

Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

Salty V. Twelve was busy this weekend with the social end of his training. Psychologically speaking he was on the ball. His morale was kept high on Saturday afternoon after the game when those easy-to-look-at Delta Gammas invited him to an open house. All those pretty coeds, dancing, and the chow made it tender duty. Thanks a lot girls.

Saturday night Salty was the guest of the Sylvania Employees Association in Altoona at their annual dance. The entertainment supplied by some of the swabbies themselves made the bus ride a rare occasion. Salty again sends his thanks to the Sylvania Employees Association for their hospitality.

Sunday afternoon Salty V. Twelve made his way to Woodman's Hall where a G. S. O. party was in full swing. Again he thanks you. After that, back to the barracks he stumbled—to rest up for next weekend.

More of the Data

A/S Jim Jones' head is still whirling after a "nice blonde" made a quick entrance and a quick exit from his young life . . .

A/S John Shisack spends his spare hours in the A. M. playing bridge with three of Ath Hall's loveliest . . . The only trouble being that it's too hard to concentrate on the cards . . . A/S Stitt and A/S Schwartzwelder apparently don't notice the little things in life—Engagement rings!

A/S Smoky Stover not only claims but can render proof that he can drink any man under the table . . . The beverage in question being tomato soup . . . A/S Dave Joffe and his eternal companion A/S Hersh Schechter can be found entertaining in one of the booths at the Corner Room . . . It goes "Are You Kit Carson?" . . . The outcome of the big bet between A/S Red Hopper and A/S Herb Locke has all concerned wondering . . . The $64 question this week seems to be "Is Rorke cracking?" . . . To those who don't know, A/S Willis Rorke is honorary president of the "Worry Warts Inc." or "College Life-Is-the-Life-For-Me" Club.

it again . . . After giving a swell performance in "Papa Is All," he is preparing for bigger and better things in "Our Town"—the Penn State Players latest opus . . .

That noise you hear in Bks. 20 isn't noise—it's the famous "Six Fingers of Ivory" trio composed of A/S Gene Hannum, A/S Gene Rifkin, and A/S Bill Griffith . . . Their piano arrangements are infamous . . . The new Southern complement on board are hunting feverishly for a gal who ain't a Yankee . . . Please notify if you have any suggestions—you all . . . Could it have been his date of last Saturday night that caused A/S Ray Thoma's sudden change in attitude toward women? . . . Those Hamilton Prop girls sure have a few sailors spinning . . . A/S Stet Stetler is one victim.

To Susie
After reading about the two-to-one ration of girls to fellows on campus, this bewildered and inquisitive lass has written Ship Ahoy to find out "the sailor to whom I am allotted and the coed I share him with." One suggestion might be to call any of the seven Navy barracks—maybe your "one-half sailor" will answer the phone . . . Or just wear the perfume that scented your letter, parade in front of the Corner Room, and take your pick as this "fleet" goes by . . . As for finding the other coed—call 5051 and ask for the girl who dates sailors!
