

Key, Lion, Nittany Vie For Semester Offices

Lion Platform

1. If elected we shall do all in our power to obtain Friday night leave for the servicemen. We will strive to obtain barracks open-house permission for servicemen and their dates for Saturday evening.
2. A vote in our favor will assure you of the publication of the minutes of All-College Cabinet.
3. In conformity with our determination to revive the true Penn State spirit, we promise to encourage and sponsor song fests on the steps of Old Main.
4. Having conceived and fought for the Armory Open House, we promise to insure its continuance and to institute such changes in the Armory's furnishings as will increase the comfort of stags and sit-outers.
5. We promise that there will be a New Year's Eve dance.
6. We intend to petition unceasingly for the introduction of College book exchange.
7. In order to raise and to insure the health standards of the men students, as well as to minimize their expenses, we promise to work continuously for the establishment of a dining commons for men.
8. To alleviate friction as much as possible, we promise to promote cooperation between Judicial and Tribunal on freshman customs and thus bring about better cooperation between student organizations.
9. We promise to promote activities that will serve a dual purpose—student participation and publicity of the College, as the Coca Cola Spotlight Parade of Bands, Vox Pop, etc.
10. We pledge ourselves to the erection of a memorial for the Penn State men killed in the service.

Nittany Platform

1. We believe that a truly representative All-College Cabinet should be formed to give every organization on campus representation.
2. We believe in the creation of a better Penn State spirit through separate class meetings and rallies.
3. We believe in greater cooperation among all organizations on campus in order to make possible big weekends with big name bands, and more recreation facilities.
4. We believe that the student body should be given a larger role in the plans for the building of a Student Union building including ballroom, theater, recreation rooms, cafeteria, etc.
5. We believe that every rehabilitation veteran here at Penn State should be given the fullest consideration and help.
6. We believe that a student poll should be taken at the end of every semester criticizing the courses completed.

X-G-I Club Plans Officer Elections

The X-G-I Club, a group formed by ex-servicemen in August, will elect officers at the American Legion Home, Pugh street and Foster avenue, 7:30 p.m. Monday.

All members and former servicemen are urged to attend.

The Senate Student Welfare Committee officially recognized the constitution and by-laws of the X-G-I Club September 29, thereby permitting the group to sponsor any dances on college property and to participate in intra-mural sports.

The prime purpose of the club is to orient returning veterans to Penn State life and to aid in the rehabilitation program. Unlike veterans' clubs on several other campuses, the X-G-I Club is modeled after the American Legion and helped by the treasury and services of the Legion organization.

Cwens, Mortar Board Present Spinsters' Skip

Cwens, sophomore women's honorary society, and Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, will sponsor their traditional "Spinsters' Skip" in White Hall, December 9.

Theme of the dance will be informality. Proceeds will replenish the scholarship fund which enables Cwens to award a $50 scholarship each year to a qualified coed.

Betty Steele will head arrangements as general chairman. Other chairmen include Diana Huffman, tickets; Lou Lamade, tickets; Betsy Magee, decorations, and Fay Young, publicity.

Candidates for boxing manager are asked to contact Van Lundy, head manager. Phone 2021.

Goeds Form Choral Group

Coeds interested in joining the Girls' Choral Organizations are to report to 117 Carnegie Hall, 7 p.m. Tuesday. Guy Woods, new member of the music department, will direct the choral group being formed with the cooperation of WSGA and the music department.

Football Tickets on Sale

Herb Locke, cheerleader, requests that all students going to the Pittsburgh game purchase their tickets for the game at the College so that the entire student body may sit together and not be spread throughout the stands. Tickets for the midfield section at $3.00 apiece are now on sale in 107 Old Main.

the top of the "big mountain off campus." Tickets can be bought at the PSCA office for 25 cents. In case of rain supper will be served in the Hugh Beaver room.

Al Michaels, one of the varsity football coaches, will be the guest of Freshmen Council in 304 Old Main, 7:30 p.m. Monday. Movies of the Penn State-Syracuse game will be shown, and council officers will be elected.

Those nominated for office include: president, Donald Ward Jr., Paul M. Droder, vice-president, Stanley Alprin, William Jones, Fred D. Caccese; secretary-treasurer, William Tucker, David Cummings, Leo Skellchock.

Frosh Hold Cabin Party

Freshmen men are invited to attend a cabin party at Watts Lodge tomorrow evening. The group will leave from the rear of Old Main after the Maryland football game. Those who plan to attend should sign up at the PSCA office today, and should take blankets and flashlights on the hike. The cost of this event is 50 cents.

Freshman Forum and Freshman Council will sponsor a mixer in the Armory Friday. All freshmen men and coeds are invited to attend. Tickets may be obtained at the PSCA office.

All girls interested in joining Freshman Forum should come to the Hugh Beaver room, Old Main, 6:45 Tuesday night. Candidates for forum officers will be nominated and the work of the various committees explained.

Brunner Gives News Review

Dr. Henry Brunner, of the Rural Education department will speak at this semester's first news review at Atherton Hall 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. Wednesday. Both civilians and servicemen are invited to attend. These reviews are designed to keep students informed about current news, and are sponsored by PSCA Forensic Council, and WSGA.

Future speakers are: Dr. Burke M. Hermann, Lt. Col. Guy Mills, and Miss Ina Padgett.

Thanksgiving Service

Inter-Faith Council will sponsor a Thanksgiving Day service in Schwab auditorium from 12:45 to 1:10 p.m. Thursday.
