

Election Code-

Any student is eligible to run for president or treasurer of the semester in which his college credits place him. The registrar's office shall be official in determining a student's semester rank (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8).

Article IV—Clique Organization

A clique must file a complete membership list with the Elections Committee. This list must designate the official clique chairman and the other clique officers together with the name and semester of every clique member. This list must be signed by the clique chairman and the clique secretary. This list must be turned into Student Union by 4 p.m. November 14, 1944.

Additional names of clique members may be filed only with the permission of the Elections Committee Chairman. Upperclassmen may not have any contact with 1st semester freshmen concerning upperclass elections and campaigns.

Article V—Method of Nomination

A regular student meeting the above requirements of scholarship and semester rank will be eligible for nomination of president or treasurer of his respective semester.

To be nominated a candidate must receive a plurality vote, i.e., more votes for that particular office than any other candidate. The election will be carried on within the cliques. Clique members will participate in this preliminary election. The clique chairman will submit the names of all clique candidates tabulated on a single petition to Student Union by 4 p.m. November 14, 1944. The petition must be signed by the clique chairman and the clique secretary.

Article VI—Organization

School Councils shall hold elections in the manner prescribed by the respective councils. All school council elections shall be subject to the approval of the elections committee.

Article VII—Organization of Additional Cliques

Any group may form itself into a political clique providing it follows the requirements for organization in Article VI of this code and other regulations set forth.

A group desiring to organize into a political clique must arrive at a name and specify that name to the chairman of the Elections Committee at least two days prior to the time that membership lists are to be handed in. The group must submit the membership list by November 14th.

The clique must have an official clique chairman and secretary. In order to submit candidates for at least a majority of the semesters involved in that particular election. One clique may not organize as a temporary body to support candidates for less than a majority of the semesters involved in the election.

Article VIII—Methods of Campaigning

An amount not exceeding $25 may be spent by each clique for publicity purposes (purchases of signs, handbills, cards, etc.) Donations are included in this budget of $25 and must not exceed $10. Cliques shall dispense with public address systems for campaigning purposes. The fund designated for publicity purposes shall be collected by the clique and will not be allocated from any college fund.

An additional $5 will be given to each clique by the Elections Committee to compensate for the former use of printed Elections Committee Posters. This $5 must be used to cover the cost of printed posters and the cost of purchasing additional photographs or prints. One poster will be submitted to the Elections Committee for use at the polls. This poster must not exceed 3 feet by 4 feet.

The committee will meet with the candidates and clique chairman at 8 p.m. on November 20th in 318 Old Main to answer any questions, clarify the elections code, or hear any complaints of code violations. The committee will meet again with the candidates and the clique chairmen after the closing of the poles and before the counting of votes, at 5:00 p.m. on November 22nd in 318 Old Main, when further complaints will be heard. Only clique chairmen and the Elections Committee members may witness the vote counting.

Two itemized expense accounts must be turned in to Student Union by noon November 22nd, for the approval of the Elections Committee. Budget I must state the method of collection and the amount originally received, together with all clique expenditures and donations. To be considered valid this budget must be signed by the clique chairman and secretary.

A separate budget must be submitted designating the use which has been made of the additional $5 in an itemized form. To be considered valid, Budget II must also be signed by the clique chairman and secretary. This amount must not in any way be used for personnel compensation.

The Elections Committee reserves the right to penalize any clique for over-expenditure or use of the designated amount for purposes other than those stated in this code.

Article IX—Method of Election

The candidate receiving a plurality of votes cast for a particular semester office shall be elected.

Penalties will be levied by the Elections Committee at a closed meeting after the hearings. This session will follow the open meeting with candidates and clique chairmen after the closing of the polls.

Article X—Eligibility to Vote

An official voting registration will take place at the college registration (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8). Each student shall fill out a form which will be filed by the Elections Committee and used to check off each voter. This registration list shall be official together with the registrar's records. Any student registering late or who for any other reason has not filled out an official registration card must withhold his vote until his name and semester rank have been checked by a member of the Elections Committee. The student if found eligible to vote will then fill out his registration card, at the polls, signed by a member of the Elections Committee.

All undergraduate students will be eligible to vote, with the exception of the students who are still in the military services.

All students must present some means of identification at the polls before being permitted to cast his ballot.

Article XI—Party Affiliations

Party affiliations of every candidate will be placed upon the ballots. It is necessary for every candidate to have party affiliations. Typed lists of voters will be given to the clique chairman or secretary, providing neither of these officers is a candidate for a semester office. If one or both officers are candidates a member of the clique will be given the list of voters upon presentation of a note from the clique chairman to a member of the Elections Committee stating he is a clique member. This list will be prepared every hour during the two-day voting period.

Article XII—Violations

Penalties of no more than 28 or less than 14 votes shall be inflicted upon the entire clique found guilty of any of the following violations. Violation by any one of the candidates will result in the penalty being inflicted upon every other candidate of that clique.

1—Electioneering in any part of Old Main by clique members while voting is in progress.

2—Candidates in any part of Old Main other than the time necessary to cast their own ballots.

3—Buying of votes, either with the promise of money or other forms of bribery.

4—Campaign posters in any part of Old Main other than those approved by the Elections Committee for use at the polls.

5—Destruction or defacing of property on any public or private buildings.

6—Using the help of first semester freshmen with upper-class elections and campaigns.

Voters violating voting ethics such as voting twice, allowing votes to be bought, voting under false pretenses, etc. shall be dealt with by Student Tribunal.

Article XIII—Emergency Changes

The Elections Committee reserves the right to alter this code in the case of emergency.

little hand in his, "I've been looking for a girl like you all my life." "Hello," she breathed.

Suddenly he took her in his arms. She made no sound but a small smothered "hello" as he kissed her time and time again. The clock in Old Main struck nine and they reluctantly drew apart. "You have to get back to the dorm now darling," he said.

"Hell---o," she snapped as they walked arm in arm toward her dormitory, she secure in her knowledge that she had not been associating with men.
