

Coeds Argue Labor Problem

Women's Debate will adopt for the semester's high school and collegiate debates the proposition: Resolved, that the federal government should enact legislation requiring settlement of all labor disputes by compulsory arbitration when voluntary means of settlement have failed, constitutionality conceded.

The debate club, under the direction of Clayton H. Schug, assistant professor of public speaking, is conducted both as an extra-curricula activity and a class. Members receive instruction in research, brief construction, speech writing, cross-examination, asking and answering questions, and summary and rebuttal.

Varsity members include Jean Barinott, Nancy Barch, Marion Byron, Dorothy Cohen, Betty Copelan, Bernice Cowdrick, Jean Dalton, Janet Dildine, Patricia Enright, Lois Fehr.

Ruth Freed, Allene Garber, Jean Gedeon, Blythe Hartley, Ann Hay, Jean Huber, Joan Huber, Mae Lenchner, Betty Ann Maginnis, Beatrice Menego.

Shirley Milner, Gertrude Rosen, Ina Rosen, June Rosen, Rose Ann Wilson, and Andrinna Winning.

Ham Props Entertain

Coeds enrolled in the Hamilton-Propeller program received the faculty and faculty wives of the engineering school at the Kappa Sigma House Sunday. About 30 guests were present.

A committee headed by Melba Hart and including Constance Campbell, Thelma Eurich, Laura Rowe, and Louise Yancey made all arrangements.

Panhel Explains Rushing Code to Representatives; Announces Two Penalties

Panhellenic's rushing code will be further explained to Panhel representatives and sorority presidents at a meeting scheduled at Women's Building at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday, announced Helen Martin, retiring Panhel president. Copies of the rushing code have been distributed to sorority women, freshmen, and new transfers.

Recently elected Panhellenic officers were installed by Miss Martin Tuesday, and they will hold office for the next three semesters. Presidential and vice-presidential offices go to sororities by a rotation program under which each sorority is represented in turn.

At a special meeting of the Panhellenic Executive Committee penalties were inflicted on Sigma Delta Tau and Kappa Kappa Gamma for an infraction of the eligibility rule of the council. Both sororities neglected to check averages of initiates in the Dean of Women's Office last fall.

The penalty consists of no rushing during the first week of scheduled rushing, no open houses, no attendance at Panhellenic tea, and removal of one formal rushing party.

The committee which decided the penalty was composed of Helen Martin, chairman, Janet Adam, Patricia Hallberg, and Betty Merkle. Advisors to the committee were Mrs. C. R. Gearhart, Miss Ruth E. Graham, Mrs. H. W. Loman, and Mrs. G. Streiffler.

DEC. 1ST

- You remember the law of physics that two objects cannot occupy the same space at the same time. Just so with war materials urgently needed at the fronts and personal packages. For that reason our Government has requested that all civilian Christmas packages be sent before Dec. 1st. So we of Railway Express ask you to help us (and yourselves too) by doing these three simple things, in addition to shopping early:

1. Send your gifts before Dec. 1st. Laundry can keep to its regular schedule. When packages are ready to go, phone the Railway Express agent.
2. Wrap your packages carefully and securely.
3. Address them clearly, with your own and their recipient's name, street number, city and state.
