

Phys Ed Association Honors Miss Marie Haidt At State Convention.

Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of physical education, was honored at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Friday night.

Miss Haidt was the only woman to receive the association's award for "outstanding contribution, meritorious and unselfish services to the profession of health and physical education."

Hot Chums Band Together

Do you belong to the "100 Club?" Qualifications for membership include residence at MacAllister Hall and a temperature of 100 or more. (Exalted members with 102 and rising fast temperature are advanced to the infirmary.)

A shortcut to membership in the exclusive organization is offered to all coeds who are not fortunate enough to live in Mac.

Step one: Secure a dainty pair of toeless, heelless, sideless slippers and wear on rainy days.

Step two: Spend several hours with a friend who has at last contracted a pretty case of gripe.

For those who desire speed, one step is suggested that will hand them in the hierarchy of nose-blowers. Simply don't waste a minute on sleeping this weekend and spend brief cooling-off periods in the great outdoors after each dance, at house parties and the Winter Skip.

Russian Club

... will initiate new members and hold a social hour in the Hugh Beaver Room at 7 p. m. Sunday. All Russian students are invited to attend and old members are requested to arrive at 6:30 p. m.

Phi Sigma Kappa

... elected the following officers: Ernest Nagy, president; Thomas Davis, vice president; Constantine Glarrow, secretary; Robert Logan, treasurer and Nevin Miller, pledge master.

Oxford House Ex-GI's

Ex-Servicemen living at the Oxford House, Thompson street, are entertaining for the first time at a Christmas party from 8:30 to 12 o'clock tomorrow night.

Carl Offner and Dick Weaver of the social committee are in charge of the affair.

The house, which is run by and for ex-servicemen, recently received some furniture from the now disbanded downtown Service Club, but there still is a need for more, said Paul Guiteras, president.

ALL-AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM

Selected by

The 350 Members Of The American Football Coaches Association

HERE, at last, is an All-American football team selected by the men best qualified to judge—the football coaches of the nation.

It's the first time in the history of college football that any publication has been privileged to announce a selection from the top authorities in the game.

350 COACHES TO VOTE

These are the men who have set the college football stage—discovered, trained and turned out the players. Together, they have witnessed all of the good football in the entire season.

NEW METHOD OF JUDGING

During each week of the football season, coaches watched with trained eyes every man who looked like All-American material. Week after week, these reports were filed with the Association, tabulated, and returned to the coaches for a careful study and a final, end-of-season vote.

The men who made this final All-American team are the real "Who's Who" among the nation's players, as selected by the "Who's Who" among the men best qualified to judge.

Don't miss the American Football Coaches Association 1945 All-American Team in the December 29th issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Again the Post pioneers in a sports venture of interest to millions of fans. To keep up with all that's new in the nation's favorite sports—be sure to read the Post every week.
