

PSCA To Organize Upperclass Club; Frosh Forum Lists New Officers

Organization of an upperclass club will be discussed at a PSCA get-together for second semester men and women, and upperclassmen in the Hugh Beaver room 7:30 p.m. tonight. Patricia Enright and Robert Barefoot are co-chairmen for the meeting. There will be special features and news from the Ca. commissions. Refreshments will be served.

Lois Wyman is the new president of PSCA Freshman Forum. Other officers are: Emily Wiegel, vice-president; Joan McKeon, secretary; Virginia Gallup, treasurer; Jo Ann Rorabach, worship chairman; Bunny Rosenthal, social chairman.

These officers will be installed at candlelight service in the Hugh Beaver Room 6:45 p.m. Tuesday. Betty Ann Condron, PSCA president; Shelly Smith, chairman of work with freshman girls; Phyllis James and Patricia Enright, former Freshman Forum presidents; Ruth Auchenbach, advisor for worship; and Ella Keichline, director of the forum choir, will assist with the meeting.

An International Christmas

CLASSIFIEDS

WANTED: Ride in direction of New York City on Wednesday, December 6. Also ride in opposite direction Sunday, Dec. 10. Please call William Colbert, College Ceramics Department.

FOUND: One-half of a V-12 for Susie. Please call 3984 and contact your correspondent who is enthralled with your scented stationery.

WANTED: Husky Ag males, to be auctioned off at Ag mixer in the Armory Saturday night.

LOST: brown dog-ear tap shoes in Home Ec building. Please return to Student Union.

LOST: Delta Gamma pin. Call Betty Pike, Benedict House.

LOST: gold ankle bracelet engraved Dorothy and AL. Call Dot Colyer 5051-179.

FOUND: Hat left by persons riding from Shingletown road to State College Saturday, November 25 may be claimed at Student Union upon proper identification.

PERSON who picked up three notebooks Monday in Mineral Industries by mistake please call Bill 4859.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT WANTED: A trumpet, fairly priced, and in good shape. Will person interested in selling please phone Jordan 5051 and ask for Aileen Garber.

WANTED — Two dishwashers. Call Phi Sigma Delta 4409.

WANTED—Two rides to Harrisburg early Thursday mornings. Please call 39 Ath Hall.

LOST—Silver USO bar pin in town or on campus. Finder please call Midge 43 Ath. Lotsa sentimental value.

LOST—Black leather wallet with initials L. E. W. on outside. Contains matriculation card and many valuables. Generous reward.

LARGE ROOM second floor, twin beds, available after Dec. 2 to either men or women. Call M.

ROOMMATE wanted for apartment. One block from campus. Call 4686.

LOST: Black key case Wednesday. One key is marked A-17. Reward. Return to Dixon, 305 New Physics.

Recently elected officers of the College Symphony Orchestra are John Setar, president; Frances Hartung, secretary; Robert Manning, librarian; and Hermann Weed, manager.

buffet supper will be sponsored by PSCA and Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church at the Episcopal Parish house 7 p.m. December 17, announces Betty Funkhauser, chairman of PSCA commission one.

Students from other countries will be guests of honor at a program highlighting Christmas customs in other lands. The church young people's groups will be invited to send representatives. The cost will be approximately 50 cents.

BMOC's and BWOC's will explain various phases of campus life to Freshman Council members in the Hugh Beaver Room at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

3 Chosen for Positions in State Library Group

Three members of the College Library staff have been named to offices in the Pennsylvania Library Association.

Mrs. Lois G. Patterson has been re-elected chairman and Miss Ruth J. Bickett was named secretary of the Junior Members Group. Miss Gladys R. Cranmer was elected secretary of the Association.

Additional staff members who attended the convention in Philadelphia last month include Miss Mildred A. Ailman, Miss Helen M. Cooper, Miss Elsie M. Kresge, Miss Lela B. Marsh, Miss Kathryn V. Martin, Miss Katharine M. Stokes, Miss Irma L. Swank, and Willard P. Lewis.

Named to Committee

Dr. Edward Steidle, dean of the School of Mineral Industries at the College, has been named a member of a five-man committee to make "Coal-for-Victory" awards.

The awards, which will be given for increases in production and efficiency to meet scheduled requirements for coal in 1944, are being sponsored by "Coal Age," a technical magazine devoted to the operating, technical, and business problems of the coal mining industry.

