

Frosh Feel Tribunal's Ire; Bluebook Set For Tuesday

Tribunal members, overcome by exhaustion, staggered out of the inquisition chamber Wednesday after questioning 25 freshmen and convicting 19.

Harvey Scheiner, Tribunal head, announced that the long awaited Frosh Bluebook will be held 6:45 p.m. Tuesday at 121 Sparks. All freshmen having dates for the IFC "Gridiron Ball" may remove their customs at 6:30 p.m. Saturday for the remainder of the night.

Convicted freshmen will be seen about the campus and at the Muhlenberg game. Herbert Bortek, a second offender, will propel himself on a roller skate and wear a sandwich sign, a dress and make-up. His petticoat will reach six inches below his dress. Herb didn't wear his dink and was fresh with upperclassmen.

Kenneth Gould couldn't identify the campus buildings. He will sport, for his third offense, a dress, make-up, and a sandwich sign which reads "For your edification, Glamour Returns."

Tribunal thought it appropriate that James Dunaway carry a mop and bucket to mop up the Muhlenberg team after the game. Around his neck will hang a mirror and he will look into it every five minutes and advertise that he is a wise guy. A scrub-woman's bonnet and a sandwich sign will complete his attire.

Apparently Ed Joyner's first offense didn't do much good for he didn't know the Alma Mater and was fresh to the upperclassmen and Tribunal. He will carry an onion and a lemon in the pockets of his knickers and take a large bite from either whenever asked. He will balance a raw egg in a spoon while wearing a roller skate. A sandwich sign is to tap off his regalia.

Ira Kristel another second offender, didn't deign to wear his dink and will now wear a sandwich sign, a night shirt and night cap. His legs will be conspicuous by a pair of loud socks and his trouser legs will be rolled up to exhibit the manly growth of hair.

Alan Richter lacked all of his customs as he walked on the grass. He used the side door of Sparks, knew only the songs he liked, and what was worse helped incriminate fellow freshmen. He will hide his face in a green bushel basket, roll his pants above his knees and wear long white socks, fastened by a pair of brilliant garters, carry a Sears Roebuck catalog with a blue cover entitled Frosh Bible, and wear a green burlap skirt. A four foot dunce cap will surmount the basket and in his hand he will carry a square foot of sod.

Bob Hamer's legs will be enveloped by a pair of long white stockings while he carries on his shoulder a four-foot clothes line with two pairs of socks hanging on it. Around his neck will hang a washboard and he will rub a white sock on it as he wends his way.

Arthur Boyd's head will be enclosed in a pot and his dink will hang from the handle. He will carry a suction plunger and a sandwich sign.

The Sandwich Sign Brigade also include George Cleveland, Thompson Reid, Walter Lewis, Arnold Goldberger, Joe Viglione who will also carry a large match stick and a cardboard Bible, Abe Katzowitz, Paul Mellott who also will carry a bucket of sod, Joe Clark, and Jim Donnell. Jerry Dougher will carry a cardboard Bible.

War News-

(Continued from page four) troops in the Balkans was made still more critical by the invasion on September 27 of Albania and islands off Yugoslavia by Allied sea and air-borne troops. This invasion is reported to be on a large scale.

The British Eighth Army and the American Fifth Army are pushing forward in Italy against stiff Nazi resistance. The enemy is fighting desperately to hold the Allied armies out of the wide and fertile Po Valley.

Japs Move Ahead.
In the Pacific, most of the reports are encouraging. The lone dark spot is the successful Japanese campaign in central China which has forced the Allies to abandon their forward air bases in China from which they might have met Adm. Chester W. Nimitz and given aerial protection to the landing of amphibious forces on the China coast. On the bright side, the conquest of Peleliu, one of the strategic islands of the Palau group, has been practically completed. Wrestling control of the Palau islands from the Japs is heralded by many as being one of the major turning points of the war in the Pacific.

Allied carrier based planes continued to blast Jap shipping and port facilities in the Philippine area.

Choir Tryouts

In order to facilitate the re-organization of the Chapel Choir for the Fall semester, Mrs. Willa Taylor, director, announces try-outs, October 9 and 11. Definite appointments for try-outs should be made in 216 Carnegie Hall at once.

There will be numerous vacancies in all sections of the choir because the organization will lose a large proportion of its tenor and bass sections to the armed forces. Replacements are urgently needed to sing these parts.

Women students will be heard October 9 from 3 to 5 p.m. and again on October 11 from 7 to 9 p.m. Men may schedule appointments for October 9 from 7 to 9 p.m.

ROTC-

(Continued from page six) al Industries, Chemistry and Physics, Forestry, and Engineering (except enrollees in electrical engineering) entered the Engineering Corps. Electrical engineers became part of the Signal Corps. Able-bodied men in other schools made up the infantry.

In addition to discontinuing the advanced program, the war has reduced the basic phase to three semesters. Of the 75 hours a semester which the student devotes to military training about one-third is drill. The balance is classroom instruction concentrating on the technical aspects of military training.

Such instruction includes weapons, care of equipment, sanitation, scouting, marches, map reading, and other similar subjects.

PSCA Slates Discussions

Discussions on national politics, leadership training and dating etiquette will form the basis of PSCA activities this week.

Simon Marcson, instructor of sociology, and John Taylor will present the salient points of the Democratic and Republican platforms in 304 Old Main, 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Freshmen Men's Council is sponsoring the forum. Although the meeting is open to anyone interested in the national political scene, Council is particularly anxious to have members attend and take part in the discussion.

Leadership training classes, necessitated by the number of freshmen women living off campus, will continue with Mrs. Harriet Nesbitt lecturing on "How to Lead a Discussion." She will give identical lectures both Tuesday and Thursday in the Hugh Beaver room, 4:30 p.m.

"Dating Etiquette" is the subject selected by Freshmen Women's Forum for their meeting in 304 Old Main, 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Sally Currier, a graduate of the College, will lead the discussion.

At surgical dressings class this week, there were six girls present who made 220 dressings.

Have a Coca-Cola = Soldier, refresh yourself

...or a way to relax in camp

To soldiers in camp, from the Gulf Coast to the north woods, Coca-Cola is a reminder of what they left behind. On "Company Street" as on Main Street, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes. Ice-cold Coca-Cola in your icebox at home is a symbol of a friendly way of living.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
