

ASTP Unit Plans Formal Featuring Campus Owls

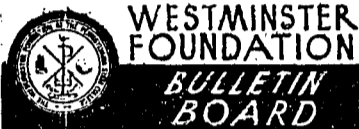

The Army Specialized Training Unit will hold a formal dance in the Armory from 8 to 12 p.m. May 19. The dance will be open only to army men stationed at the College.

Music will be provided by the Campus Owls. A queen will be selected from nominees entered by ASTP barracks, and the winner will be escorted by a guard of honor to a throne erected for her. The throne and large posters of drum-bearing soldiers will be the main decorations for the dance.

Schug Announces Dates For Speaking Contest

Entrants in the All-College Speaking Contest scheduled for May 18 must register in 121 Sparks 7:30 p.m. Thursday, according to Clayton H. Schug, chairman of the committee in charge.

Each student planning to participate in the contest will select his topic at the Thursday meeting and will be assigned to one of ten elimination sections. Topics may be selected from lists provided or may be of the entrant's own choosing, if approved by the committee. All undergraduates, except previous prize winners, are eligible.

The College will award the $50 first prize and Forensic Council $25 as second prize.

Each contestant will speak for five minutes on his topic 7:30 p.m. May 14. Participants will meet in assigned rooms. One person will be chosen from each group to speak in the semi-finals in 121 Sparks at 8 p.m. the same night.

Alumni Casualties

More alumni casualties were reported in April than in any other month since Pearl Harbor, according to Hugh R. Riley, assistant executive secretary of the Alumni Association. In this period 18 were killed and 7 were reported missing. This brings the total known to 226 killed, 51 missing, and 40 prisoners of war.

Dispensary Treats 2866

The dispensary treated 233 ASTP's, 204 sailors, and 2,429 civilian students, or a total of 2,866 for March. In the same time, 34 ASTP's, 7 sailors, and 43 civilian students were hospitalized at the infirmary for an average of three days each.

Registrar Announces

The Registrar's Office announces that many students, including those who enrolled in 1944, have not come for their matriculation cards.

Students who have not informed the Registrar's Office of a new or changed College address are urged to do so.

been accepted from other states.

For the fall semester, 50 men and 324 women have already been admitted making a total of 374. Two hundred twenty-eight of these rank in the highest fifth, and 21 are from out of state.

The majority of men admitted for the summer semester are 17-year olds, anxious to begin their education before entering military service, Registrar Hoffman pointed out.

Applicants admitted to the various schools are as follows: Agriculture—17 men, 2 women; Chemistry and Physics—49 men, 10 women; Lower Division—33 men, 48 women; Mineral Industries—8 men; Engineering—50 men; Education—4 men, 13 women; Physical Education—4 men, 8 women. Twenty-eight men and four women have not yet been accepted in a particular course.

Penn State Engineer Offers $50 Scholarship

Juniors who are in the upper ten percent of their class in the School of Engineering or Mineral Industries or in the curriculum of chemical engineering may still apply for the $50 award being offered by the Penn State Engineer.

Applications may be obtained at Student Union or the Engineer office, 2 Armory. All applications must be returned on or before May 14.
