

Ship Ahoy

By A/S FRED VOGEL

The Winter Ball is now history—and so is Salty V. Twelve's bankroll, but he's not regretful. Salty and company were one of more than 900 couples who were on board for the biggest dance of the year. In spite of snow and wind it was plenty hot on deck—especially when the votes for "Winter Ball Queen" were counted. It was a tough fight and close race, but Kappa Kappa Gamma's candidate, Shirley Painter, won the coveted position.

Salty V. Twelve wishes to announce that the small profit made on the Winter Ball will be turned over to Navy Relief on behalf of the Navy V-12 unit of this school.

Scuttlebutt

A/S Bill Rorke's smile came when he heard that shoes only and not "Boots" were rationed. A/S Bob "Radar" Parker carries the mail no matter what obstructions may come his way. A/S Herb Locke is on the ball with his nice "Hats". A/S Ben Rasmussen is worshipping the autograph of Meredith Blake, Shep Fields' female vocalist. A/S Walt Kuenzi taking the permanent phone watch waiting for Kay to call. His better half A/S Francis Ianni still has that debonair lady-killer complex.

The big smile A/S Rutkowski wears is the result of having received the highest average trophy for his own Bks. 37. It might also be for "the girl and the ring he slipped on her finger". The $64 question this week—Did the pretty cheer leader get that date with A/S Gene "Pretty-Boy" Hannum through the Escort Bureau? Remember this A/S comes at double the quoted prices. A/S Les Szepesi trying to sell some lucky guy a date for the big dance. What a change when he found out he was the lucky one.

Thru the Porthole

The 411's announce a stag dinner on February 2. To interest the coeds Bks. 24's dance will be February 3. Also on the list

Adams Speaks in Reading

Dr. Clifford R. Adams, associate professor of education and psychology at the College, will address the Council of Social Agencies at a meeting in Reading on February 6. His subject will be "Problems of Postwar Marriage."

Five Faculty Members Write for Local Paper

Readers of the Centre Daily Times look to five College faculty and staff members for amusement and enlightenment throughout the year.

Dean of the contributors is Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock, who has been writing the "Half Colyum" for the last 20 years. His daily stint contains anything from playful puns to profound pronouncements.

"Skynotes," a weekly astronomical guide, has been written for the last 17 years by Leland S. Rhodes, associate professor of civil engineering. Like Warnock, Rhodes looks upon his newspaper stint strictly as a hobby.

Registrar William S. Hoffman and William L. Werner, professor of English Literature, both have been preparing their specialties for more than ten years. Hoffman's contribution is a daily cryptogram, while Werner writes a literary column under the nom de plume of "Bookworm."

Penn State's other newspaper contributor is Weatherman Hans Neuberger, who keeps local residents posted on the vagaries of Centre county weather.

are Bks. 13 and Bks. 37. Ten of the men who left here for Tarmac duty the end of last semester have gone on to Pre-Flight training at St. Mary's in California. Men in Bks. 37 claim that it's just a rumor that A/S Matt Szezyler wears a hash mark on his pajamas. They say that A/S John Sniscak is interested in the girl-friend of a well known Sigma Chi on campus.

A/S Stan Snyder claims that the Winter's little Eve isn't really so cold. Have you seen A/S Breeding's "zoot" bell-bottom trousers? A/S Sam Lange is now known as adorable. That long distance call A/S Gene Rikin made to New Jersey was for reservations at Asbury Park for the pre-middle season. Things are bad all over.

Front and Center

It is seldom that one hears of the work being done by men of the "silent service"—the men who man United States submarines. The Navy imposes strictest secrecy regarding submarine activities, rarely announcing anything outside of the total number of ships sunk by the undersea raiders.

Under the Sea

However, official information has been disclosed that Lieut. (j.g.) William Dorworth has been promoted to full lieutenant and cited for meritorious submarine service in the Pacific. The "News Notes" of the USNR Midshipmen's School in New York also mentioned that Lieut. Dorworth has been awarded the coveted Submarine Pin denoting that he had been in combat duty and also the prized Dolphin Pin signifying that he had qualified by tests to assume command of a submarine as occasion warranted.

An unofficial but nevertheless interesting note is the fact that Lieut. Dorworth received his 1943 Christmas presents from home two months ago.

Across the Sea

Another Penn State alum has been reported on duty with the Y-Force in the China Theatre. He is Pfc. Robert M. Mamolan, who is with a field artillery training center of the Y-Force Operations Staff. This training center is one of several operated by Y-Force for the purpose of improving the combat efficiency of the Chinese Expeditionary Force.

Cadet Donald Smith recently became a Second Lieutenant in the Army Air Forces after completing bombardier training at the Carlsbad, New Mexico, Army Air Field. Cadet Howard Snyder became a Flight Officer at the same Air Field. As officers in the Army Air Forces ready for active duty, their destinations are not disclosed.
