

Nitlany Key

We, the members of the Key Party have as our objective for the coming semester the betterment of Penn State through high-er coordination of the various student organizations. This can be done by you, the students, in the selection of your officers. We believe our slate competent to carry out your proposals and offer as our program the following:

Striving for a better method of Freshman orientation. 2. Coordinating our efforts with those of Cabinet to reopen the Sandwich Shop. 3. Cooperating with Cabinet in carrying out the new student government constitution. .4. Reviving the B.M.O.C.

dance. 5. Cooperating to the utmost in any manner with the X-G-I Club to further its intere

6. Supporting the i Cabinet in all its propos viding that they will aid lege and better it.

7. Continuing in our e have the Pennsylvania st wave in front of Old Ma

Cabinet Appoi Judiciary Gro

New members of Jud Tribunal were appointed last meeting of the sp mester held by the Ca June 12. Under the new tion the two judiciary bo act under the All-Colle erning group.

Mary Haines will head for the summer semeste members are: Betty eighth semester; Kather dinger, Betty Steele, ser mester; Dorothea Fisch Ford, sixth semester; I dred Anderson, Bernice fifth semester.

Chairman of Tribunal Judd Healy. Robert will represent the eight ter class; John Zoszak ar as Innocenzi, seventh Henbert Currie, Frank sixth semester; George fifth semester.

The second fifth semester member will be appointed by the new Cabinet, to be elected Wed-nesday and Thursday.

Newly-appointed members of the Postwar Planning Committee, group that is planning a reorganization of the Liberal Arts school, are Mary Jane Doerner, Charlotte Geller, Joanne Huber, A/S Fred Kecker, Dorothy Rut-kin, and Valerie Tamulonis.

Changes in freshmen men's customs were announced by Karl Erdman, All-College president. Men's no-dating period, hereto-fore unrestricted by rules, will be limited to three weeks. In addi-

We promise: 1. To bring student govern-ment back to its pre-war organi-zation by carrying out the poli-cies of the recently revised constitution. 2. To effect the re-establishment of a non-profit student book exchange, to enable students to cbtain texts at a lower cost.

3. To do everything in our power to keep student activities operating in spite of the decreased summer enrollment.

To bring back a full roster 4. of athletic sports as soon as possible.

5. To back any plan for a prac-tical set of freshmen customs. To take steps toward the creation of a college flag.

Sminday Chaper Services Dr. W. Paul Ludwig, pastor of nomics department, will act as the Second Presbyterian Church, director in Dr. Drummond's place Washington, D. C., will be the speaker at chapel services in Schwab auditorium at 111 a.m. Sunday.

Dr. Ludwig is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson Col-lege and the Western Theological Seminary. He was awarded a scholarship for a year's study abroad.

director.

Published Weekly By The Daily Collegian Staff FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1945-STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

The Collegian

Nittany, Key Enter Elections Brennan, Lynch Vie Frosh Loses Wallet

Containing $365

Have you found $365 recently? If so, you can do a worthy deed and return it to Raymond Kelly, a freshman at the College.

VOL. 42-No. 20

When Kelly graduated from high school in Philadelphia two years ago, he didn't have the money to college so he went to work > ine 28, Kelly left his room G. J. Stout residence, 256 vin avenue, to attend a an Week meeting in Auditorium. In his hip ne carried a wallet contain-5, his funds for college ex-He was going to deposit it bank the following morn-rning from the meeting, he he companions ran to escape n and the wallet bounced s pocket. The men searched ut it was useless. u've found it, why not call nmediately?

ne Ec Director igns Position

Laura W. Drummond, forirector of the Home Ecodepartment, has taken the n of professor of Teacher ion at Columbia University, ve July 1. Dr. Drummond en director here since 1938, which she was director of me Economics Department bia University, 1926, and her of Philosophy, 1939. Ruth E. Graham, perma-tead of the division of cloth-lic is invited to attend.

ing and textiles in the Home Eco-Hatton Sets Dates

until a new head is chosen.

Dr. Marion Trabue, dean of the School of Education, will be as-sisted by a committee of Jean Amberson, professor of teacher education; Ruth E. Graham, acting director; and Dr. Winona Morgan, head of the child development division, in selecting a permanent

Two parties, Key and Nittany, will enter candidates in All-College clections to be held in the first floor lounge of Old Main from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

For the first time, an All-College president and secretary treasurer will be elected by the entire student body. Vying for the posts will be Michael Lynch and Vaughn Stapleton, Nittany candidates, and Patrick Brennan and Paul Ameel, Key contestants.

