for the dance are: Victor Danilov, Jack Davenport, John Derick, Richard Griffiths, Herbert Hasson, Herbert Mendt, Guy Newton, Alex Reisdorf, George Roe, Harvey Scheiner, Stanley Speaker, William Thomas, William Wintersteen, and Edward Zemprelli.

Nautical Setting Highlights V-12 Formal; Navy-Marine Band Plays For 'Ship's Ball'

Servicemen and civilians will thrill to the music of Pvt. Gene Keller and his Navy-Marine Band amid a nautical setting at the "Ship's Ball" formal at Recreation Hall from 8:30 o'clock to midnight tomorrow evening.

Rendering the vocals will be Betty Ann Wiser, attractive College coed now vacationing in Philadelphia. Several men who helped make the "V-12 Follies" such a hit last semester will also be on hand for the formal.

The V-12 Band intends to present a number of popular songs arranged locally along smooth, romantic lines. The Navy-Marine trainees have been practicing for the past month in preparation for the dance. Pvt. Keller and his trumpet will also be featured on two or three songs.

During intermission the V-12 Glee Club will sing several modern and military tunes. Frank Gullo of the College music department will direct the singers. The Military Band will also play a few numbers.

An imitation ship, the "USS Nittany," has been constructed at the far end of the dance floor. Couples will be allowed to enter the pilot house of the vessel and inspect the "USS Nittany."

Along the sides of the dance floor will be piers for each of the V-12 barracks. Marines and sailors thus will be able to congregate with their dates and friends at the piers. Plans include similar structures for ASTP and civilian students.

As military persons enter the gymnasium they must salute the National Ensign and the Officer of the Deck and ask permission to come aboard.

Guests of honor at the dance will be Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Truedell Wiser, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Guy

G. Mills, Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gullo, and Dean and Mrs. Carl P. Schott.

A formal review will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The march will begin at the Atherton parking lot and proceed to New Beaver Field by way of College-avenue. The men will then pass in review before the officers of the College V-12 unit.

The Military Band will present a concert of military, modern, and semi-classical music on the steps in front of Old Main at 7:15 p.m. Sunday night. A/S Karol Marcino is band master, Pvt. Tony Struther, drill master, and Pvt. Luke Huber, drum major.

Servicemen and civilians are asked not to buy corsages for their dates at the "Ship's Ball." Tickets for the formal may be bought at Student Union until noon today. No tickets will be sold at the door tomorrow.

Groff To Discuss Penn State, China

"Daddy" Groff will lecture in 10 Sparks, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, on "present conditions and future outlook in China as related to Penn State's work for China." Agricultural Council will sponsor the program.

Groff will reveal present conditions in southern China, emphasize friendship relations, discuss the rural church, and relate responsibilities of students and duties of the college professor in Chinese community life.

He will illustrate his talk with colored slides of Lingnan University. Dr. Henry S. Brunner of the Agriculture Education department will introduce the speaker. Students, servicemen, faculty members, and townspeople are invited.

The agriculturist will address the Faculty Lunch Club Monday.

Players Present Comedy Of Mennonite Family In Schwab Sept. 29-30

Penn State Players will present as their second production of the summer semester the Pennsylvania Dutch comedy, "Papa Is All," in Schwab Auditorium September 29 and 30, Prof. Frank Neusbaum, director of the play, announced today.

"The story of the play," Professor Neusbaum said, "concerns a Mennonite family made up of Papa and Mama and their children, Jake and Emma. Papa is a very mean man. He is not mean because he is a Mennonite, he would be mean no matter what he was because he is a stinker."

"The title of the play, 'Papa Is All,' means, in the Pennsylvania Dutch dialect, that Papa is gone, done for, or finished. How the domineering Papa is disposed of gives the play its struggle."

"Since we live on the edge of the Pennsylvania Dutch district we have been able to select a cast that comes from this region and knows the dialect. To present a play such as this, to an audience which is largely composed of persons who also know the dialect, an authentic performance will be necessary," he said.

The cast as released by Professor Neusbaum includes Sally Von Niede as Mama, Gerald Gilman as Papa, and Mary Haines as Emma. The roles of Jake, Mrs. Yoder, and

PSCA Denied Membership In Cabinet

Penn State Christian Association was refused an ex-officio membership in All-College Cabinet at the student government's meeting Tuesday night.

Mary Margaret Dunlap presented the Christian Association's petition at Cabinet's meeting August 15, at which time All-College Cabinet Chairman Dale Bower appointed a committee to investigate the matter more thoroughly.

Bill Jaffurs, chairman of the committee, made a report at Tuesday night's meeting, and after a lengthy discussion, vote was taken on the question. PSCA was refused its petition.

Chuck Alcorn stated that the Armory-Sandwich Shop, presented August 18, was a success financially, and that the Armory will be open again tonight from 8 o'clock until midnight. There will be cokes, dancing, and card playing.

