

Lacrosse Squad To Face Cornell

Penn State's lacrosse team, bowing to Navy Saturday, 23-0, for its fourth straight loss of the season, will attempt its first win against the Big Red stickmen of Cornell University tomorrow. The game will be played on the Golf Course practice field at 2 p.m. as New Beaver Field will be used for the P.I.A.A. championships.

The Lion stickmen will be without the services of three key players, according to Coach Nick Thiel. Navy Trainee Mike Ciaramella is ineligible because of scholastic difficulties, and Navy trainee Ed Bauer, who injured his foot in the Army game, is a patient in the infirmary. The other absent member is Navy trainee George Meeker, who usually split goal tending duty with Jack Nehoda, and is under observation in a Philadelphia hospital for a leg condition.

The lineup will remain intact except for replacements for Bauer and Ciaramella, Coach Thiel said today. Kenneth Kerwin will replace Ciaramella at an attack position, and will be paired with Navy trainees Hal Taylor and Eugene Hannum. Bill MacDonald will open in place of the injured Bauer as defenseman, flanked by Bronco Kosanovich and Dean Kissell.

Jack Nehoda is the only experienced goalie now that Meeker is gone, according to Coach Thiel, and will bear the extra load. The remaining starters, Tom Smith, Jim Worley, and Navy trainee John Nolan, will hold down mid-field berths.

BILL JEFFREY

Jeffrey to Tour Europe On Army Sports Mission

Soccer Coach Bill Jeffrey has accepted an invitation to go abroad on an Army sports mission.

Jeffrey will be the third member of the College's athletic staff to serve in this capacity, having been preceded by Leo Houck, boxing coach, recently returned from a tour of Iceland, Greenland and Bermuda, and Jack Hulme, veteran trainer, who is still overseas.

The Lion coach, who produced many fine teams during his 19 seasons here, expects to leave the United States early next month for the European theatre. At least five other sports notables will be in the party.

Pitt, Villanova Bow To Lion Nine

Coach Joe Bedenk's baseball team defeated Pitt, 10-5, at Pittsburgh Saturday in the teams' second encounter of the season. The Lions won the first tussle, 10-2, two weeks ago. The Nittany club eked out a 12-10 victory over a strong Navy-supported Villanova team Wednesday, winning its fourth consecutive tilt this month.

In the only game slated for this week, Bedenk's men will face the Colgate Red Raiders on New Beaver Field at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Pitt opened the scoring in the first inning Saturday when Matthews tripled and came home on Kiel's out. They scored two runs in the fifth and two more in the eighth, collecting six hits from Pitcher Bill Luther.

State came back with three scores in the first frame when Andy DeIorenzo and Dan Hopkins were walked but scored on Joe Tepsic's home run. Andy Pipa tallied in the second inning and the Lions piled up six more runs in a fourth-inning rally.

The Villanova-State match was anybody's game throughout. El Stetler and Hopkins scored on Tepsic's three-bagger in the first canto only to have the visitors score four runs in the second when Eisenhart and Lafferty came home on Maslund's single and Silver and Heitzfeld on Boos's bingle.

Holding the Lions in the third, Villanova tallied two more runs giving them a 6-2 lead at the end of the inning. Penn State scored four times in the next frame to their opponent's one when Catcher Don Herb and relief hurler Bill Clark came in.

Bedenk's men chalked up two more counts in each of the sixth and seventh innings while Villanova tied the score at 8-8 in the sixth but was unable to take the lead again.

Third Baseman Tepsic still leads the Lion batters with a .475 average.

Willing Nets IC4A Score

Chuck Willing's tie for fourth place in the pole vault, netting 34 of a point, produced Penn State's only score in the track and field championships of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America held at West Point Saturday.

Despite the low total, State was among the 12 out of 21 competing schools who polled any points. Navy, who repeated last year's triumph, and runnerup Army literally swept the field.

The Lion's last dual meet will be at Colgate June 9. Meanwhile, practice is being held daily on New Beaver Field, as the team attempts to better its times and distances for the last track meet of the season.

Tomorrow Pennsylvania's high schools will hold track and field events in the PIAA championships on New Beaver Field. Trials are scheduled for 10 a.m., while the events will begin promptly at 1 p.m.