Following are the candidates, as listed by Robert Yurkanin, chairman of the Nittany clique, and William Morton and Joseph Steel, co-chairmen of the Key clique.

All College President

Patrick Brennan, Key: X-GI Club commander, Parmi Nous, Tribunal, Senior Board, Representative to National Collegiate Veterans Association, chairman from X-GI Club to County Veteran's Association, Phi Kappa Sigma secretary.

Michael Lynch, Nittany: Sixth semester president, Student Tri-bunal, Parmi Nous, student counselor, IMA president, ISC president, poultry club president, Penn Way House president, twoyear Ag students president, Red Cross Executive committee, Penn State Club, Newman Club, PSCA, State College Community Forum, Red Cross committee chairman, All-College Cabinet Constitution Revision committee, Student representative to Senate, Committee on Academic Stand-ards, chairman blood typing project, Memorial Day committee. All College Secretary-Treasurer Memorial Day committee.

All College Secretary I reasurer Paul Ameel, Key: varsity la-cross, X-GI Club. Vaughn Stapleton, Nittany: varsity boxing team, Parmi Nous, Theta Chi president, X-GI Club, Ag student council, F.F.A., Penn State Club, Red Cross Blood Donor committee, block and bridle club, Penn State riding club:

Eighth Semester President Stanley Chadwin, Key: Skull and Bones president, Tribunal, Debating Squad, Penn State Engineer staff photographer, A.I.E.E., IFC, Beta Sigma Rho. Jack Davenport, Nittany: Phi Delta Theta president, IFC, X-GI Club, A.D.S.A.

Eighth Semester Secretary-Treasurer

Mary Haines, Key: Freshman Forum, P.S.C.A., Players, G.S.O. president, Judicial chairman, Pan-Hel representative, Senior Clique chairmen must hand two sts in to Student Union by 11 Board, Senate, All-College Cabi-

Gephari To Sing In Free Concert

William Gephart, American baritone, will present a concert in Schwab auditorium 8:15 p.m. Thursday, according to an announcement from the Summer Sessions office. Mr. Gephart will, be accompanied at the piano by Ruth Dennison, who will also appear on the program in a group of piano solos.

The singer is a graduate of De-Pauw Conservatory of Music. He did graduate work at Julliard School of Music for five years, and appeared in three opera productions there. During the past year he has been soloist on the "Friday on Broadway" and the "Manhattan Merry Go Round" radio programs. •

Mr. Gephart has been presented twice in recitals at Town Hall, York City, and has made New three appearances as baritone so-loist in the New York Carnegie Hall. He has also sung as soloist with the Bach circle group.

Creation of the leading role in the first performance of the "Burg-Die University Drummond received her lar's Opera" at Columbia Univeror of Science degree at the sity is among Mr. Gephart's sity of Pennsylvania in achievements. He has been soloist er Master of Arts degree at at the Bethlehem, Williamsburg,

The concert will be given without admission charge, and the public is invited to attend.

For Class Election

Elections will be held in the first floor lounge of Old Main, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday,

Helen Hatton, chairman of the elections committee, announced.

Each student must present identification at the polls before receiving his ballot.

tion, freshman men will no long er be required to wear the customary black ties, white sox or rolled-up trousers, nor will they have to "button" to upperclassmen.

Ex-servicemen are exemp from all freshman customs.

Reversing its decision to dis-continue Swing Inn, Cabinet voted to hold open house in the Armory every other week dur-ing the summer semester.

Arthur H. Warnock, dean of men, spoke to Cabinet on the intangibles that he feels must be passed on to incoming students by upperclassmen. Among these he listed were the feeling of public service that students of the College possess, the democracy and unity of the student body, student self-government, and the hospitality and decency characteristic of the students.

Men Outnumber Women For Summer Semester

Incomplete figures for summer semester registration forecast a return to a ratio in which the men students outnumber the women. According to figures released by William S. Hoffman, registrar, tentative enrollment stands at 1324 of which 775 are men and 549 women.

Summer session enrollment ratio total encolment of 849 of which as associate professor of rural so-total encolment of 849 of which as associate professor of rural so-total are men and 667 women.

