

Frosh Women Entertain At 'Big-Little Sister' Tea

Freshman women will entertain their big sisters at the annual "Big-Little Sister Tea" in the southwest lounge of Atherton Hall, 3 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dye, Miss Betty Farrow, Miss Edith Melville, and Gertrude G. Rosen will preside at the tea table.

'SLOPPY SLEET' is sure Bad Company

Winter weather brings harsh treatment to sensitive lips. But with a tube of Roger & Gallet original Lip Pomade in your pocket, you can laugh at "Sloppy Sleet".

Just smooth on Lip Pomade's invisible, soothing film and defy the climate. There's no safer, surer protection against painful chapping and cracking.

Stop at any drug store and ask for the handy pocket tube.

Women In Sports

Women's Building and Ath East are tied for first place in the Coed Intramural Basketball Tournament with Chi Omega running a close second. Final playoffs in the double elimination contests have been scheduled for Thursday night, Becky Walker, WRA intramural chairman, said yesterday.

Ath East eked out a 22-18 victory over the ChiO sextette on White Hall floor Wednesday night to win the top position. Becky Walker and Betty Haring, representing the sorority and the dorm respectively, set the scoring pace with 10 points each. Other goals were made by: Ath East—Mary Gundel, 8; Harriet Richards, 4; Chi Omega—Barbara Smith, 7; Betty Robinson, 1.

The lineups were: Ath East—Betty Haring, Harriet Richards, and Mary Gundel, forwards; Betsy McGee, Elinor Wills, and Betty Leonard, guards. ChiO—Barbara Smith, Betty Robinson, and Becky Walker, forwards; Eunie Hurlburt, Maggie Gold, and Barb Wilson, guards; Ginny Durbin, Marg Scherf, and Jean McGhee, substitutes.

Other games played this week resulted in a ChiO victory over AOPi, 43-33; Zeta Tau Alpha swamped Thetas, 24-13; and Cody Manor defaulted to Beatty House.

WSGA Considers Lower Guest Fees at Dorms; JSB Holds Exchange Meal

WSGA in its weekly meeting Wednesday discussed the proposal of an Atherton unit that the fee for overnight guests in the dorms be reduced. The fee is now set at one dollar per night, and the unit feels this is too high. Senate decided to have a committee meet with Mrs. Granger to discuss their proposal.

Junior Service Board will hold an exchange dinner with Negro coeds eating in the sandwich shop, it was announced. The dinner will be held in Atherton and in the sandwich shop Wednesday.

Betty Robinson, Judicial head, announced that first semester freshmen will have extensions of their 10 o'clocks Friday night to attend the concert in Schwab Auditorium. Extensions will be granted to coeds presenting their ticket stubs to dorm hostesses.

A discussion of points of the plan advocated by the Liberal Arts Postwar Planning Committee was held, and a vote was taken for approval of the plan.

A report from the library was presented for action by Senate. The librarians have noticed that distracting disturbances have been caused by ASTP men and coeds who study in the reference room. Tuesday afternoon has been designated for the ASTP to study in the library, so coeds are asked to cooperate in keeping the room as quiet as possible.

Ritenour Prescribes Shoes, Stockings For Clammy Feet

Are your feet cold girls? Do your knees feel numb from the freezing temperature? Well, there is a good remedy for these annoying things—stockings plus shoes with toes and heels.

Dr. Riteour, head of the College health service, thought he walked at a rapid pace until he noticed some coeds speeding along the street in toeless, heeless shoes. His decision for such fast walking was that either the coeds had to walk fast or freeze their feet.

Going further with his analysis, the doctor approved the wearing of slacks by coeds to keep warm, but then remembered that most of them roll the pants to the knees anyway. Style seems to be the bugaboo in these situations, he said.

It's great to be here... Have a Coca-Cola

...or helping a soldier feel at home

When he's back on furlough, three words, Have a Coke, bring a soldier's old life back to mind... his days after school or after work, with the gang and with his girl. Ice-cold Coca-Cola holds a friendly place in American life. It should have a place in your family icebox. Wherever Americans go, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become a symbol of our friendly way of life.
