

Lion Chargers Challenge Saltine Warriors Oct. 27

After a two weeks rest following the Navy tilt, coach Bob Higgins' Lion chargers are ready to return to gridiron competition against Syracuse University on Saturday afternoon at the New Beaver Field, at 2 p.m.

Rated as one of the East's stronger elevens, the Lions are expected to gain added prestige when they face the Orange. Being favored to win won't keep Higgins from firing his "big guns" until the Blue and White is sure of victory.

The Saltine Warriors may give State unexpected trouble. Underdogs usually do. Coach Ossie Solem has talent on the Orange squad and if he can break it loose against the Lions, onlookers will be in for a thrill-packed game.

The 1945 edition of the Penn State eleven is big, fast and hard-hitting. Boasting a line that averages close to 200 pounds, the Lions have displayed an abundance of defensive prowess. The forward wall has swallowed up the ground gaining attempts of most of their opponents, with visible success. The ends, which Higgins didn't figure would come up to par have thus far done a stalwart defensive job of guarding the flanks, and the ground defenses of the backfield have strengthened with each game. In the aerial department it is a little different. The Lion backs have let a few costly passes be completed and it's this weakness in pass defenses that might spell trouble for the Higmens.

The ground offense has a speed department in which halfback Joe Tepsic features. Tepsic is a great seat back with power; a combination that is welcomed by any football mentor. The ex-Marine has added a definite scoring punch to the Lion attack.

The return of hard-hitting fullback Ralph Ventresco to the Penn Battle Veterans Here are the expected mainstays on Penn State's football team this fall—both veterans of World War II. Left is Joe Tepsic, Guadalcanal hero, who was discharged from the Marine Corps because of serious battle wounds. On the right is Ralph Ventresco, a pre-war gridder, who is a veteran of five major infantry battles in the African and European theatres. Joe is almost a sure bet for the left halfback post, and Ralph for fullback.

State line-up will give the backfield added strength. An unpopular decision on the part of the Rules Committee benched Ven-tresco early in the season before he had a chance to return to gridiron competition after a four-year "time out" to fight the war.

Center Club Sponsors Roast For Transfers

A weiner roast for incoming transfer students from the undergraduate centers will be held at Fairmont Park November 1. Ted Lucas, president of the Center Club, announced that the party will leave from the main entrance of Sparks Building.

Janet Patterson of the Pottsville Undergraduate Center is chairman of entertainment. Genevieve Swankoski of the Hazleton Undergraduate Center is head of the refreshment committee. The members of the club will be aides to the new students at the College.

Engineers Name Officers

At a recent meeting, officers were elected to head the Electrical Engineering Society, which is the College branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

James G. Wiley was elected chairman; Charles Burr, secretary; Lee V. Alexander, treasurer; and Prof. Albert P. Powell, counselor.

"OLD IRONSIDES"

stood up throughout the war

LIKE the famous old ship, your telephone has come through the war with colors flying.

What other aid to modern living has been so dependable under all conditions and so free from mechanical troubles?

During the war years, when so little new telephone apparatus could be made for the home front, even equipment made many years ago by Western Electric has served you faithfully and has been a national asset in time of war. Quality shows best when the going is tough.

* * *

Western Electric, supply unit of the Bell System, is now tackling its biggest peacetime job. Furnishing materials and equipment to meet the System's immediate needs—then to carry out the System's $2,000,000,000 post-war construction program—promises record peace-time production and a level of employment higher than in the years just before the war.

Thespian Radio Unit Schedules Try-outs

The Thespian Radio Unit is a new club which was formed during the summer semester to acquaint students with the techniques of radio. Members of the club learn all angles of the art of radio production—script writing, acting, and the technical side.

Tryouts for the Thespian Radio Unit will be held the first week of school. Posters will be located around campus and town giving further information.

Officers of the Thespian Radio Unit are: Caroline Manville, president; Jane Wolbarst, vice-president; Eleanor Phillips, secretary-treasurer; William C. Reutti, director.

The script reading committee is headed by Portman Paget, and Helen Runnel serves as chairman of the script writing committee.

Pi Gamma Mu Initiates Nine Social Scientists

Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honorary, initiated nine new members at a tea held in Atherton Hall lounge on Wednesday, October 10.
