

Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

Last weekend was a pretty busy one with the 411's dinner-dance and several barracks dances. Barracks 35 was lucky in obtaining the famous V-12 dance-band. The barracks was decorated as a night club—Club 35. Barracks 41 and Barracks 29 also brightened up Saturday night with soft music and soft lights and—what more do you want?

Barracks 9 is scheduled to stage their barracks dance and show Saturday night. This dance will be the first barracks dance to be held on a liberty week-end this semester. All the boys of the barracks will remain aboard, however, for the occasion.

Above Deck

A/S Clarence Boger is practicing his southern accent and sipping "Mint Juleps" in preparation for his sojourn at Duke University. Remember Boger, the South goes for cotton, not corn.

Members of Barracks 24 would like to know who the "Mary" is who send roses and daily notes to tall, dark, and tall Pvt. Dick Brennan, in the hospital. A/S Robert Stover has acquired a new alias. Aside from "Smokey" he is known as "Beautiful Blue Eyes."

Pvt. "Garibaldi" Sapienza has his needle and thread ready to sew on his Pfc. stripe the minute he shoves off for New River. His name isn't "Serious," it's A/S Harry Dunham.

Apprentice Seaman Stan Snyder, Bob Ulmer, and Henry Funk were guests at a church cabin party over the week-end. Pvt. Phil Jones has found the infirmity a virtual goldmine for brunettes. For one, anyway.

That 411 in Barracks 9 who used that old gag, "The car won't start, we're out of gas," has read too many old stories. Get a new approach.

All classes will end 12 o'clock noon, Thursday to avoid conflict with those finals recently scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

To the Leeward

Some members of Barracks 13 now rate laundry service at Mac Hall. It is said that A/S Leon Winitsky likes a certain flower so much, that he suddenly developed a love for V-12 and an adverse opinion of V-5. Since when do lilies bloom so high up in the mountains? It says here that Pvt. Jack "Put it Back in the Mud" Foley and Ethel Snyder are that way about each other. It's A/S Hersh Schechter who leads poor innocent V-12'ers astray. That wasn't a light in Barracks 20 over the weekend; A/S Calvin Sheehan was beaming with happiness and pride.

A/S Elmer Schmitzer is seeking a few pearls of wisdom—one anyway. Two of Bks. 13's younger set have recently become engaged. They are Pvt. Harry Lentz and Pvt. Marvin Kahn.

There seems to be some competition as far as Shirley Temple is concerned. Both A/S Bill Bourne and Pvt. Tom Kent are interested. Tomie Kent is so interested, he even has plans of matriculating with Shirley.

How about that? Pvt. Willy Cupelo has decided to take up ballet dancing. Tights are so becoming on him.

More Data
The Marines are staging a farewell dinner this evening through the kindness of Miss Parent. Dancing will follow in Barracks 13. A/S Francis Ianni has joined the list of ineligible bachelors. He is engaged to a pretty Immaculata College student.

A/S Paul Berg and A/S Gene Rifkin will journey to Annapolis to see Midshipman Richard Morrow, former V-12'er from Penn State. They will also witness the Penn State-Navy game. Pvt. John "Toodles" Owens is offering keen competition to Pvt. Walt Bagnall for the title of "Most versatile operator in Barracks 13."

A/S Stu Block will graduate at the end of the semester and receive his B. S. degree. That's bachelor of science.

Old Mania

By NANCY CARASTRO

Wasn't it a super weekend? There was something to do just every minute. The pep rally, Players' show, State-Muhlenberg game, Gridiron Ball, quiz contest, and Blue Band concert. Whew! After a weekend like that it's hard to get down to those pre-finals term projects, book reports, et al.

The Pi Phi's Import

The pi kappa phi's, practically every one, imported for the week-end. Pete Sheridan was with Louise Barniak, Shenandoah. Jack McCarthy with Joanne Bacon, Washington. Francis Wagner with Mary Louise McNelis, Ambridge, Pa.

Dick Guhl with Jean Turnag, Washington. Paul Mellot with Claire Nicholson, Hazleton. Gerry Eberly with Betty Everett, Pottstown.

and Ray Strohm with Carolyn Currier from we don't know where. Frosh Bernice Kurland was there with Sandy Rafsky, beta sig.

Gamma phi Jackie Irwin came up to go with SPA Joe Yarze. A/S Charles Harris, AKPI, was on liberty from Bainbridge.

Went with phi mu Betty Lou Dunmire, who wears his jewelry. Gloria Bowersox, phi mu, was dancing with fiance Pvt. Marvin Kahn of the Marines.

Seaman Dick Smith and Mary Farnsen were at the Ball. Mary wear an AOPi sorority pin and Dick's sigma nu pin.

Naval Air Cadet Bob Stowe came to escort delta gam Kay Cutts. Capt. Dave Millota, alum, journeyed up with his wife, the former Doris Snow, to see his sister Betty.

Dave has just returned from overseas. Ens. Art Christman, delta chi, was back. Brought a handsome friend with him.

Ens. Bob Olson of San Francisco. Lorraine Nearpass went to F and M for their big weekend. Sis Kehler, delta gam, is going home to see her fiance, Ens. Herb Martin.

Theta Jeanie Weaver will be visiting in Philadelphia this weekend with Marine Pvt. Howard Harvey.

Romance, Inc.
But Maniac is forgetting this week's pinnings and engagements. Gamma phi Peggy Bowes is engaged to Ens. Bill Kinsley, who was here in the diesel program.

Kappa Kathryn Metzger was married recently in Lake City, Florida, to Ens. Webb Moriarta, phi delt now in the Naval Air Corps. Kay is a brunette beauty who was selected as the first Air Corps queen when that branch of the service held a monopoly on Penn State's social doings. Chuck Hall, phi delt, has just pinned Janie Robeson. Phi kappa sig Bill Thomas and Louise Guilim were pinned when she came up for the Ball.

Lt. Ed Maier, lambda chi alpha, came here fresh out of Fort Benning. Ted is a '44 boy. Used to be a Nittany Lion boxer—middleweight. Looks quite stunning in his pinks. For names of other State guys now at Benning, see Front and Center.

Front and Center

From Lt. Ed Maier, '44, comes news of other Penn State boys at Fort Benning. Four are in Officers' Candidate School. Johnny Pond, phi gam. Johnny Jafurs, Acacia, and former varsity football player. Don Kulp, delta sigma phi and general BMOC. Jack Tighe. Aldo Cenci, State's former star football man, is at Benning too, but because of an old football injury did not qualify for OC School.

A Marine Makes Good
Bob Markel, former Marine trainee, is at Camp LeJeune, N. C., and he proudly announces the fact he is now a one striper. From England comes news of Pfc. Ande Sadowy, who is with the Army Service Forces. Pvt. Art Martin, PiKA, wrote a very nostalgic-sounding letter from somewhere in the Pacific.

Lt. Michael Kulick Jr., '42, was a member of the 22nd class to graduate at the AAF Central Flying Training Command field at San Marcos, Texas. He received wings as an aerial navigator.
