

College Releases Graduation Plans

Sets Final Exercises For Schwab Thursday

Graduating seniors will meet in front of Sparks building in their caps and gowns at 2:40 p.m. Thursday, October 19, and proceed at 2:55 p.m. to Schwab auditorium for commencement exercises, announced Dr. Clarence E. Bullinger, chairman of the committee of public occasions.

Those faculty members participating in the academic procession will assemble along the walk on the south side of Schwab auditorium at 2:45 p.m. and move promptly at 3 p.m.

President Hetzel will make his charge to the graduating class. There will be no guest speaker. The respective deans will present the students enrolled in their different schools to the president who will then award the degrees. After the commencement program, graduates will pick up their correct diplomas or certificates at the Registrar's office.

Apprentice seaman or marines who have completed four terms of the deck-officer program will receive certificates of completion. Dr. Charles C. Wagner, chairman of the Committee of Navy Collegiate Training Program will present the servicemen to President Hetzel who will then confer the certificates. Lt. Comdr. Trusdell Wisner will stand with Dr. Wagner during the presentation.

The honor group, consisting of students with a 2.4 average or better, including the following: Carolyn Gordon Blass, Gunther Cohn, who was selected as the Evan Pugh scholar, Alan Brown Grafinger, Alma June Kehler, and Genevieve Lillian Weder.

A graduation list according to tentative graduation figures has been released by Registrar William S. Hoffman. In the Graduate School the following degrees will be awarded: Master of Arts, 4; Master of Education, 5; Master of Science, 21; Engineer of Mines, 1; Doctor of Education, 2; Doctor of Philosophy, 9.

Degrees to be bestowed by the School of Agriculture, broken down into curricula, include: Agricultural and Biological Chemistry, 1; Agricultural Education, 1; Agricultural Engineering, 1; Dairy Husbandry, 3; Forestry, 2; Horticulture, 1; Medical Technology, 5; (Continued on page eight)

COMMENCEMENT—Dr. Clarence E. Bullinger, chairman of the committee on public occasions, has announced plans for graduation exercises in Schwab auditorium 3 p.m. Thursday.

ASTP Stages Military Ball

As a climax to Army activities for this weekend, ASTP Units stationed at the College are staging their third "Military Ball" in the Armory from 8 p. m. to midnight tomorrow. The dance is by invitation only.

ASTP students will also parade in a military review on Beaver Field before the football game tomorrow afternoon. This drill is being held in honor of Penn State men in the Service.

At 9:30 p.m. four girls chosen from 30 entrants will be presented to those attending the dance. Representing College coeds will be Rita Flagg, sixth semester student majoring in sociology, and Rose Sherman, third semester student entered in the Lower Division.

Two other girls have been chosen. They are Rota Weissner, Brooklyn, and Dolores Bruno, Philadelphia. Miss Bruno is a student at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

(See pictures on page 2)

Between 9:30 and 10:30 p.m. the couples will vote. The ballots will be counted on a point system, the girl who was mentioned first receiving four points, the second, three points, and so forth. Couples will receive ballots when they enter the Armory.

Capt. Benedict C. Hausdorf will present the queen to the audience (Continued on page two)

Alumni Return To College For Annual Homecoming

Revived Frosh Week Begins Fall Semester

Incoming freshmen will be welcomed to Penn State by a revived freshman-week program, Dean Arthur R. Warnock announced today. The last freshman week was held for the freshmen entering in the fall semester of 1943.

A mass meeting will be staged in Schwab auditorium 8 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 24 for the estimated 700 new students, 286 men and 422 women. Profs. Hummel Fishburn and Frank Gullo of the music department will teach the freshmen college songs and the cheerleaders will acquaint them with the cheers.

The first counselor's meeting for men students will be held at 9 p. m. Tuesday. Room numbers will be announced at the mass meeting. Guy Newton will serve as counselor chairman for the second time. Coeds will gather in the Armory at 9 p. m. for a get-acquainted party.

