Dorm Host—

The whole plan was a success. The Cutlers have a home, and the coeds, now that the initial shock of having a man living in their dorm has worn off, are wearing a beaten path to the Cutler living room with their problems, and just to talk. And if slips and pajamas scamper noisily out of sight around corners when Mr. Cutler walks down the hall, he's too preoccupied with his work to notice.

His "Banquet In The Aleutians" appeared as an article in the November 10 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. He is much occupied at present with the book he hopes to have finished this year.

Nursery School To Give Yule Party For Parents

Parents of children enrolled in the nursery school at the College are invited to attend a Christmas party to be held at the nursery school in the Home Economics building at 7:30 tonight, Dr. Winona L. Morgan, head of the nursery school, announced.

Miss Amy G. Gardner, associate professor of home economics and art education, will be present to assist parents in making Christmas decorations.

Rumor has it that the title tentatively is "From Behind My Wife's Petticoats."
