

Penn State Coeds Swim In Telegraphic Meets

Eleven Penn State coeds will compete in the Intercollegiate Telegraphic swimming meets in White Hall Pool today and Monday.

Entrees for the 40-yard crawl are Jean Eble, Lindel Moltham, Betsy Ross, Lois Wyman, Catta Garrett, Gloria Woodward, and Millie Chestnutt. Marilyn Globisch will swim in the 40-yard breast stroke event.

Competing for the 100-yard crawl title will be Chestnut, Ruth Black, Moltham, Ross, Wyman, and Woodward. Mickey Barnett and Black will seek the 40-yard back crawl championship.

Nan James and Woodward will enter the 100-yard breast stroke contest and Black will swim the 100-yard back crawl.

Two teams will enter the 100-yard free style relay. The first squad is composed of Black, Globisch, Wyman, and Woodward. Ross, Eble, Moltham, and Garrett will comprise team two.

In the 75-yard medley relay Black and James will swim the back stroke; Globisch and Barrett, the breast stroke; and Woodward and Wyman the crawl.

Globisch, Black, Wyman, Moltham and James will be in the 75-yard individual medley.

Officials for the races will be as follows:

Timers: Dorothy Jaun, Margery Lyon, Charlotte Taylor, Mary Ann Jennings, Eleanor Wills, Janet Rosengrant.

Scorer: Helen Stough.

Announcer and checker: Betty Wolfram.

Judges: Estelle Brown and Doris Jenkins.

Inspectors of turns and lanes: Alice Hooper and Barbara Smith.

Marion J. Whallon, Lion coach, will referee the meets.

Telegraphic Swimmer

Marilyn Globisch, who will swim the breast stroke events in the Intercollegiate Telegraphic swimming meets this semester, represents the Lion coed team along with 11 other entrees.

Coed Team to Debate In Pitt Tournament

Women's Debate team will participate in the Pittsburgh College Forum Debate Tournament sponsored by the University of Pittsburgh and Mt. Mercy College to be held on the Mt. Mercy campus Saturday, it was announced today by Clayton H. Schug, director of the debate team. Ten colleges will debate in the tournament.

Betty Copelan and Betty McGinnis, manager of Women's Debate, will compose the affirmative team debating in the orthodox style of two ten-minute constructive speeches. Debating for the negative team in the orthodox style of two five-minute rebuttal speeches will be Joan Huber and Gertrude Rosen.

Servicemen may look for more mail hereafter. Coeds at the College have instituted a "letter writing hour."

"Without question the most important motion picture of its time. Absorbed with humor, tenderness, loyalty, sincerity, with love, a football game and dashes of song and dance. A remarkably fine film."
