

21 Students Join Symphony

Performing with the 74 piece College Symphony Orchestra this semester will be 21 new members.

Newly admitted stringed-instrument players include: Melva Barham, Myrtle Bock, Marian Fister, Kenneth Gould, Alvin Herman, Sybil Peskin, Betty Slayman, and Marlene Smith, all playing violins; George Barber, viola; Margaret Potts and Herman Slayman, cellos; and Lois Sheaffer, bass.

Edith Murray, flute; Marian Rewbridge and Edna Murray, oboes; and William Peters, bass clarinet help supplement the woodwind section. Joanne Broberg and Kenny Smith are playing trumpets while Robert Bechtol is sitting in with the trombones. James Eaton and Donald Fredrickson have been admitted to the percussion section.

Frosh To Remove Customs For Ball

All freshmen will remove their customs at 7 p.m. tomorrow for the "Autumn Ball" at 9 p.m. in Recreation Hall, announced Van Lundy, chairman of Tribunal, today.

Freshmen must sit in the northeast stands during the Penn State-Maryland game tomorrow. All offenders will parade down Beaver field between quarters, according to Lundy.

Jim Lally, Leonard Stape, and Jack Hanford will represent "Speak No Evil," "See No Evil," and "Hear No Evil" in the march down Beaver field. After the game they will remove their sandwich signs.

"Charge," George Dagher will yell as he rushes up the stairs of all buildings on campus in a dress, makeup, and sandwich sign.

Tribunal dished out the works to William Rush who will wear a dress, makeup, and colored ribbons around his bare knees. The culprit will also escort a doll to his classes.

According to the sandwich sign Andy Barr will display, he was convicted as "Penn State Lochinvar," and will make the rounds of the campus in a dress, makeup, and sandwich sign.

"The woman I was walking with was a member of the faculty," lamented William Oeser, but he will still don a sandwich sign, with "Beat Maryland" printed on the back, and feminine attire. Merrill Klein was ordered a helping of the same.

All ex-servicemen who were tested by Tribunal this week should report Wednesday for their results and exemption cards.

Thespians Elect Officers, Initiate Seven Members

Thespians elected William Reutti president for the fall semester and initiated seven members into the organization Sunday. Plans for new productions also were discussed.

Other officers of Thespians are Hal Hein, secretary; and George Mills, treasurer.

The following members were initiated: Pete Johnson, John Setar, William Christoffers, James Casey, Hal Hein, Paul Ploth, and Frank Benoit.

All singers, actors, and dancers who attended previous tryouts are requested to be at Schwab Auditorium 7 p.m. Tuesday to begin discussion of the new production, which is as yet untitled. Those students who are interested but cannot attend Tuesday are asked to contact William Reutti at 4460.

ASTP to Sponsor Dance

As their contribution to the Sixth War Bond Drive, ASTP units stationed on Campus will sponsor a "War Stamp Stomp" in the Armory from 8 p.m. to midnight November 25.

Admission will be a 25 cent war stamp. During the dance, these stamps will be redistributed to the holders of winning tickets. Each winner will be able to redeem his stamps for a $25 war bond.

Music will be via the juke box. Attendance at the dance will not be limited to members of the ASTP.

Get Your
Phys Ed Credits
By BOWLING
At The
New State Bowling
Center
McAllister Street
New Brunswick Alleys
And Equipment

Blue Band Adds 26 Players

Playing with the 78-piece Blue Band this semester are 26 new members who gained admission to the woodwind, brass and percussion sections through competitive tryouts.

New trumpeters include: D. R. Brown, Anna Mae Grow, and Kenny Smith. Robert Bechtol, Robert Mulligan, and Herbert Teindrup are playing trombones and William Hill and Herman Slayman are blowing baritones. Gloria Edmunds, Fred Fischer, Naomi Goeddel, Robert Hoffman, Abe Levy, William Peters, Josephine Rotili, and Andrew White are the eight new members of the clarinet section. Nancy Sherriff and Edith Murray play flutes while oboe.

Edna Murray performs on the Performing on saxophones are F. Calmeo, Louetta Dinius, Jack Reeves, and Lois Zubler. Carl Colterahn, James Eaton, and Donald Fredrickson are assisting in the percussion section.

HUNGRY?
CREAM PUFFS — TARTS — COOKIES
and BROWNIES
ELECTRIC BAKERY
ALLEN STREET

GOOD THINGS TO EAT—

- CHEESE
- ICE CREAM
- THANKSGIVING SPECIAL

TO DRINK—

- MILK
- CHOCOLATE MILK
- BUTTER MILK

State College Creamery

Whose name do you
hear in all the dorms?
SALLY'S
On the Tip of Everyone's Tongue
Sandwiches Ice Cream

Perfectly Pleasing . . .

When your heart has something to say, say it with flowers. Express yourself eloquently with Woodring's flowers when someone has a birthday or because she's your "Big Moment" for the dance, or just because she's near and dear to you.

WOODRING'S FLORAL GARDENS

Beaver Ave. Phone 2045

WAGNER'S GULF STATION
REGISTERED GULFLEX LUBRICATOR
CAR WASHING
VULCANIZING — TIRE SERVICE — REGAPPING
115 South Burrowes Street
DIAL 3947

WANTED
For Scientific Laboratory Work
Near Pittsburgh, Penna.

Young men, not eligible for military service,
and women qualified by education.

Excellent prospects for advancement and post war work.
Write giving qualifications and furnishing a transcript of college records.

SEND REPLY TO:
Box 261
State College, Penna.

SAVE
NOVEMBER 18
for
Autumn Ball
BUD WILLS ORCHESTRA

$1.50 Tax Included Semi-Formal
Sponsored by ISC

Sweaters!

CARDIGANS — SLIPOVERS

Beautiful Colors

ALL SIZES

Fine Quality Wool

Smart Shop

123 S. ALLEN STREET