

Women In Sports

Interclass sports for the summer semester were terminated when the Phys Ed majors defeated the All-College ceds, Minors, 6-3, Thursday in the final field hockey game of the series.

The Minors hold the interclass championship by defeating the Majors 2-1. The remaining two games had to be cancelled because of wet weather.

The lineup follows:

Majors—Lois McClelland, Anita Geiger, Betsy Ross, Mildred Chestnut, Pete Snyder, Kay Setter, and Mary Gundel.

Minors—MM Dunlap, Mef Field, Trina Boocock, Dorothy Stewart, Gloria Simpson, Betty Griffith, Carol Andre, Lavona Dewald, and Betsy McGee.

Outstanding players from these teams will be selected to meet returning upperclassmen in the annual fall semester Army-Navy field hockey series.

Ath East Cops Golf Title

Ath East took the intramural golf championship when Betsy McGee and Jean Robertson defeated the Theta twosome, 35-37. Single eliminators determined the winner instead of the scheduled doubles because of the proximity of final exams.

Mac Hall frosh are leading the tennis intramurals. Thetas are scheduled to play delta games and the winner will meet the first place freshmen to determine the championship sometime next week.

Attention, Riders!

The Penn State Riding Club will reorganize at a meeting called in the College stock judging pavilion, 7:30 p.m., November 1. The Club, a cooperative organization, boasts 53 members at present and is open to any interested coeds. Fees are $15 a semester.

Instruction for beginners will be given three nights each week during the fall semester. Lessons are conducted in the stock judging pavilion and as riders are classified for trial riding, they will be permitted to go out at will. Fees permit an average of two rides a week.

Riding stables are situated on

Nittany Party Plans Fall Semester Meeting

Jerry Ciarrochi, Nittany Party chairman, announces that an important clique meeting will be held in 401 Old Main, 7 p. m., October 29, for all clique members and students interested in attending.

Members of the committee are requested to contact publicity chairmen Sanford Rafsky and Joseph Cerroni immediately upon their return for fall semester.

Students interested in joining the Nittany Party are asked to call 2084, and leave their names with the registration committee.

College property, east of the parking lot across Shortlidge Road from White Hall. An attendant is present all day to dispense horses to Club members.

Arta Ostermayer is now club president. For further information contact Miss Ostermayer or call White Hall.

Dean Of Women Asks Alumnae To Register

Dean Charlotte E. Ray requests that all women alumnae visiting the College this weekend stop into the Office of the Dean of Women, 105 Old Main, and register there any fields of higher education which they have entered, their community interests, wartime services, and marriage names.

Special blanks, similar to those recently sent to the alumnae, have been prepared for this purpose and will be available all weekend.

Dean Ray states also that any former coed wishing to find out similar information about College friends and classmates may do so by consulting the replies which have already been returned. These are filed in Dean Ray's office according to the class with which a coed was graduated. At some future date, Dean Ray expects to release a report on the findings of these questionnaires.

Bower Makes Appointments

All-College Cabinet held its last meeting of the semester Wednesday night. Dale Bower, chairman, made several appointments, including that of Stan Speaker as Cabinet chairman for next semester.

Bill Morton was named chairman of the Armory committee. Other members are Nan Childs, Anne Louise Decker, and Jess Panar. Van Lundy will return to his former position as head of Tribunal for next semester. Chairman of Elections Committee will be Ruth Kaufmann.

To investigate into the possibilities of conducting the war fund campaign on campus next semester, the following were selected as a committee: Gertrude Rosen, chairman, Fritz Huntington, Stan Speaker, and Ev Wasson. Also serving in an advisory capacity will be James Smith, PSCA general secretary, and Dr. Pearl Weston, Office of the Dean of Women.

Arthur Warnock, dean of men, announced that Freshman Week will be observed again with the customary week of orientation.

Freshmen will begin the week with a mass meeting in Schwab Auditorium Tuesday night, October 24.

Students Form Roosevelt Club

The Roosevelt Club, a new non-political organization open to all undergraduate students, held its first official meeting last week. Miss Genevieve Blatt, president of the Young Democrats of Pennsylvania, addressed the group.

The Club, approved by Dean Warnock, is pledged to the reelection of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It plans to hold a political rally and have other outside speakers address the group at future meetings. After the presidential election, the Club will be transformed into a political discussion group for the purpose of informing students of current political functions, affairs, and governmental actions.

The Club wishes to deny the fact that any of its members are receiving personal gains from organizing this group. This fact, completely untrue, has been circulating around campus.

Officers elected by the Club are: Edward Zemprelli, president; Jerry Kruger, vice president of men; Mary Kay Hopple, vice president of women; Dorothy Guffey, secretary and Sanford Rafsky, treasurer.

Philadelphia Post Office To Employ Student Help

From the College Placement Service office comes the notice that the Philadelphia Post Office expects to need temporary help for the Christmas rush.

Any student interested in applying for one of these positions should leave his or her name, address, and telephone number in the College Placement Service office, 204 Old Main, sometime before November 1.

Poultry Society Holds Conference

An annual poultry conference, sponsored by the College and the Pennsylvania State Poultry Association, will be held October 24-26 to consider all phases of poultry production.

The conference program has been designed to give accurate and up-to-date information of value and interest to poultrymen, turkey growers, feed dealers, and others interested in producing either poultry or eggs.

A wide range of speakers and leaders will present advanced information on management, marketing, and other data.

Chief Of Navy Procurement Trains Chaplains For Navy

Approximately 10,000 Penn State alumni now serving Uncle Sam will be united in spirit at the convocation on Beaver Field 1 p.m. tomorrow. Capt. Robert D. Workman '07, Chief of Navy Chaplains, has been invited by President Hetzel and All-College

Student Council to direct the services.

As Chief of Chaplains, Captain Workman has had to procure and train chaplains for the Navy, Marines Corps, and Coast Guard. Through his foresight, a chaplain's school was established in Norfolk, Va.

Because of the increase of clergymen joining the Chaplains Corps, Capt. Workman's problems of supervising religious work with the fleet and on shore have increased. Since the start of the war, new chapels have been completed at the rate of more than one a month.

The Chaplain recently returned from a tour of the Caribbean, South America, the Mediterranean area, and the British Isles. He has been awarded the Cuban Pacification Medal, U.S.S. Mayflower, the Victory Medal, Grand Fleet Clasp, U.S.S. Florida, and the American Defense Service Medal.

The convocation speaker entered Penn State with the class of 1907, but left to serve in Cuba. During World War I he served with the Grand Fleet.

The October issue of the Penn State Engineer will be on the stands Saturday and on the cover will be a color photo of the Consolidated Vultee Basic Trainer.

There will be an article on the Constellation, the world's fastest transport and article on electronics. Talk of the Campus, Sly drools, a double photo page, and a new humorous feature, War Milk, will also appear.

Last Collegian Issue

This is the last issue of Collegian for the summer semester. The next issue will be distributed Friday, October 27.

"THE BEST-KNOWN VEHICLES IN AMERICA"

What's the best-known vehicle on your college campus? You will probably agree it's the Railway Express truck. And one of the best-liked men is the dependable Expressman who drives that truck.

There's a good reason why these trucks are on the campus so frequently. It's to serve your shipping needs. Express-Service is a strong, direct link with home.

Railway Express and its coordinated Air Express Division are carrying a substantial shipping load these busy days. You can help the Expressman and his vehicle do their job quicker and better by observing three simple steps: Wrap your laundry or other packages securely... address each clearly... ship them early. We know "A shipment started right is half-way there."
