

Old Mania

By NANCY GARASTRO

We were talking about the Marines last week when we were cut off by the linotypist, who thought we were taking up too much room . . . As we were saying before we were so rudely interrupted, have you heard about Pvt. Tommy Kent's date in New York? . . . She was the fascinating, charming, young veteran of the screen—none other than Miss Shirley Temple! But he was not alone . . . Others in the party were Jack Foley, Harry Powers, Bud Long, and Chuck Knowlton . . . Shirley, pardon, Miss Temple took them to the Stage Door Canteen, to her radio broadcast, and for a ride all over New York . . . Not only that, but she invited them to stop in at her Los Angeles home any time they happened to be on the west coast! . . . For further details, call Barracks 13 . . .

At the AOPi House

Up at the AOPi house Louise Umberger has just become pinned to Lloyd "Thumper" Barkley, alpha chi sig and Tribunal head . . . The frosh's boogey man left for the Army yesterday . . . An AOPi alum, Janie Wyckoff, has announced her engagement to Frit Beam, a sigma phi epsilon boy from Nebraska U., who is here in ASTP . . . ## PiKA's Dream Girl

Dave Briner's sister Jean caused quite a sensation among his PiKA brothers . . . Hear tell she has been voted "Dream Girl of PiKA" . . . Ever hear the song? It's on the other side of Bing Crosby's record of "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" . . . Jimmy Leydon, beta, now a First Lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps, came back to visit . . . With him was his wife, the former Helen Schmeltz, kappa . . . Bob Jeffrys, also beta, now at Jefferson Med School, was also back . . . Kappa alum, the former Betty Martin, and spouse Ens. Ed Schommel, former phi psi now in the Naval Air Corps, were here . . . Lt. Russell Cochran, alum, has been visiting Shirley Connors . . . Three sigma chi alums journeyed up . . . Whitey Pyer, Dick Reynolds, and Lt. Ted Clauss, former member of the Thespian-Three Stooges . . . Gamma phi Mary Long is now teaching in Hershey . . . Saw her sorority sisters over the weekend . . . Lt. Harold Clark, stationed at Tucson, Arizona, has been here to see Zeta Rene Konopka . . . Jim Thompson, alum, now air cadet, is home on furlough seeing Chi Omega Mabel Parks . . . Mabel wears his Kappa Sigma pin . . . Zetas Helen Vandervort and Kay Miller chummed around for the weekend . . . Lt. Don Bornman and Ens. Bob Greene, both newly commissioned, saw their alpha chi sig brothers last week . . . Alpha Chis Lou Schlichter and Rachel Ducher were back . . . Janet Henninger, alpha chi alum, will be married to an en-sign soon . . .

Glad You're Back

Welcome back to Teke Van Lundy, who is not going into the Army after all . . . Lt. Charlie Ridenour is spending a few days here prior to leaving for overseas duty . . . Lt. Francis Zabkar and his wife have been here . . . Francis was a star debater a few semesters back . . . Phil Baer, Theta, was visiting a certain sigma chi recently . . . former Players' man, is con-Raymond Boyle, sigma nu and (Continued on page eight)

Evelyn Gins is an Air-WAC, and stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia . . . Hulda Chilcoat has received her wings as a Woman's Airforce Service Pilot . . .

The new WASP has completed a rigid filing curriculum of nearly eight months, the equivalent of training offered AAF cadets—with the exception of formation flying and combat maneuvers. The WASPS perform non-combat flying jobs on the home front, releasing male pilots for higher grades of duty . . .

Hail, Friend!

Jim Dietz was a very lonely swabbie for three weeks at the Great Lakes Naval Training School until he discovered another sailor boy reading a Collegian after chow one day . . . The sailor boy turned out to be John Wolfe, a former Alpha Tau Omega here, who was equally pleased to meet a State man . . . Now the former PiKA pledge and the ATO are buddies . . . Two other PiKA's have been heard from—Dave Barron is at Dovewood, Mississippi . . . Lt. Gene Wood is a flying instructor at San Antonio, Texas . . . # Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

The U.S.S. Never-Sail came into her own last Saturday night at Bks. 20. Using the ship theme, 20's party was on the right course. A/S Stu Block's signs indicated to the landlubbers the salty names for the different parts of the ship. The port side is the left side of the ship, or is it the other way around?

Special guests of the barracks were this station's officers and those men who were on board last semester. The highlight of the evening was the appearance of the nationally known trio, "Two Girls and a Sailor."

The old DU bar was made ship-shape by A/S Lou Piha and his crew, without a boatswain's chair. The room retained its rustic atmosphere but ice cream and ham sandwiches took the place of previous delicacies. The party was topped by an all-Barracks jam session. The U.S.S. Never-Sail has left her moorings to await reconstruction some time in the near future.

THE LOG SAYS

A/S Dreisler wonders why there are such big crowds at the high school football field on Friday nights . . . His interests be not on the field but in the stands . . . A/S Jack Bernard doesn't live in the Gamma Phi suite; it's a sorority . . . He just likes their encyclopedias, and — well, you know her name . . . A/S Doc Willison hasn't lost his touch . . . That girl from Woman's Building has been too busy . . . Ask Pvt. Sam Rubenfeld for his delicious recipe for chocolate cake. Prof. Tyson of the College Speech Department is just "dying to try his fudge" . . . You, too, can ride in a beautiful 1942 De Sota — just ask Pvt. Bob Abraham how he manages to do it . . . His "roomie," Bob Baumgartner has been taking lessons on coed morale boosting.

MORE SCUTTLEBUTT

Many coeds will shed bitter tears when they hear that A/S "Romeo" Jones is laid up with a broken collar bone . . . Pvt. Ed Bush has received proof that his girl-friend from Wyoming is not a full-blooded Indian. She just makes beaded bracelets and weaves blankets on the side . . . A/S "Zeke" Barabas was blushing from something "Frenchy" did after all . . . A/S Bob Gernand, football player, has received a second alternate appointment to the Naval Academy.
