AAUW To Sponsor Musicale Featuring College Choristers

A benefit musicale is being sponsored by the College's branch of the American Association of University Women in the Nittany Lion Inn at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Eight numbers will be sung by the College Choristers, a group of 18 mixed voices directed by Mrs. Willa W. Taylor, assistant professor of music. "April Is In My Mistress' Face" by Morley, "Welcome, Sweet Pleasure" by Weelkes, "The Silver Swan" by Gibbons, and "When Allen-A-Dale Went A-Hunting" by Pearsall, comprise the chorus' first group of selections.

Mrs. Betty Slayman, solo violinist, will play the "Allegro" and "Andante Cantabile" movements from Mozart's "Concerto Number Four in D Major." In addition to accompanying Mrs. Slayman, Prof. Guy Woods of the music department will present several piano solos. Included among these are: "General Lavine" and "Fireworks" both by Debussy, "Danza Lucumi" from Lecuona's "Afro-Cuban Dances," and "The Tides of Manaunaun" by Cowell.

Accompanied by Frances Mitchell, Louise Neff, soprano, will sing the three French airs, "Nell" by Faure, "Extase" by Duparc, and "J'ai dit aux Etoiles" by Paladilhe.

Barber's "Let Down the Bars, O Death," Finzi's "My Spirit Sings All Day," Margeson's "Weep You No More Sad Fountains," and Schuman's "Holiday Song" will be the closing numbers presented by the College Choristers, who will be accompanied by Betty Ann Plummer.

General arrangements for the affair were made by co-chairmen Katherine Stokes, assistant librarian, and Mrs. Taylor. Members of AAUW, Marjorie MacCartney and Edith Zinn assisted the chairmen as did Gerry Gilman and Ruth Hill, co-chairmen of the Choristers.

Members of the College Choristers are: Ruth Hill, Katherine

Hofmeister, Louise Neff, Ann Reese, and Gloria Travioli, sopranos; Betty Graeber, Suzanne Hartwick, Doris Huck, and Lou Ann Roche, altos; Charles-Heaps, William Henninger, Bernard Levitan, Wesley Nyborg, and Herman Slayman, tenors; and Gerry Gilman, Thomas Reynolds, Michael Rosenberger, and Jack Seyler, basses.

WSGA To Honor Mothers at Teas In Campus Dorms

May Day teas on Mother's Day will be given in several campus dormitories under auspices of WSGA May 13, announced Anabelle Jansson, chairman of May Days.

Girls living off campus are particularly urged to take this opportunity to get acquainted with girls living in campus dormitories, since there has been little chance to do so in the past.

An invitation to attend these teas is extended to all girls' mothers and fathers as well as men students and their parents.

Teas will be held in the following campus dormitories: Atherton Hall, Grange Dormitory, Irvin Hall, McAllister Hall, and Women's Building.

WSGA assigned Doris Funk to serve on the World Student Service Fund All College Committee. At the same meeting it was decided to send a telegram of support to Miss Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard College and woman delegate to the San Francisco Conference.

La moda Americana... Have a Coca-Cola
 (THE AMERICAN WAY)

...an American custom as seen in Italy

People overseas are impressed by the American fighting man's friendliness among his fellows. They see his home-ways and customs—his good humor. Have a Coke they hear him say to his buddies, and they begin to understand America. Yes, the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola speaks of the friendliness of Main Street and the family fireside.