Deans and department heads will address the freshmen at a convocation in Schwab Auditorium, 8 a. m. Wednesday. Faculty advisors, who have already been appointed in most schools, will meet with their advisers after the convocation.

At 11 o'clock during every day of freshman week Professor Fishburn will lead the new students in a song practice in Schwab Auditorium. Student leaders and faculty members will speak to the students.

Campus Tours for incoming students will leave from Old Main every hour on the hour from 1 to 5 p. m. October 26.

James Smith, secretary of PS-CA, and ministers of town churches will speak to the freshmen (Continued on page eight)

CONVOCATION—Capt. Robert D. Workman, chief of Navy chaplains, will head the list of speakers at the mass meeting on Beaver Field 12:50 p.m. tomorrow.

'Register Early,' Urges Hoffman

All students attending the fall semester are urged by William S. Hoffman, Registrar, to return to the College by October 27, first day of registration.

The Armory will remain open until 12 o'clock noon, October 28, during which time 3000 students are scheduled to fill out registration forms. A fee of five dollars will be charged to late registrants.

Returning students who have attended the summer semester should call for their grade reports at the following offices: School of Agriculture, advisor's office; School of Education, home economics students, 102 Home Economics building. All others, 106 Burrowes. School of Engineering, advisor's office; School of Liberal Arts; Dean's office, 132 Sparks.

Lower Division, Dean's office, 132 Sparks; School of Mineral Industries, Dean's office, 101 Mineral Industries building; School of Physical Education and Athletics, 111 Irvin Hall; School of Chemistry and Physics, chemistry and chemical engineering students, 105 Pond Laboratory, physics, 101 New Physics building, and pre medical, 112 Pond Laboratory.

President Announces Faculty Appointments

Faculty appointments, leaves, and promotions at the College were announced today by President Ralph D. Hetzel following recent approval by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees.

There were three new appointments: Arthur J. C. Maw, professor of poultry husbandry; Esther Atkinson, associate professor of institutional administration; and Alphonse A. Brielmaier, associate professor of civil engineering.

One special appointment was announced, that of Charles Urbach, M. D., associate professor of human nutrition. A graduate of the University of Prague and a member of the staff of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Urbach will assist Mrs. Pauline Beery Mack in her mass studies in human nutrition work in which he has been assisting for the past

Convocation Ceremony Highlights Weekend

College alumni returning this weekend for the 23rd annual Homecoming will participate in a convocation honoring the 10,000 Penn State men and women now in service.

Highlight of the weekend, the convocation will take place on New Beaver Field at 12:50 p.m. tomorrow. Capt. Robert D. Workman, '07, chief of Navy chaplains, will deliver the principal address prior to the Penn State-Bucknell game. President Ralph D. Hetzel and Prof. John H. Frizzell, College chaplain, are also scheduled to speak.

Navy-Marine V-12 and ASTP units will parade on the field after the Convocation services. The first few rows of Section E in the football stands will be reserved for the review party, which consists of President Ralph D. Hetzel, Lt. Col. Guy G. Mills and other ASTP officers, Lt. Comdr. Trusdell Wisner and V-12 officers, and Capt. Robert D. Workman and his aide.

"The convocation is to honor the College's men in service and every student is expected to attend," Dale Bower, All-College president, said.

In case of rain the convocation will be held in Rec Hall.

Despite the fact that it is wartime a normal Homecoming program has been arranged. Except for the theatrical productions usually scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, the program will follow much the same routine as usual.

All 12 members of the alumni executive board, including Dale Bower, All-College president, will meet in 104 Old Main tonight. George M. Arisman '18, president of the general Alumni Association, will preside over the meeting.

Tomorrow morning President Ralph D. Hetzel will address the Alumni Council in 121 Sparks at 10:30 a.m. The Council is comprised of representatives from the various alumni districts. President Hetzel is expected to discuss some of the College's plans for expansion in the postwar period and the part of the alumni in this development.

