Boxing, Wrestling Candidates Drill Daily For Opening Meets

and wrestlers, coached by Paul Campbell, are practising in Rec la, James Work, and Verne Con-Hall from 4:30 to 6 p. m. daily. The boxing squad will meet Army January 13 and the wrestling team will clash with Cornell January 20 in first encounters, both away.

Chuck Hall and Glenn Smith, Campbell's only seasoned grapplers, are practising their holds and exercising along with the new men. Acting head manager for the wrestling team is Ross Johnson, assisted by Hugh Odza, Gabriel Roth, and Robert Hirsch.

Thirty-five sailors and civilians have tried out for the wrestling team. They are: Edward Bauer, Robert Bacon, John Bellis, Karl Bugh, Carl Calteryann, Robert Crease, William Cramer, Grant William Davis, Marvin Davis, Demp, Bruce Fischl.

Harold Greene, Chuck Horn, Donald Holtzman, Walter Kohl, Edward LaVoice, William Mc-Master, George Meeker, Don Miltenberger, William Mulline, Robert Nowell, James Osman.

Joseph Perry, Clarence Reid, Ralph Samppala, George Schautz, Alda Serafini, Robert Stein, William Tucker, Frank Wills, Robert Wisherd, James Worley, and James Yetter.

Only holdover from last season on Houck's boxing team is Paul Smith, ex-serviceman. Nicolas Ranieri, former Air Corps cadet, previewed his strength Wednesday when he ripped open a punching bag during practise.

Daily routine for boxers includes weight-pulling, shadow-boxing, rope-skipping, running, and sprin-

Barracks 36 Whips 24 In First V-12 Cage Tilt

Navy V-12 intramural basketball opened Wednesday when Barracks 36 defeated Barracks 24, 24-13, in a preliminary game to the Muhlenberg tilt.

Intra-barracks games will precede the Susquehanna, Franklin and Marshall, University of Mexico, West Virginia and Colgate games with the varsity. Other games have been slated at times when they will not interfere with varsity contests.

Prelims will begin at 6:30 p. m. Teams will play 20 minute halv. es and National Intercollegiate Basketball Association rules will govern the conduct of the games. Spears ...... 4 12

Van Lundy is the team's head manager, with Arthur Goldberg, Edward Zemprelli, Maurice Graldon as assistant managers. Tryouts for the boxing team are: R. D. Fields, G. E. Hartsoe, William Karns, L. F. Kippler, Alfred Koorey, Manuel Kraus, William Mc-Aleer, Alan Pottasch, Vincent Pulec, and Jack Seitchik.

PS Club Sets Cage Opener

Opening tilt of the Penn State Club Basketball League for Independent Men will be played in Recreation Hall 8:30 p. m. Mon-

Eight teams have registered as league members. They are: Dillets, Graham A. C., Penn Haven, Penn State Club, Penn Way, Sanbourne Cagers, Spears, and X-G-I. Managers of all teams should call Art Behard, 2215, before Sunday in order to determine the opening schedule.

Students wishing to play in the league must have their medical permits by noon tomorrow. Varsity players are not eligible to participate in the tournament. Each team entering the league will be charged a fee of $2.50. Game balls will be supplied, but teams must provide their own practice balls, it was announced by Art Bohard.

Games will be played promptly at 8:30 p. m. each Wednesday, and any team not showing up within 15 minutes of the opening time will automatically forfeit to its opponent. No team may have more than eight members. Keys will be awarded to all members of the champion team.

Penn Haven, Colonial Top. Independent Bowlers

Penn Haven and Colonial, both victorious in this week's contects, lead the Independent Men's Bowling League with 14 wins and 2 loses each.

Wednesday night scores were: Penn Haven defeated the Engineers, 2079-1946; Colonial topped Spears, 2155-1901; and Penn Way forfeited to Foster Lodge.

Team standings to	dat	:e a	re:
•	W	L	Pct.
Penn Haven	.14	2	.875
Colonial	.14	2	.875
Penn Way	.12	4	.750
Foster Lodge	. 8	. 8	.500
Engineers	. 4	12	.250
Spears	4	12	250

Lion Cagers Drop Overtime Tilt

Lion cagers dropped their op- Scoring on a foul by Gillen, ening game when Muhlenberg Willison put the Lion cagers eked out a 37-36 win in an overtime contest at Recreation Hall dribbled down the floor to score Wednesday night.

