

WSGA, WRA Schedule Dates For Primary, Final Elections

Election dates for Women's Recreation Association and Women's Student Government Association offices have been announced by Allene Babbitt, elections chairman. Preceding the elections a nominations mass meeting will be held in 110 Home Economics at 6:30 p.m., May 21, where nominations may be made from the floor.

Primaries will be held in Old Main lounge from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 24, and the final elections will be in Old Main lounge from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 28. All students must present some means of identification at the polls before being permitted to cast their ballots.

WSGA slate will be announced at the mass meeting on Monday night.

WRA nominations are as follows: president, Alice Hooper and Becky Walker; vice-president, Phyllis James and Jeanne Schrumphf; secretary-treasurer, Helen Noble and Phyllis Reigle; intramural chairman, Ann Baker; assistant intramural chairman, Mickey Barnett and Claire Parks; sophomore representative, Jean Alderfer and Virginia McCluskey.

All candidates for WRA and WSGA offices must have a 1.5 All-College average, show leadership qualities, and participate in numerous campus activities.

Nominees for president of WRA must have served on the board for one year, and the vice-president and intramural chairman must be juniors during term of office. Secretary-treasurer, assistant intramural chairman, and sophomore representative must be sophomores during term of office.

Elected officers will take office in the fall semester.

Dr. Moore To Speak On 'How to Study'

"How to Study" will be the topic of a talk given by Dr. Bruce V. Moore, head of the department of education and psychology, 121 Sparks, 7 p.m., Wednesday. Sponsored by Alpha Lambda Delta, the speech will be addressed primarily to freshmen, but anyone may attend.

The national chapter of the honorary awarded a set of the complete works of Shakespeare to Lois McCool. Each year the national group awards to its local chapters a prize book to the senior girl who has maintained the highest average through seven semesters.

Home Ec Department Plans Mass Meeting

Group singing, a talk by Dr. Laura W. Drummond and a skit will highlight the mass meeting for home economics students and faculty members in 121 Sparks at 7 p. m. Thursday.

The skit will dramatize some of the pet grievances of both students and faculty and show how the Home Economics Advisory Council would alleviate these irritations.

After nominations for membership for the Advisory Council have been made, everyone is invited to go to the home management houses for refreshments.

Dean's Office Sets Dates for Coed Room Drawing

Coeds will draw numbers and choose rooms for summer and fall semesters according to the following schedule, it was announced today by the office of the dean of women.

All coeds will be housed in parts of Atherton and Grange for summer semester due to plans of the dormitory department to redecorate and repair sections of Atherton, Grange, and sorority houses.

Coeds living in Atherton and Grange may retain present rooms for the summer or the fall semester, or both, by registering with their hostesses now. For the summer all of Atherton except the ground and first floors of the west unit and all of Grange except the third and fourth floors will be available. Those living in Mac Hall and the Tri-dormitories may retain present rooms for only the fall semester by registering with their hostesses.

A coed who expects to hold her present room for one semester, but choose another room for the other semester should draw a number and come to room choosing.

Dormitories available to upper class students for the fall semester will be Atherton, Grange, Tri-dormitories, McAllister Hall, and sorority houses.

Those changing rooms for the summer and fall semesters will draw numbers Monday to determine the order in which choice of room is made. Present first semester seniors will come first. Number drawing will be in Atherton lounges as follows:

Northeast lounge: sixth semester, 6:30 p.m.; fifth semester 7 p.m.; second semester, 7:30 p.m.; first semester, 8 p.m.

Southeast lounge: seventh semester, 6:30 p.m.; fourth semester, 7 p.m.; third semester, 7:30 p.m.

Room choosing will be held in the dean of women's office. Available rooms will be posted and students will choose in order of their numbers for summer or fall semesters, or both. Roommates will choose on the lower of two numbers drawn, and roommates of different semesters will draw and choose with the lower of the two semesters.

The schedule for room choosing is: seniors, 6:30-8 p.m. Tuesday; sixth semester, 8-9:30 p.m. Tuesday; fifth semester, 6:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesday; fourth, 6:30-9:30 p.m., Thursday; third semester, 6:30-9:30 p.m. May 28; second semester, 6:30-9:15 p.m. May 29; and first semester, 6:30-9:15 p.m. May 30.
