

Non Basketeers Down Pitt, 5,500 Fans See 48-37 Tilt

Milt Simon Plays Spark-plug Role With 17 Points, Zellers Nets 15 Points, 36 Fouls Are Called

Penn State's basketball team gained revenge for an early season loss to the Pitt five by pounding out a 48-37 victory over the Panthers before 5500 fans at Recreation Hall on Saturday night.

Diminutive Milt Simon paced the Nittany passers to their seasons sixth victory by countering for 17 points. Simon's uncanny side-court shots kept the State squad out in front from the opening whistle.

Zellers, Pitt's giant center, led the Panther scoring by cutting the groups for 15 points. Eight of these points came by way of field goals and seven were garnered via the foul line.

In a game characterized by 36 fouls, the State passers scored 10 points out of 21 attempts. The Pitt team had 15 free tosses and made 13 of them good.

The fourth quarter proved to be the most hotly contested witnessed on the local court this season. The referee's whistle slowed the game to a standstill and during the last five minutes the State team put an end to scoring efforts by freezing the ball and maintaining their lead.

In the first quarter State jumped to an early lead and gradually lengthened this until they led by 12 points at the end of the first quarter. Score 17-5.

The Panthers came back with a second quarter surge that netted 15 points against State's 11. At the end of the period State led by seven points and the score was 23-21 at half time.

Pitt came back strong in the third quarter and outscored the Lion Quintet by two points and cut the Lion lead to 34-29.

The fourth quarter saw the Lions move out of danger by talking 14 times while the Panthers countered with 8 points. Final score 48-37.

Matmen End Home Season; 21-11 Victory

Making their final home appearance of the season, the Nittany Lion matmen, before a crowd of 1500 in Recreation Hall Saturday afternoon, defeated the Big Red wrestlers of Cornell, 21-11.

Dick Gray, newcomer to the Nittany team, outpointed his 121-pound opponent, Phineas Kuhl, to win the opener of the afternoon. Gray broke into the State lineup as Dave Faloon is out for the season because of a wrenched shoulder suffered in earlier competition. Gray had to bring his weight down 11 pounds to compete in the 121-pound class.

Captain Jim Miller, Cornell's 145-pounder, remained undefeated for the season by winning a decision over Hal Greene in a very close bout. The match wasn't decided until the final round when Miller took the advantage and held the time throughout the period.

In the first fall of the afternoon Joe Steel pinned Bob Kenerson in the 136-pound division with a bar arm and body press. Steel was behind in points as the second round began but he quickly overcame this by pinning his opponent in 1.20 minutes of the second round.

Sam Harry, State's captain, remained undefeated in the 128-pound class by winning a decision over Dave Huntington.

Extending his season's winning streak to six, Grant Dixon pinned his Cornell opponent Jim Green in the 155-pound class with a double bar-arm lock. The first round was just underway as he pinned his man in 1.31 minutes for the victory.

Cadets Outclass Lion Boxers; Benglian Wins Opening Test

Showing more experience and poise, an undefeated West Point boxing team copped six of seven bouts as they outfought the Nittany Lions, 7-1, in Recreation Hall Saturday night.

Only John Benglian, former Golden Glover making his first start, was able to cope with the Army style, the straight-arm left jab and cocked right. Relaxed and determined in the ring, Benglian outpointed by a comfortable margin the veteran Salvador Felices in the featherweight class.

Hard-hitting Stan Lachowski, pitted with Intercollegiate champ Amos Jordan in the 155-pound class, slugged it out with the Cadet the full three rounds but the more experienced Jordan, keeping his left jabbing, held the advantage and earned a close decision.

A stalking, determined Stephen Conner, 145-pound champ, outclassed Jim Cassidy, who had been moved up a weight to meet him, while middleweight John Slusarczyk hooked up with the Cadet light heavy, losing the decision.

Captain Paul Smith returned to his lightweight post and faced a promising unbeaten Cadet, Bill Hiestand.

120-pound class—Barnett (A) decision Polansky, 28-27.
