

Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

Although the ranks of V-12's at this station have sadly depleted, we are still going strong. There are at present about 350 sailors on board and we're sorry—no marines. Speaking of marines, several "swabbies" have made a list of coeds who collaborated with the "gyrines". No drastic measures have been taken as yet. A/S Robert Crease has other views. Thanks to the conspicuous absence of the boys in green, he is finally making out with "Janie". Pvt. Whitey Kurovski wasn't the only one interested in the Theta Phi Alpha house. A/S Karel Yedlicka and A/S Gene Rifkin have taken an option on the front room. They were disappointed to learn that only girls could become members.

V-12ers Make Good

All those happy smiling ensigns here last weekend were former V-12's here at Penn State. They returned in a blaze of glory to the school that started them on their naval career. Among them were "Rem" Robinson, "Red" Martin, Howdy Coburn, Floyd Foster, Mark Beyer, Pat Harrington, and Meyer Raskin also sport that prodigious gold stripe. Tom Blythe now in the South Pacific has been promoted to lieutenant (j.g.). S 2/c Rollin "Slats" Slater is finishing service school and will receive his rate in a few weeks. "Slugger" Al Koorey keeps hearing "those bells" now that Betty has given him the word. A/S Verne Condon believes in getting all he can out of his living. He lived so hard during his leave that it took him three days in the infirmary to recover.

Off the Port Bow

Apprentice Seamen Meeker, Locotos, and Kucel came out with the story that a four-point buck charged them while hunting last week. No, they weren't trying to collect insurance. Speaking of the hunting season, A/S Billy Bowser has promised to supply all the meat—for chow. A/S "Caress" Karansky can't seem to make evening muster on time. His watch might be broken but then again the distance from Mac Hall to Bks. 9 might be too great to cover in a minute flat. A/S Paul "Cassanova" Jones, finding the supply of nurses at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital greatly diminished, has returned to Penn State upon hearing about the many new coeds.

Front and Center

Lynn Kenneth Cook graduated recently from the Naval Air Training Base, Corpus Christi, and was commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Each Naval aviator is an expert flyer, navigator, aerologist, gunner, and radio operator. They fly carrier-based or land-based planes in combat zones, or at Naval Air Stations at home and abroad. Whether in the Marine Corps or in the Navy, all Naval Aviators wear the famous "Wings of Gold".

New Stripes

Chuck Judge wrote from the Naval Reserve Midshipman School at New York and sent in a whole list of names of State boys who were commissioned as Ensigns October 26. They include Mickey Raskin, Beta Sigma Rho. Art Miller, Phi Delt. Chuck himself, Sigma Phi Epsilon. Art Lorenz. Mark Beyer, Sigma Pi. Pat Harrington, Phi Sigma Kappa. Rem Robinson. Russ Kline. Frank Neisly, Phi Sigma Kappa. Don MacKennon, Delta Sig. Al Vohonen, Tau Phi Delta. Floyd Foster. and Johnny Clapperton. Former V-12ers graduated are Jim McNall. Howdy Coburn, and Dick Harris. Best of luck.

More Medals

Second Lt. William F. Dietrich, navigator in a B-24 Liberator group of the 15th AAF in Italy, has been awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster in place of another Air Medal for "meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in operational activities against the enemy."

And the list of Penn State men who are serving their country grows and grows. We can well be proud of the men who are fighting "for the glory of old State."