Final plans were reported by John Matternas for the All-College Convocation to be held immediately before the Penn State-Bucknell football game October 14. Capt. Robert D. Workman, Chief of Navy Chaplains, will arrive

Tribunal Lifts Dating Ban, Punishes Frosh Offenders

Freshmen may date! This soul-elevating announcement was made by Lloyd Barkley, head of Tribunal, at the weekly meeting of the student judges Wednesday evening. The lifting of the no-dating ban goes into effect immediately.

But before the deliriously happy frosh sally forth in search of the lucky women, Barkley has a warning to add. At the first signs of general laxness in customs observations on the part of the freshman class, dating will be forbidden.

Barkley suggests that the freshmen start now to prepare for the bluebook Tribunal is planning for them. The bluebook will cover facts about the College which the frosh are responsible for, and Barkley warns, a poor showing may cause Tribunal to cancel the dating privilege.

Getting down to the business

Elm Park Pastor Addresses Chapel

Dr. Harold C. Case, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Church, Scranton, will address the Chapel congregation Sunday. The topic of his talk has not yet been announced. The choir, directed by Mrs. Willa Taylor, will sing "Praise" by Rowley.

Graduating from Baker University at Baldwin, Kansas, in 1923, Dr. Case continued to study at Harvard University, Northwestern University, and the Garrett Biblical Institute. Boston University School of Theology awarded the S.T.D. degree to the clergyman. Doctor of Divinity degree was bestowed by Baker University in 1937.

For one year Dr. Case taught philosophy at Southwestern College. In 1927 he accepted the pastorate of North Shore Methodist Church at Glencoe, Illinois. The priesthood of the First Methodist Church of Topeka was offered to Dr. Case in 1933. He has held his present post with the Elm Park Methodist Church since November, 1938.

The minister was a delegate to the World Conference on Adult Education in Cambridge, England, 1929. He spoke at the United at hand, Tribunal dealt out stern punishment to wayward freshmen.

Tribunal Lifts Dating Ban, Punishes Frosh Offenders

Frosh C. B. Jones, customs violator, will be seen on Campus sporting knee length white stockings, a huge mirror, and a sign proclaiming him to be "Looking at a Typical Wise Guy."

To make convicted customs violator, Jack McCarthy, look like a barber pole, he will wear five red stripes painted on his legs below his rolled-up trouser legs. McCarthy's sign will feature the latest offering of Tribunal Poet Laureate Harvey Scheiner.

Committing the heinous crime of appearing before Tribunal without white socks, Charles Barson, will drag several tin cans around on a string, carry a lantern to help him see his way to classes, and will shout "Beat Muhlenberg!" at frequent intervals. Bob Dougher, a freshman who

ASTP Graduates Win Certificates

Col. Mills to Preside At Military Exercises

One hundred and thirty student-soldiers, members of the Army Specialized Training Program at the College, will receive certificates of completion at the College's fourth all-military commencement in Schwab Auditorium at 8 p.m. tonight.

Of the graduates, 98 will be awarded advanced certificates and will be assigned to troops. The remaining 32 are 17-year-old reservists who have reached their 18th birthday and will be sent to camps for basic military training.

Lt. Col. Guy G. Mills, acting commandant, will preside at the exercises and extend brief greeting to the graduates. Chaplain John H. Frizzell will pronounce the invocation and Reverend John N. Peabody, the benediction.

Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, president of the College, will award the certificates. Trainees receiving basic certificates will be presented by Dr. D. S. Cryder, professor of chemical engineering, and those receiving advanced certificates will be presented by Dr. Harry P. Hammond, dean of the School of Engineering.

Twenty-four states and the District of Columbia are represented by the graduates. Largest delegation is from New York, with Pennsylvania second, and Massachusetts third.

Marquardt Announces Next Artists' Course

In response to numerous requests, an Artists' Course will be given next semester, Carl E. Marquardt, chairman of the series, announced. Three numbers will compose the series, the first of which is tentatively scheduled for a few days after the new semester.

As last year, the auditorium will be divided into two sections. One portion will seat faculty members and the other portion students. Tickets will be obtained by the priority system.

College Librarian Lists New Staff Personnel

Willard P. Lewis, College librarian, has announced the following changes in staff personnel:

Miss Catherine M. Barnhart will succeed, as order librarian, Miss Katherine C. Dwyre, who has resigned after 13 years to accept a position at Ohio State University.

W. W. Galbreath, graduate student, will fill Miss Barnhart's former position in the extension department.

Mrs. Margaret K. Spangler has resigned as circulation manager to accept a position as instructor in the Institute Library School, Brooklyn. She will be succeeded by Miss B. Elizabeth Ulrich.

Frosh Violators!

Freshman customs violators who were punished Wednesday are asked to be present at the Sandwich Shop in the Armory at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m. tonight.

Students, faculty members, and servicemen are invited to attend. There will be dancing, cokes, and card playing. Admission is free.