

Quiroga Plans Campus Visit

Luis A. Quiroga, secretary for Latin America of the Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students, New York, will visit the College Saturday, Sunday, and Monday.

Palmer C. Weaver, chairman of the Inter-American Cultural Committee on campus, has announced that Mr. Quiroga is anxious to meet foreign students, either as a group or individually, to discuss problems that they may have. He would also like to discover any ways in which his organization may be of assistance to them in connection with their studies or their visit to this country.

Arrangements for personal conferences with the Latin American visitors may be made in 102 Burrows. He is especially interested in meeting Spanish American students.

From The Files

(Continued from page one)
Five years ago today

The College has asked Governor James for a biennial appropriation of $5,619,545.49, it was revealed last night by Samuel K. Hostetter, assistant to the president in charge of finance.

A $3000 blaze hit Alpha Sigma Phi caused by a pile of hot ashes in the furnace room Sunday.

The unsolved murder of Rachel Taylor '43, for which $1000 reward was raised, by the students, was selected as the biggest news story of 1940.

Skating reported good at Whipple's Dam.

Beer drinking among young men, especially college students, under 21 years of age, is a method of keeping them away from stronger liquors and should be encouraged, according to Dr. Yandell Henderson, professor of applied psychology at Yale University. In his book, "A New Deal in Liquor."

Two years ago today

Authoress—Princess Paul Sapienta, the American-born wife of a Polish noble man will be Theta Sigma Phi's guest speaker at the Matrix dinner.

Nittany Lions scored a 37-36 win over NYU, Lawthermen avenging the 1942 setback.

Flu sweeps 4087 cases to dispensary

For rent: Small furnished apartment, first floor. Responsible men preferred. Dial-2165.

(ED. note. We just couldn't resist this.)

"Damn a prof that gives a quiz on Monday morning.

"Damn a prof that gives a quiz on Monday.

"Damn a prof that gives a quiz. "Damn a prof.

"Damn."

The real trouble with our youth of today is that they were out all the night before.

The March of Dimes

... campaign for victims of infantile paralysis will be conducted from January 14 to the 31. Two containers, one in the Corner Room and one in the Student Union office, Old Main, will be used for student donations.

Dr. C. E. Champlin

... professor of education and psychology, will speak to members of the Bellefonte Kiwanis Club at the Penn Belle Hotel at noon today.

College Aids For Vets

Ex-servicemen at the College are getting good attention. Ernest Goodling (top) uses the College's hearing clinic to overcome war injury. Below, right, Dr. J. P. Rit-enour, director of the College Health Service, gives Coast Guard vet Calvin Maynard a thorough examination. Full-time faculty counselor Prof. Robert E. Galbraith, left, helps the men choose their curriculum and get started in the right direction.

CLASSIFIED SECTION

FOR SALE—2 pair ice skates. Size 10. Call 4933.

FOR SALE—New Hallicrafter Radio Model S141W white, enameled metal cabinet, table style. Frequency range, 550 Kc 230 Mc. Extreme sensitivity assures reception of all programs. Call Ross 4862. $55.85.

LOST—"Public Finance" left in dispensary December 20. Call 402 Atherton.

LOST—Gold bracelet—Penn State seal. "Harriet to Gloria" on back. Sentimental value. Reward. Call Grange 3rd west.—Gloria.

LOST—President's gavel inscribed Pennsylvania ETA, 1945, D. D. V-L. Call Don Van Lunen, 4471.

LOST—Black goatskin wallet. No identification, contents included money, picture. Lost on campus. Reward. Please return to Student Union.

NOTICE—No beer will be served to tables consisting of minors at the Crossroads Restaurant, Boalsburg.

NOTICE—Part-time jobs available for a few students. Computations and tabulation of data for an agency of the state of Penn-

Idle Candidate Pens Diary Of Busy Night

7:30 Walks into Collegian office.
7:45 Somebody looks up and says hello.
8:00 Given three-line written article to write.
8:30 Polishes off article. Told to wait for a head to write.
9:00 Still waiting.
9:15 Gets preview of Old Mania.
9:30 Head arrives, candidate happy.
9:45 Has to leave to get back to dorm. Head unwritten.
10:00 Tells dorm mates how she wrote whole Collegian.

Apparently most of the people who won't stop at anything are driving autos.

sylvania. Apply department of mathematics, 211 Sparks Building, 10-11 a.m. Monday-Friday.

WANTED—Student who desires to work for his room. Telephone 3405 or call at 112 West Beaver avenue.

LOST—Pearled AOPI pin. If found please call Jeane 4643.

'What, No Freshmen?' Upperclassmen Wail; Tribunal Weeps Aloud

What! No freshmen! No green dunks and no green bows!

What will the com I profs do to pass away the time? Who will listen to Alpha Lambda Delta lecture? What will upperclass coeds worry about when they don't have fresh, young competition to contend with?

No frosh? What will Judicial and Tribunal do with all the time? What will upperclass coeds fiendish tortures and campuses they love to bestow on hapless newcomers and what will become of the First Semester Club?

all alone and neglected with no one to pay it homage.

C'est la guerre? No, its the morning after . . . another re-conversion headache.

Hillel Hour Presents Biblical Dramatization

The Hillel Hour, over WMAJ 4:30 this afternoon, will present a dramatization, "The Parable of the Three Rings" from Lessing's drama "Nathan the Wise." The adaptation of this play of 1779 is by Marion Schein, with Sydney Friedman directing.

Featured on the program will be Libby Peters announcing, and a cast including Theodore Bye, Arthur Goldberg, Benjamin Gorelich, Robert Kaufman, Portman Paget, Jackson Reid, and William Reutti.

An empty coal bin these days is enough to put a lump in your throat.

Purple Quill Reviews Book

Retiring Guildmaster Charles M. Barr will review the much publicized recent novel, "The Manatee," written by Nancy Bruff, on the radio program, "Purple Quill Presents," over WMAJ at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Guest speaker on the program will be Miss Flora Bramson, instructor of English composition. The third feature on the program is as yet unannounced.

A meeting of the guild will be held after the broadcast at the home of Dr. Philip A. Shelley, to elect a new guildmaster.

This election has been necessitated by Guildmaster Barr's withdrawal to enter a New York school for creative work in the field of writing.

FFA Treats All-College To Old Time Barn Dance

Pointing the way to more varied entertainment for Penn Staters, a barn dance with music by James Freyermuth and his Music Makers will be staged in the Stock Pavilion from 8:30 to 12 p.m. Saturday.

The dance is under the sponsorship of the Future Farmers of America, and is being directed by Carolyn Graham. Tickets may be obtained from members of the club, at Student Union, or may be purchased at the door. The price of tickets is 40 cents each and 75 cents a couple.

It's the little things that count—on mother picking up after them.

FOR . . .

DISTINCTIVE PRINTING

Nittany Printing & Publishing Company

119 S. Frazier St.

Phone 4868

State College, Pa.

SALLY'S

COLLEGIAN SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

SPRING OR FALL SEMESTER
1946

Send Collegian to your friends and relatives. Enclose one dollar and send this blank to the Collegian Office.

Name _____

Street _____

City _____ State _____

ANCHORAGE COFFEE SHOP

210 W. College Ave.

STEAKS

CHOPS

SEAFOOD

SANDWICHES

CATERING TO BANQUETS AND PRIVATE PARTIES