

GSO Sponsors Easter Hop

"Cotton Tail Hop" to be presented in the Armory, 8 to midnight, tomorrow, is GSO's greeting to Easter, announced Mary Haines, GSO president.

A vic dance featuring cotton bunny tails as decoration, it is open to GSO members, servicemen, X-GI's and civilian men.

A/S Matthew Szyller as master of ceremonies will introduce the entertainers.

Kay Badollet will play the piano and Anne Keller and Marilyn Mendoza will dance. Vocalists are Ruth Hill who will sing "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and Georgia Snook, who vocalizes with "Sleigh Ride in July" and "I'm Beginning To See the Light."

Committee chairmen are as follows: Lois Burkey, hostesses; Rosemary Ghantous, publicity; Lois McClelland, decorations; Doris Stowe, refreshments; and Marion Williamson, entertainment.

A special GSO meeting will be held in 10 Sparks, 7 p. m. Thursday.

Five members of the College staff write columns or features for the State College daily newspaper.
