

17 Year Old Candidates Now Eligible for ASTRP

Examinations for applicants to the Army Specialized Training Reserve Program will be held in 221 Sparks at 9 a.m. April 12, Robert E. Galbraith, faculty counselor on war activities, has announced.

The examinations are open to boys whose 17th birthday falls between October 1, 1944 and August 31, 1945, and will have graduated from high school or completed one semester of college by July 1, 1945.

Students who will have graduated from high school or completed one semester of college during July or August are also eligible if they are not older than 17 years and 9 months on the first day of the month following their graduation.

All men who are interested in taking the examinations should contact Mr. Galbraith, 243 Sparks, before April 1.

Groups Plan 3 Concerts

Music organizations on campus are planning three concerts in addition to the regular Easter Service choir program, scheduled for April 1, Hummel Fishburn, head of the music department, announced today.

Dates released by Professor Fishburn include: the Blue Band concert, April 29; a program by the Penn State Treble Singers, May 4; and the College Symphony Orchestra concert, May 13.

Where Do You Live?

Nearly every state in the union and approximately 30 foreign countries are represented in the military-civilian enrollment at the College.