Forging ahead only throughout the game, once being in the last few minutes of play, the Mules won their fourth consecutive victory of the present season. The encounter presented an opportunity for Coach John Lawther's squad to reveal its rough spots in preparation for next week's tussles.

The State five will meet Susquehanna Wednesday and Marshall College, Virginia, Thursday. Both tilts will be played at Rec Hall and are slated for 8 p.m. The Marshall team is a newcomer on the schedule while Susquehanna bowed to the Lions last season.

Lawther's men used the twothree zone defense throughout the game in contrast to the Allentonians' man-to-man play. Doc Wil-

- 1
1	PENN STATE	G	$\mathbf{F}$	Т
	Willison, f	5	1	11
1	Light, f	2	1	5
١	Curry, c	0	1	1
	Danilov, g	1	Õ	2
۱	Nugent, g	4	ŏ	8
	Szepesi, c	Ô	2	2
.	Lang, f	1	ī	. 3
.	Berzinski, g	1	0	2
1	Rotalis f	1	-
1	Batnik, f	1	0	2
۱	Rahn, g	0	0	0
ı	Goldboro, f	0	0	0
۱	Totals	15.	6	36
.	MUHLENBERG	G	$\mathbf{F}$	T
	Baldwin, f	6	4	16
	Thiesen, f	0	1	1
ı	Doran, c . N	2	1.	- 5
	Gillen, g	5	0	10
	Whiting, g	0	3	3
	O'Brien, g	0	0	0
	Bird, f	1	0	2
	Totals	14	9	37
٠

lison broke the ice when he took the opening jump, dribbled down the floor, and scored. A slow first half ended with a 18-17 score, Lion's favor.

After four minutes of passing, Willison again set the pace for a fast nip-and-tuck second half. Dick Light and Bill Nugent scored for the Lions with Jim Doran and Tex Baldwin sinking the ball for the visitors. Baldwin's basket brought the score to 25-25.

Willison grabbed a jump ball but a fast pass sent it out of bounds. Charley Gillen brought it up the floor to score sending Muhlenberg out ahead for the first time, 27-25. Willison sank a goal to tie the score at the end of the third period, 27-27.

Penn State athletes reported dead or missing in this war al-.250 ready number more than 35.

ahead for the last time. Doran a goal. Chuck Thiesen made good his attempted foul shot and Light tallied for State to end the game with a deadlock, 30-30.

Capt. Dick Whiting opened the five-minute extra period for Berg with a foul shot and Nugent immediately came back with a score for State. Doran tallied on a foul and Gillen sank a long set-up. shot from the side. Willison and Vic Danilov, Lion captain, tallied to make the sore 37-36, Muhlenberg's favor. Slim Curry foiled a foul shot and Dutch Lang was short on a setup try. The game ended with the score-Muhlenberg 37, Penn State 36.

Allentonian's Tex Baldwin was high scorer for the fray with 16 points. Willison and Nugent, playing consistent speedy ball and doing some nice interfering, shared the honors for the Lions with 11 and 8 points respectively.

Lawther's squad made 6 out of 11 foul shot attempts while the Mules scored only 9 out of 23

Receive Football Bids

Lion gridders Johnny Chuckran, back, and Don Miltenberger, end, have received bids to play for the north in the Blue-Gray fcotball game at Montgomery, Ala., on December 31.

Please help keep LONG DISTANCE circuits clear for necessary calls on December 24, 25 and 26.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

IF YOUR TYPEWRITER NEEDS SERVICE JUST DIAL 2492

L. G. BALFOUR COMPANY LOCATED IN THE ATHLETIC STORE

Have a "Coke" = On with the dance

... or keeping the younger set happy at home

Hot records and cold "Coke"... and the gang is happy. Your icebox at home is just the place for frosty bottles of "Coke". Your family and all their friends will welcome it. At home and away from home, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become a symbol of gracious American hospitality.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY

COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF ALTOONA