Returning alumni will gather informally tomorrow night in the Old Main Sandwich Shop for the traditional cider party. A novelty musical program has been arranged for this affair.

Other events planned for the alumni include a golf tournament tomorrow morning; the Penn State-Colgate soccer game at 1:30 o'clock; and visits to the military barracks by the fraternity alumni, who must secure passes from alumni headquarters in Old Main to be admitted to the barracks.

WEEK-END CALENDAR

Tomorrow

Address by President to Alumni, 121 Sparks, 10:30 p. m.

Convocation, New Beaver Field (Rec. Hall in case of rain), 12:50 p. m.

Penn State-Colgate soccer game New Beaver Field, (behind the east stands), 1:30 p. m.

Football game, Bucknell versus Penn State, New Beaver Field, 2:30 p. m.

Alumni Cider Party, Old Main basement, tonight.

A. S. T. Formal, Armory, 9-12 p. m.

Sunday

Chapel Services, Schwab Auditorium, 11 a. m.

Time-Table Changes Announced; Students Should Plot Schedules

Time tables for the fall semester are now on sale at the Registrar's office.

All students should plot their schedules for the coming semester and then to have them approved by their advisors, immediately, said Ray V. Watkins, scheduling officer.

The following changes in the time table have been announced by the scheduling officer:

- AH 17.07 AH 8th Sem Elective T 8 2-6 A J M 1-5 Meat Lab Ziegler
- CE 21.14 CE 6th Sem M W F 8 103 Eng A S 8-11 309 Eng Kaulfuss
- Eng 1.31.A CE 1st Sem T 9 10 Sparks Hammond W 3-5 201 Eng C Crouch
- Eng 1.31 A CE 1st Sem 9 10 Sparks Hammond W 3-5 201 Eng ME Lab
- Eng 1.31.C IE EE(A-K) T 9 10 Sparks Hammond W 3-5 208 Eng C Babcock
- Eng 1.31.D EE(L-Z) T 9 10 Sparks Hammond Th 10-12 208 Eng C Babcock
- HEc 430.42.C Advanced Th 2 Practicum by appt 14 HE
- HEc 433v.42 Elective T F 8 Th 8-10 17 HE Patterson First 8 weeks.
- IE Lab 104.49 AgEd 7th Sem T 10 123 Eng B Th 1-3 Eng C Knepp
- IE Lab 142.49 Dropped
- PolSci 3.77.D LD Fr M Th 9 121 Sparks T 11 2 Sparks Krecker
- Speech 410.88 MWF 11 316 Sparks O'Brien
- Zool 6.93 A HE Elective MF 9 113 FL T2 213 FL Tietz
- Zool 6.93 B HE Elective MF 9 113 FL Th 2 213 FL

Freshmen Must Attend Pre-Game Convocation

Tribunal, at its weekly meeting Wednesday, announced that all freshmen men and women must attend the convocation at New Beaver Field, 1 p.m. Saturday. They must sit in the last section of the west stands.

All freshmen men must also wear "Beat Bucknell" signs starting Friday 1 p.m. These signs are obtainable at the Athletic Store free of charge.

The three freshmen who appeared before Tribunal were given punishments suitable to the final session of the semester. Charles Horn, Arthur Boyd, and Glen Yeagley will appear at the game connected by a nine foot plank. Signs, tacked on the plank, will read: "Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil." Underneath that will be: "Yip! It's Tribunal." The frosh did not think it necessary to wear their dinks or appear at the frosh bluebook.

SENIOR SING

Prof. Hummel Fishburn, music department, will lead Senior sing in front of Old Main, 7 p. m., Wednesday.

Seniors will sit on the steps of Old Main, while other participants are asked to take places on the terrace. Students, faculty members, and servicemen are invited to join in the informal affair.

(Continued On Page Two)