

State Brings Swift Defeat To Syracuse

The Penn State football machine thrust quickly into Syracuse territory in the opening moments of the first quarter when Joe Tepsic reeled off long runs of 31 yards and 17 yards to put the ball on the Syracuse 28 yard line. The attack bogged down there and the remainder of the scoreless period turned into a punting duel between Robinson of Syracuse and Lang of State.

For five minutes of the second period the Syracuse eleven fought the Nittany Lions to a standstill and the highly touted Lions which have lost only to a powerful Navy team failed to live up to pre-game expectations. Then Tepsic culminated a 56 yard march when he broke through tackle, cut back sharply and scored standing up. Taccalozzi's try for extra point hit the crossbar and the score stood 6-0.

After that Syracuse put up a tight defense until late in the third period when fullback Al Bellas, starting from the Syracuse 41 broke into the clear and lateraled at the 25 to Tepsic, who travelled the remaining distance. Taccalozzi converted and the score was 13-0.

It was the same Al Bellas who six plays later broke through the Syracuse line and with the help of Ross Herron, freshman end, who boxed out the safety man, scampered over the goal line.

The final touchdown was made after coach Bob Higgins had called on the reserves, Wally Triplett displayed some of the best running seen all afternoon as he sparked the team to the fourth score. On the third try he broke through left tackle and scored standing up. Final score 26-0.

Both teams displayed heads-up ball on the defense as they broke through to spill the backs time and time again for lost yardage. Nolan, Tamburo and Herron were particularly outstanding for the Lions.

The only Syracuse threat came in the third period when Dolan passed to Morrow on the State 38. Dolan and Cohen moved the ball to the State 15 when the Lions spilled Dolan for three losses and put down the only scoring threat of the afternoon.

Chick Werner Track Coach Returns

Chick Werner, veteran Penn State track coach, has returned to civilian life after three years in the Navy. He has returned with expectations of fielding his first track team since 1942 next spring.

In 1942 the former University of Illinois athlete turned in a brilliant record at the College, scoring the first double in IC-4A history when his track team took both the indoor and outdoor titles. It was also the first time that Penn State had won an IC-4A championship.

On that top-notch 1942 team was the most famous track star in Penn State's history, Barney Ewell. In the outdoor matches he copped the fabulous and hitherto never accomplished triple-triple, by winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and the broad jump. Barney set meet records in all of them.

Also in that bright year, Werner's cross-country team took the NCAA cross-country team title. This outstanding year was the climax of his service at Penn State as track coach. He began his coaching in 1933, when he came here from a coaching job at the University of Illinois. Previously, he had held several records in the hurdles as a member of Illinois' track squads.

Werner left the campus in November 1942 to accept a commission in the Naval Reserve, and was sent to North Carolina Pre-flight before moving into the

Best Football In New Movie

Approximately 50 thrill packed plays, taken from the most important football games State has played in the last decade are now on a new film just compiled through the joint efforts of the School of Physical Education and the Alumni Association.

Popular KDKA sportscaster Bill Sutherland, who broadcast many of the games included in the series, gives a play-by-play account of the gridiron action.

Many unusual plays, including fumbles and laterals are represented in the 30-minute film which tells the story of Penn State football for the period beginning in 1937. Many of the decades star performers who galloped to fame in gridiron battles were soon to change their battle dress from blue and white to khaki, the colors of Uncle Sam. In many cases, those same boys, displaying sheer determination and grit, played leading roles in that second battle, the one that counted most.

Phi Sigma Delta Wins Softball Championship

Phi Sigma Delta took the honors in the interfraternity softball league by winning the championship of League B. The Phi Sig ball club, led by captain Ira Kristel, climaxed an unbeaten season by trouncing previously unbeaten Alpha Chi Sigma, 7-2.

As Leagues A and C were not completed, the fate of the tournament was left in the balance. There was no champion team, yet there was one team which was qualified to play off for the championship. Whether or not a prize will be awarded will be left until the first IFC meeting.

Two Wins Clinch Bks 9 Championship

Barracks 9 removed all doubts about who was to be the V-12 football champions when they tucked away two consecutive wins to cop the honors. Barracks 37, the only contender for the top rating, was mathematically eliminated.

The final standings follow:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied
Barracks 9	9	2	0
Barracks 37	6	3	1
Barracks 36	4	5	2
Barracks 13	4	5	1
Barracks 26	0	8	2

All men interested in trying out for the track team and cross country, experiencer or not, are asked to report to White Hall basement at 4 p.m.

Nolan, Smith Win Honorable Mention

Johnny Nolan, Penn State's big bruising football tackle, was one of the two Lions to win honorable mention in this year's all-American Lacrosse selections.

The Glens Falls, N. Y., Navy trainee shared this distinction with the Nittany Lion captain, Tom Smith of Indiana, Pa. Both played the mid-field positions.

Coach Nick Thiel's hopes for a successful season were brightened with the return of three former State players. Ted Ashby who played in 1942 was transferred to the Navy V-12 unit. John Schabinger and Dick Schmidt both returning X-GIs will be vieing for starting roles in the spring.

A new wing soon will be added to the College's mammoth Recreation Hall, scene of indoor sports events.

Booters Tie Cadets' 0-0

Despite a 2-0 setback by Temple last week, the Penn State booters distinguished themselves as being one of the best soccer teams in the country by tying a heavily favored Army squad, 0-0, in one of the outstanding matches in the country. The Jefeiremen put on a really good showing in a game climaxed by two five-minute overtime periods.

The brightest spots in a team that functioned as a championship team should were three first semester freshmen, competing for the first time in collegiate soccer. They were George Emig, at right fullback, Bill Little, playing center forward, and Charles Garcia, in at right halfback.

Other booters whose play sparkled were Jim Doman, goalie, who saved the game any number of times, Captain Herb Mendt, who played an unusually excellent game, and John Hamilton, honorable mention on the All-American team, who also showed up exceptionally well.

There was a short crisis when Hamilton and Garcia had to drop out because of tightened leg muscles, but all was well again when they returned to play after a few minutes rest.

Tepsic Receives Maxwell Award

Joe Tepsic, Nittany Lion stellar tailback, gained nation-wide recognition when he was given the Maxwell Award as the outstanding football player of the Philadelphia district for the week.

The award was presented to him at a banquet in Philadelphia recently.

The Marine hero of Guadalcanal received the club's college player award from Bert Bell, president of the Maxwell Club and co-owner of the professional Pittsburgh Steelers. In accepting the award, Tepsic spoke briefly on the game with Syracuse.

Al Michaels, Nittany Lion backfield coach who accompanied Tepsic, responded to a request by Bell and discussed briefly the Michigan State-Marquette game. He called the Spartans a dangerous opponent. Penn State plays Michigan State November 17.

It was the second time a Penn State player was honored by the Maxwell Club. In 1942, Aldo Cenci was given the award for his outstanding play against the University of Pennsylvania.