Send The Collegian to your friends and parents. Subscriptions are $1 a semester.

Placement Interviews

D. W. Durham, personnel manager of the du Pont de Nemours Company, Wilmington, Del., will be on campus December 8 to interview students.

Durham will interview eighth semester students in chemistry and all phases of engineering.

Arrangements for personal interviews should be made as soon as possible in 204 Old Main.

Lit Majors Form Club

English literature majors who have formed a group, tentatively named Belles Lettres Club, will meet in 205 Sparks, 4 p. m., December 7.

Officers elected at the last meeting are: Winifred S. Worrell, president; Jane Burleigh, vice-president; and Joan Hock, secretary-treasurer. Prof. A. Pauline Locklin and Prof. Douglas S. Meade are faculty advisors.

Programs will include talks by faculty members, discussions by club members, current events in literature, and the celebration of significant anniversaries in literature. All Liberal Arts students who are majoring in English literature are eligible to join.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate and encourage the wider reading of good literature, to promote fellowship among the students and faculty of the department, and to sponsor projects serving to direct the cultural life of the college community.

Debaters Meet Haverford Team

Second in a series of inter-collegiate debates held at the College will take place with Haverford College in 121 Sparks, 8 p.m. Wednesday. Chairman of this cross-examination style debate will be Edward Zemprelli, manager of men's debate team.

Haverford College speakers have not yet been determined, but those who will represent the College will be Ralph C. John and Sanford E. Rafsky. They will discuss the following proposition:

Resolved: That the federal government should subsidize the higher education of superior high school graduates whose parents are unable to finance such an education.

Members of the audience will be invited to participate in discussion in an open forum following the debate.

Women's Debate Adds 19 Freshmen Members

Women's Debate recently added the following freshmen members: Mildred Bason, Frances Baylisonu, Ruth Eister, Elsie Escofery, Elsie Harwitz

Florence Kensinger, Pearl Kolb, Helene Lesse, Elizabeth Lindsay, Betsy Marshall, Joan McKeon, Elaine Mittleman, Barbara Morrison, Esther Peby, Jo Ann Rorabach, Catherine Savage, Jane Staus, Ann Stoltz, and Lois Wyman.

The debate team is under the direction of Clayton H. Schug, assistant professor of public speaking.

Beware of "Nippy Air" he's on the prowl!

Watch out for "Nippy Air" who walks abroad these chilly days, reddening noses and chapping tender lips.

A tube of Roger & Gallet original Lip Pomade is your protection. Smooth its invisible film over your lips and you can defy the harshest weather. Chapped lips are not only painful—they're unsightly! So drop in at any drug store and say "Roger & Gallet original Lip Pomade in the handy pocket tube."

ROGER & GALLET
500 FIFTH AVE., NEW YORK 18, N.Y.

SALLY'S

WARNER BROS.—STATE COLLEGE THEATRE

PROGRAM

CATHAUM THEATRE

Fri. "Till We Meet Again" Ray Milland
Sat.-Mon. "Together Again" Irene Dunne
Tues. Chas. Boyer
Wed.-Thur. "An American Romance" B. Donlevy
Fri. Ann Richards

STATE THEATRE

Fri. Sat. "None But The Lonely Heart" Cary Grant
E. Barrymore
Mon. "Twilight On The Prairie" J. Downs
V. Austin
Tues. "Dark Mountain" Ellen Drew
Wed. "Little Old New York" Alice Faye
Thur.-Fri. "Tall In The Saddle" John Wayne
Sat. Ella Raines

NITTANY THEATRE

Fri. "Cry Havoc" M. Sullivan
Sat. "Eagles Brood"
Mon. "Between Two Worlds" J. Garfield
Tues. "Tunisian Victory" and "Up In Mabel's Room"
Wed. "Song Of The Open Road" C. McCarthy
E. Bergen
Thurs. "The Heavenly Body" Hedy Lamarr

PENN STATE CLASS RINGS

L. G. BALFOUR COMPANY
LOCATED IN THE ATHLETIC STORE

TWO DAY SALE!

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

100% Wool COATS—Reg. 29.98

20.00

100% Wool SUITS—Reg. 29.98

20.00

These Are New Fall Coats and Suits—Regular Prices
Are Our Ceiling Prices

Charles Shop

Allen Street