

Old Mania

By NANCY CARASTRO

If the janitors who cleaned up Rec Hall last week after Ship's Ball have found any buttons on the floor, please return them to Barracks 13. They belong on the blouses of the Marines in that barracks, and popped off when Lt. Comdr. Wisner announced awards for scholarships and athletics. The aforementioned barracks copped a shiny cup for the best average in the V-12 Unit, and another big cup for winning the College service softball championship. But that's not all! At the review Saturday afternoon, the men in the company composing that Barracks received a streamer for being best-looking, best-marching, or something to that effect.

One remarkable thing that Maniac must note about last weekend: It didn't rain, it didn't snow, and no fierce winds blew in over Mount Nittany. Definitely a weekend to remember!

More About Ship's Ball

From a vantage point inside the microphone Maniac saw many other couples dancing beside the ones mentioned last week. Among them were Theta Phi Alpha pledge Teddy Puhlick and her guy Pvt. Ray Labatch of the AAF. . . Millie Chesnutt and Aviation Machinist's Mate 3/C Jack Arthurs. . . Alpha Chi Nancy Harrington and A/S Ralph Fife. . . Theta Marty Ball and Pvt. Wib Greene. . . Gamma phi Dorothy Taylor and Pvt. Hank Trautwein. . . Pvt. Bill Larsen and Alice Moyer, town girl. . . Pvt. Dick Brennan and Mary Lawther, town girl. . .

Also saw Betty Johnson, up for the weekend, but didn't get her date's name. . . ditto Dale Bower, All-College prexy. . . Bill Wintersteen, hordes of others. . . Vic Danilov, Collegian sports editor and Loie Henson from Bucknell. . . Seaman 2/C Alan Gessner came to State on leave and took Dottie Cohen, to the formal. . .

Hear Johnny Dibeler came back from Buffalo with another trophy and addresses of 5 former Curtiss-Wright coeds. . . Kappa Delt Barbara Reinkemeyer entertained Peggy Presel, Theta Phi, Dottie Taylor and Sara Achenbach, gamma phi's, at her home in Pittsburgh recently. . . Sally Thompson, alpha omicron pi alum was married yesterday. . . Another AOPi, Katie Swavelly, will marry phi kappa tau Dick Booser, graduate student, tomorrow. . . Theta Posie Shearer and Gib Purnell, Phi Delt, will be here this weekend. . . AKPi Art Horting and Jim Casey were wolfing around Saturday afternoon. . .

Now They Are Three

Chi Omega alum, the former Betty Miller came up to visit with her husband Curtis Norbeck, former DU. . . They have a baby daughter Nancy Ann. . . Nother Chi O, also married, was visiting. . . Mrs. Ray Parks, the former Marjorie Chambers, ex-Chi O prexy and BWOC. . . Ray is in Med School now. . . AOPi alums Mitzi Shade and Mim Zartman of the dancing legs were here. . .

Alpha chi sig Walter Baxter leaves for the Army soon. . . PiKA Dutch Lang went home to see his girl last weekend. . . Pfc. Milt Feldman former gamma sig, is journeying up to see SDT Shirley Levine. . . Renee Konopka, Zeta, is awaiting an engagement ring from Lt. Harold L. Clark, former Air Cadet here. . . He has received navigator's wings. . . Vi Nagle, also Zeta, will be visiting Lt. Chandler Heagey, former U. of P. man now stationed at Tampa, Florida. . .

Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

The launching of the U. S. S. Nittany was a huge success as a large crowd of Army, Navy, Marine and civilian men sallied forth with the cream of the female crop. On deck, were Ensign G. Belders and Lt. (jg) R. Gedeon, former Chief Specialists at this unit. The V-12 orchestra, led by Pvt. Gene Keller was in top form. The "ship-shape" decorations brought high praise for the decorating committee. During intermission the V-12 Band and color guard were on hand, and the V-12 Glee Club, under direction of Prof. Frank Gullo, sang several songs.

Scuttlebutt

The identity of A/S Jack Bernard's date for the ship's ball was a total surprise to all the boys in Bks. 26. . . "Handsome" Bill Anderson has found a girl friend at last. She is "Gravel Gertie" of newspaper fame. . . Bars, stripes and congratulations to Lt. (jg) Ray Gedeon and Ensign William Sherman, our former chief athletic specialists.

Seen at the dance: an American flag escorted by A/S Bill McMaster. . . A/S Jesse Wilder, from "delightful" Arkansas, turned up the wrong street in State College in an effort to find the nearest road to Miami, Florida. A/S Sullivan was near a nervous breakdown last weekend: he worried too much about an Erie miss. . . Has A/S Jim Burns met his love at last? He seemed to receive her with open arms! . . . And who was the "orchestra wife" who watched the band play during the ship's ball, or was she watching A/S Ed Sandbach? . . . Now that the softball trophy is won, the touch-football award is up for the best team. . . Bks. 29 and Bks. 35 will have their parties on September 30. . . Bks. 20's party is on September 16.

Off the Port Bow

A/S Jim "Crow" Quirk is "back in the saddle" as houseleader of Bks. 9. . . "Hollywood Joe" Riegal's faux pas in regards to the ship's ball caused a lot of talk in Mac Hall, Ath Hall and several sorority houses.

A/S Steve Bilo quite the dejected sailor this week. Jeanie at Mac restricted for the week: no talk, no love, no nothin'. . . Poor Steve. . . A/S Bob Rosshiem, A/S Paul Zohorsky and A/S Joe Tezza, former V-12ers at Penn State were on board this past week-end. . . A/S Abbie Lena tells the sea story about the left-handed salute. . . Have you heard A/S Ted Sarafini's tall story on "My Five Days in the Marine Corps"? . . . A/S Al Gramlich wore that big smile because his fiancée was a week-end visitor. . . Who was Jay Young smiling at over the week-end? . . . A/S Paul Berg is not a member of an Indian tribe; that haircut is just for style.