19 Faculty Assignments

meeting:

Dr. S. W. Fletcher to retain his post as dean of the School of Agriculture, from which he recently retired until a successor is chosen.

C. C. Wagner, assistant dean, to acting dean of the School of Liberal Arts until the vacancy due to the retirement of Dean Charles W. Sfoddart is filled. Samuel K. Hoffman, graduate of the College in the class of 1925, and chief engineer since 1928 for Lycoming division of Aviation Corporation of America, Wil-liamsport, as professor of aeronautical engineering, effective July 1.

Calvin G. Reen, formerly supervisor of ESMWT, as professor of engineering extension, effective July 1.

Orman E. Street, a graduate of South Dakota State College, with master's and doctor's degrees from Michigan State College, and more recently a member of the staff of the Lancaster Tobacco Research Library, as professor of agrono-my, effective July 1. William G. Mather, a graduate of Denison University, with master's and doctor's degrees from Cornell University, and more re-cently an associate professor of sociology at DePauw University,

The College Board of Trustees Dr. Charles Unbach, a member approved the following faculty of the faculty of the School of appointments at their annual Medicine at the University of Pensylvania, as associate professor of human nutrition research, effective July 1.

James H. Barbour, assistant professor of human nutrition re-search, effective July 1. John N. Seiler, assistant professor of engineering extension, effective July 1.

Marguerite Horn, instructor in home economics, effective October 1.

Mrs. Marguerite H. Newman, instructor in zoology, effective July 1.

Conrad C. Spangler, district representative, Central Extension, effective July 1.

Mrs. Josephine M. Hutchison, icme economics extension representative, effective July 1. Mary Ellen McClain, home eco-nomics extension representative, ffective July 1.

Margaret Ann Reed, home economids representativel, effective July 1.

Mrs. Ruth Irene Brooks, reearch assistant in human nutrition research, effective July 1. Mrs. Helen Buck Campbell, research assistant in human nutrition research, effective July 1. Madge Adele Gilbert, research assistant in human nutrition re-search, effective July 1. Thelma Elaine Heller, research assistant in human nutrition research, effective July 1.

o'clock tomorrow, the first giving the names of all candidates for office and the second indicating the officers, names, and semester of each clique member. Both lists must be signed by the clique chairman and secretary.

All candidates for office are required by the All-College constitution to have an average of 1 or more.

The elections committee will meet with candidates and clique chairmen in 412 Old Main, 8 p.m., Monday to hear complaints and clarify the elections code. A second meeting will be held after the closing of the polls in 412 Old Main, 5 p.m., Wednesday, to hear further complaints.

Two itemized expense accounts, signed by the clique chairman and secretary must be turned in to Student Union before noon, Wednes-The first should state the method of collection of the $25 allotted to each party, and how it is spent. Donations, which cannot exceed $10, must be included in this amount.

The second list should show how the $5 allotted to parties by the elections committee for photographs and printed posters was spent.

Collegian Advertising

Students interested in working on the Collegian advertising staff are urged to meet in 8 Carnegie Hall at 7:15 p.m. Monday. The meeting is for both old and new candidates, according to Elaine Miller.

net, Zeta Tau Alpha

Jean Butz, Nittany: Gamma Phi Beta president, senior sponsor, Cwens, Freshman Forum president, PSCA cabinet, Westminster Foundation cabinet, Ellen H. Richards club, Freshman Council.

Seventh Semester President

Jack Seavy, Key: Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Lambda Upsilon, IFC secretary-treasurer, Parmi Nous, Alpha Chi Sigma.

Thomas Smith, Nittany: Larosse team captain, Phi Delta Theta president, Parmi Nous, Druids, IFC, A.S.M.E.

(Continued on paye five)

Chem Society to Show 3 Technical Movies

The Central Pennsylvania section of the American Chemical Society will show three sound movies on chemical engineering processes in 119 New Physics at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. The public is invited to attend.

"Nickel Milling and Smelting" describes the preparation, flota-tion, and smelting of nickel bearing ore. It also portrays the chemical processes to extract the byproduct, copper, as well as those used in the separation of the nickel.

The mining, purification, and uses of sulfur are shown in the film entitled "Sulfur." The "seawater" process of magnesium ex-traction and purification is dem-onstrated in "Magnesium."